ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER-GARDENS.

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

Price One Rupee.

[The work will extend to about 100 (or more) closely printed octavo pages. There will be a few lithographic drawings illustrating the Language of Flowers, and an Appendix of Practical Instructions and useful information respecting the Anglo-Indian Flower Garden.]

The above work is founded on an article first published in the Calcutta Literary Gazette, but the text has been since so greatly enlarged, and so copiously illustrated with additional quotations from the British Poets that it may be regarded as a new work. As only a comparatively small number of copies will be printed, subscribers are requested to send in their names without delay to the publishers, Messrs. P. S. DeRozario and Co., Tank Square, Calcutta.

Notice.

As there appears to be a mistaken impression gaining ground that unregistered letters often miscarry, and that there is less security now for the proper delivery of letters than there was before the introduction of the use of Stamps, the public are hereby invited to bring to notice, on every occasion, any grievance or cause of complaint which they may have against the Post Office Department, and are assured, that every attention will be given to complaints, and that the matters brought to notice will be promptly and thoroughly investigated.

The Deputy Post-master General of Calcutta, and the Post-masters of all Mofussil Post Offices within this Presidency, have been duly instructed on the subject, and will be prepared to secure, and promptly to investigate, all matters of complaint that may be preferred.

J. R. BURLTON BENNETT,
Post-master General of Bengal.

CALCUTTA,
The 19th May 1855.

No. 305.

Notice.

THE Public are hereby informed, that on and from the 1st Proximo a Mid-day Mail Despatch will be made from Barrackpore to Calcutta by Mail Cart.

The above arrangement will enable letters posted at Barrackpore before noon to be delivered in Calcutta (by the Third Delivery) at 3 P. M. of the same day.

J. R. BURLTON BENNETT,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Calcutta,

Calcutta; General Post Office, the 29th May 1855.

Notice to the Public and to Post-masters.

I. NOTICE is hereby given, that under the sanction of the Hon'ble the President in Council, the Indian Book Post Rules have been assimilated to those contained in a Treasury Warrant dated 23rd January 1855, relating to the Book Post between Great Britain and India.

II. Under the new Rules, Packets consisting of "Books, Publications or Works of Literature or Art," without restriction as to the number of enclosures, may be sent from place to place in India by Banghy Post, at the Book Post rate, of one anna for twenty tolahs. The following conditions must be observed :—

1. Every such packet must be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides.

2. No letter, either closed or open, nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, shall be sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any letter or communication of the nature of a letter, written or printed on the cover or envelope of any such packet.

3. The full amount of postage due must be pre-paid by means of a stamp or stamps affixed to the outside of every such packet.

III. No Packet exceeding one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight can be received for despatch by Banghy Post at Book Post rates.

IV. Packets which exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight, or which are not open at the ends or sides, or which contain any article closed against inspection, or on which the full postage shall not be pre-paid by means of a stamp or stamps, will be charged with Banghy rates of postage according to Section XI. of the Postal Act No. XVII. of 1854.

V. Any person enclosing a letter in a Book Post packet will, under the circumstances stated in Sections XV. and XVI. of the Post Office Act, be liable to a penalty of 50 Rupees, and in the cases to which those Sections do not apply, the Packet in which a letter may be found will be charged the Banghy rate of postage.

VI. No Packet or Parcel exceeding three feet in length or one foot in breadth, one in depth, or two thousand five hundred and ninety-two cubic inches in bulk, can be dispatched by Banghy Post.

VII. The Rules applicable to Newspapers and other Printed and Engraved Papers conveyed by Letter Mail remain unaltered.

VIII. The terms "Books, Publications or Works of Literature or Art" include all books, whether printed, written or plain; publications or compilations, whether in print or in manuscript; almanacs, prints, maps, whether on paper, canvas or cloth, and whether printed or written; and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum, whether printed, written upon, or plain, together with any binding, mounting or covering of or upon, or belonging to any paper, parchment or vellum, and any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book-markers, pencils, pens, or other articles usually appertaining to any such book, publication, or work, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission.

Fort William, 30th May 1855.

No. 607 of 1855.—In continuation of Government General Order, No. 616, of the 9th June 1854, the Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased, under the authority of a Military Letter* from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, to publish the following additional Rules on the subject of the Honorary Rewards granted to Soldiers by the Good Conduct Regulations:—

* No. 40 of 1855, dated 28th March.

The annuities for "meritorious service" are to be distributed in sums of £5, £10, £15, or £20, according to the merits of the case.

On the occurrence of vacancies, the Serjeants holding any of the inferior rates of annuity have no claim to be advanced to a higher rate.

In all cases where punishments awarded by Courts Martial are wholly remitted by competent authority, Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers are to be considered in all respects as if no trial had occurred, and are eligible for the Honorary Rewards sanctioned by the Good Conduct Regulations.

Warrant and Non-commissioned Officers, on promotion to a Commission, are entitled to retain the Medal "for meritorious service," or "for good conduct," which may have been awarded to them, although the annuity or gratuity lapses by such promotion.

The Medals "for meritorious service," or "for good conduct," on the death of a Soldier, are to be made over to his next of kin, unless such Medals are specifically left by Will to some other person.

London and Eastern Banking Corporation.

REFERRING to the Government Notification, No. 5, dated Fort William, Financial Department, 24th January 1855, giving notice of the intention of Government to withdraw the authority hitherto granted to the Government Agent at Fort William, and to the Accountants General and the Sub-Treasurers at Fort Saint George and Bombay, to act as Agents on behalf of Proprietors of Government Securities, or Shares in the Capital Stock of the Banks of Bengal, Madras or Bombay respectively.

THE LONDON AND EASTERN BANKING CORPORATION offers to receive charge and undertake the safe custody of any Government Securities and Certificates of Shares in the Bank of Bengal, and other local stock, which the Proprietors may wish to deposit with the Bank; and will receive the interest on such Government Securities, and the dividend on such Bank-share certificates, and other local stock, as it falls due, and either remit the amount of such Interest and Dividend to England in Bills of the Bank, or pay the amount as Proprietors may desire.

The London and Eastern Banking Corporation will also receive remittances for investment in Government Securities, Bank of Bengal Shares and other stock, and will negotiate the sale of such securities and stock, when required to do so.

One quarter per cent. commission will be charged the sale or purchase of Government Securities Bank stock, &c., and on realizing Interest and dends. But when the proceeds of Govern- Paper or other stock, or the Interest or ends on the same are to be remitted through ank, no commission will be charged.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER-GARDENS.

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

Price One Rupee.

[The work will extend to about 100 (or more) closely printed octavo pages. There will be a few lithographic drawings illustrating the Language of Flowers, and an Appendix of Practical Instructions and useful information respecting the Anglo-Indian Flower Garden.]

The above work is founded on an article first published in the Calcutta Literary Gazette, but the text has been since so greatly enlarged, and so copiously illustrated with additional quotations from the British Poets that it may be regarded as a new work. As only a comparatively small number of copies will be printed, subscribers are requested to send in their names without delay to the publishers, Messrs. P. S. DeRozario and Co., Tank Square, Calcutta.

Notice.

As there appears to be a mistaken impression gaining ground that unregistered letters often miscarry, and that there is less security now for the proper delivery of letters than there was before the introduction of the use of Stamps, the public are hereby invited to bring to notice, on every occasion, any grievance or cause of complaint which they may have against the Post Office Department, and are assured, that every attention will be given to complaints, and that the matters brought to notice will be promptly and thoroughly investigated.

The Deputy Post-master General of Calcutta, and the Post-masters of all Mofussil Post Offices within this Presidency, have been duly instructed on the subject, and will be prepared to secure, and promptly to investigate, all matters of complaint that may be preferred.

J. R. BURLTON BENNETT,
Post-master General of Bengal.

CALCUTTA,
The 19th May 1855.

Notice to the Public and to Post-masters.

I. NOTICE is hereby given, that under the sanction of the Hon'ble the President in Council, the Indian Book Post Rules have been assimilated to those contained in a Treasury Warrant dated 23rd January 1855, relating to the Book Post between Great Britain and India.

II. Under the new Rules, Packets consisting of "Books, Publications or Works of Literature or Art," without restriction as to the number of enclosures, may be sent from place to place in India by Banghy Post, at the Book Post rate, of one anna for twenty tolahs. The following conditions must be observed :—

1. Every such packet must be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or, in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides.

2. No letter, either closed or open, nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, shall be sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any letter or communication of the nature of a letter, written or printed on the cover or envelope of any such packet.

3. The full amount of postage due must be pre-paid by means of a stamp or stamps affixed to the outside of every such packet.

III. No Packet exceeding one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight can be received for despatch by Banghy Post at Book Post rates.

IV. Packets which exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight, or which are not open at the ends or sides, or which contain any article closed against inspection, or on which the full postage shall not be pre-paid by means of a stamp or stamps, will be charged with Banghy rates of postage according to Section XI. of the Postal Act No. XVII. of 1854.

V. Any person enclosing a letter in a Book Post packet will, under the circumstances stated in Sections XV. and XVI. of the Post Office Act, be liable to a penalty of 50 Rupees, and in the cases to which those Sections do not apply, the Packet in which a letter may be found will be charged the Banghy rate of postage.

I. No Packet or Parcel exceeding three feet in length or one foot in breadth, one in depth, or [illegible]sand five hundred and ninety-two cubic inches in bulk, can be dispatched by Banghy Post.

The Rules applicable to Newspapers and other Printed and Engraved Papers conveyed by [illegible] remain unaltered.

The terms "Books, Publications or Works of Literature or Art" include all books, whether [illegible]n or plain; publications or compilations, whether in print or in manuscript; almanacs, [illegible]ther on paper, canvas or cloth, and whether printed or written; and any description [illegible]t, or vellum, whether printed, written upon, or plain, together with any binding, [illegible] of or upon, or belonging to any paper, parchment or vellum, and any cases or [illegible]s, book-markers, pencils, pens, or other articles usually appertaining to any [illegible] or work, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission.

Agra and United Service Bank.

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA having, by Notification of 25th January 1855, signified its intention to dissolve its existing connexion with the Government Agency, the AGRA AND UNITED SERVICE BANK will, on being furnished with the necessary powers, receive charge of Government Paper and Bank Shares from the Agent, and realize the Interest when due and Dividends when declared. The Bank will also sell or invest in these Securities for constituents.

Forms of Letters and Powers of Attorney may be obtained on application to the Bank at Calcutta, or its Branches at Agra and Lahore.

When the proceeds of Government Paper or Shares sold, or of Interest and Dividends realized, are remitted by the Bank's Drafts on England, or on its Indian Branches, no Commission will be charged.

If otherwise paid, or when the Paper or Shares are delivered over, the charge for Commission will be ¼ per cent.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER-GARDENS.

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

Price One Rupee.

[The work will extend to about 100 (or more) closely printed octavo pages. There will be a few lithographic drawings illustrating the Language of Flowers, and an Appendix of Practical Instructions and useful information respecting the Anglo-Indian Flower Garden.]

The above work is founded on an article first published in the Calcutta Literary Gazette, but the text has been since so greatly enlarged, and so copiously illustrated with additional quotations from the British Poets that it may be regarded as a new work. As only a comparatively small number of copies will be printed, subscribers are requested to send in their names without delay to the publishers, Messrs. P. S. DeRozario and Co., Tank Square, Calcutta.

Notice.

NEITHER the Captain nor Owners of the ship John Macvicar will be responsible for any debt or debts which may be contracted by her crew during the ship's stay in Calcutta.

LOST OR MISLAID.—A Certificate, No. 2091, for one Share in the Capital Stock of the Bank of Bengal, standing in the names of Lieutenant-Colonel John Welchman, Captain R. A. Ramsay, and J. L. Russell, Esq., since deceased.

Any person giving information regarding the above Certificate to Messrs. Lyons and Bell, Attornies at Law, Esplanade Row, Calcutta, will be rewarded if required.

LOST.—A General Treasury Receipt, in the name of Hurrynarayen Poddar, dated 15th March 1855, No. 1962, of Company's Rupees 21,980, paid on account of Salt, of which a due notice has been given to the Sub-Treasurer of Fort William, and the payment of which has been stopped. I have therefore applied for a duplicate copy of it to the Sub-Treasurer, to whom the original, if found by any, is to be returned.

HURRYNARAYEN PODDAR.

LOST.—First Half of a Bank of Bengal Note, No. 01261, for Co.'s Rs. 25, and Second Half, No. 06202, for Co.'s Rs. 15, the payment of which has been stopped at the Bank.

LOST.—Left-hand Half of a Bank of Bengal Note, No. 17888, for Company's Rupees 20, payment of which has been stopped at the Bank.

LOST OR STOLEN.—The left hand Halves of Bank of Bengal Notes, Nos. 03511, 03973, and 08874, for Co.'s Rs. 15 each. Apply to Gisborne and Co.

Notice.

As there appears to be a mistaken impression gaining ground, that unregistered letters often miscarry, and that there is less security now for the proper delivery of letters than there was before the introduction of the use of Stamps, the public are hereby invited to bring to notice, on every occasion, any grievance or cause of complaint which they may have against the Post Office Department, and are assured, that every attention will be given to complaints, and that the matters brought to notice will be promptly and thoroughly investigated.

The Deputy Post-master General of Calcutta, and the Post-masters of all Mofussil Post Offices within this Presidency, have been duly instructed on the subject, and will be prepared to secure, and promptly to investigate, all matters of complaint that may be preferred.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 9th June 1855.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council on the 9th of June 1855, is re-published for general information :—

A Bill for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company; It is enacted as follows :—

Moonsiff's Courts to be Small Cause Courts for the trial of summary actions.

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, every Moonsiff's Court shall be a Court of Small Causes for the trial of summary actions, and shall exercise summary jurisdiction under the following rules.

Description of claims to be cognizable by Small Cause Courts.

II. All claims for money due, whether on Bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of Fifty Rupees, shall be tried summarily in a Court of Small Causes; provided that a summary action in such Court shall not lie in any of the following cases :—

Proviso.

1st.—On balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents.

2nd.—For a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or a legacy or part of a legacy under a will.

3rd.—For any claim relating to arrears or exaction of rent, or to alleged illegal distraints for rent, for such claim, or for any part whereof, a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department, if commenced in due time.

4th.—For the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

5th.—For any claim which, irrespectively of the amount thereof, is not according to law cognizable by a Moonsiff in his ordinary jurisdiction.

Jurisdiction of the Courts.

III. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted under this Act, and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court; provided that, if an action be brought against several defendants, of whom one shall be resident as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

Claims which can be tried under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court.

IV. Claims which can be tried in a summary action in a Small Cause Court under Section II. of this Act shall not be cognizable in any other Court or in any other manner; but nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature, or the jurisdiction which can be exercised by village Moonsiffs or village or district Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Punchayet under Regulation VII. of

Proviso.

1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the Rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars, in Cantonments, and stations occupied by the troops of those Presidencies respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the Rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Minors may prosecute suits under this Act.

V. A minor may prosecute a suit under this Act upon any contract entered into with him, or for any wrong for which he might have sued under this Act if of full age, without being represented by his guardian or next friend, in the same manner as if he were of full age. Provided that no release, compromise, or acquittal by the minor be valid without the consent of the Court.

Seal of the Court. Court to be a Court of record, and to be subject generally to the Zillah Judge and Sudder Court.

VI. Every Court holden under this Act shall use a Seal bearing the following inscription in English and in the language of the Court—"Court of Small Causes of _____;" and every such Court shall be a Court of record, and shall be subject to the general control and orders of the Judge of the district and of the Sudder Court.

No cause of action to be divided, but plaintiff may abandon excess.

VII. A plaintiff shall not divide any cause of action for the sake of bringing two or more summary actions under this Act; but a plaintiff having a cause of action for more than the amount cognizable by the Court, may abandon the excess, which abandonment shall be stated in the plaint and shall for ever bar any claim to such excess.

Stamped paper, according to a table of rates given, to be used for plaint, except by Native Officers and Soldiers.

VIII. The plaint in a summary action under this Act, except in actions by Native Officers and Soldiers, which, under the provisions of Act No. XV. of 1845, may be instituted on unstamped paper, shall be engrossed on paper bearing a stamp or stamps proportioned to the amount sued for, according to the rates in the following Table:—

When plaint on plain paper may be received. Subsequent procedure for recovery of costs.

IX. Clause 1.—The Court, if satisfied of the inability of the plaintiff to pay the value of the stamp prescribed for plaints, may receive such plaint on plain paper.

Clause 2.—On the conclusion of the suit, the whole of the costs which would have been incurred by the plaintiff, had he been admitted to sue as a pauper, shall be ascertained and entered in the decree.

Clause 3.—If the decree is in favor of the plaintiff, the costs, or such part of them as the Court may decree, shall be recovered from the defendant for the benefit of the Government and other parties entitled thereto.

Clause 4.—If the decree is against the plaintiff, the defendant, if payment of costs is awarded, may proceed against the plaintiff under the ordinary rules for the enforcement of decrees.

No other stamp duty to be required in suits under this Act not exceeding 50 Rs., but general Stamp Regulations to be applicable in suits exceeding that amount.

X. In a suit instituted under this Act for a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees, no stamp shall be required in respect of any petition or other proceeding connected with the suit, or with the execution of any order or judgment passed therein, or for copies of any papers, other than the stamp duty hereinbefore required on the plaint. In suits for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, the general Stamp Regulations in force in the several Presidencies shall be applicable.

Mode of instituting a suit under this Act.

XI. In order to the institution of a suit under this Act, a plaintiff may state his claim to a Judge verbally; in which case it shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, by the Judge himself, or by an Officer of the Court in his presence and under his personal superintendence, upon stamped paper to be provided by the plaintiff for that purpose; or the plaintiff or his authorized agent may present to the Judge a plaint in the vernacular language of the Court.

Form of plaint.

XII. The plaint, whether taken down in writing in the Court, or presented in writing, shall state briefly the name, designation, and residence of the plaintiff, and also, if known, the name, designation, and residence of the defendant, the substance and value of the claim, and the date of the cause of action, according to one of the forms contained in the Appendix A, or to the like effect.

Documentary evidence to be produced by plaintiff.

XIII. If the plaintiff sue on a bond, or rely in support of his claim on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making or presenting his complaint, and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies; and unless such document as above-mentioned be delivered in, or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court may see fit to extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of his claim.

Mode of procedure after plaint received.

XIV. The Court, having received a plaint, shall proceed thereupon to make inquiry, by examination of the plaintiff or his agent, upon oath or affirmation, as to the merits, and shall record the substance of the examination. The Court shall reject the plaint unless it appear that the plaintiff has a cause of action, or if it shall appear that the defendant or the matter of the suit is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the action is barred by the lapse of time. If the plaint be not rejected, it shall be filed together with any document produced in support thereof, unless the document be a book; in which case, the Court, after examining and comparing the copy of the entry produced with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the plaintiff.

On rejection of plaint, Court to record its decision and the reasons, in the language of the Judge.

XV. The Court, upon rejecting a plaint, shall record its decision, which shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge, together with the reasons upon which it is founded.

On admission of plaint, Court to direct issue of summons to the defendant.

XVI. If the plaint shall be admitted, the Court shall direct the issue of a summons to the defendant in the form laid down in the Appendix B, or to the like effect.

A copy or translation of the plaint to be annexed to the summons, and personal attendance of defendant may be required.

XVII. Clause 1.—A copy of the plaint shall be left with the defendant when the summons is served upon him; and if the plaintiff require the personal attendance of the defendant, and satisfy the judge that such personal attendance is necessary, or the Judge of his own accord require such personal attendance, the summons shall contain an order for the defendant to appear personally in Court on a day to be specified in the summons, otherwise the summons shall order the defendant to appear personally, or by an Agent duly authorized on his behalf who has personal knowledge of the subject or who shall be accompanied by a witness who has such personal knowledge.

The presence of one or more of several defendants may be required.

Clause 2.—If there be more than one defendant, the plaintiff or the Judge may require the personal attendance of any one or more of the defendants, and the same shall be specified in the summons, which shall be served on each of the defendants.

The day to be specified in the summons how to be fixed. Defendant to be ordered to produce necessary documents.

Clause 3.—The day to be specified in the summons shall be fixed with reference to the state of the file and the distance that the defendant may be, or be supposed to be, at the time, from the place where the Court is held; and the summons shall order the defendant to produce any document which he may have in his possession, of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant may intend to rely in support of his defence.

Defendants residing fifty miles distant from the Court exempted from personal attendance.

Clause 4.—Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to require the personal attendance of any defendant, who, at the time of issuing the summons, is bonâ fide residing beyond fifty miles from the place where the Court is situated.

Misnomers and inaccurate description of person or place not to vitiate summons, &c.

XVIII. No misnomer, or inaccurate description of any person or place, in any summons or other proceeding, shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein so described as to be sufficiently identified.

Summons how to be served.

XIX. The summons shall be served by a single peon, by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally when practicable, or if the summons cannot be served on the defendant personally, by delivering a copy of it, together with a copy of the plaint, to some adult male member or servant of his family, residing or being in his dwelling-house or place of business, or by affixing a copy of the summons and a copy of the plaint to some conspicuous part of his usual place of abode or place of business, and also by affixing copies of the same in the Court room. The summons in either case shall be served a sufficient time before the day fixed for the appearance of the defendant, to enable him to appear in Court on that day.

If summons has been personally served Nazir to endorse the fact.

XX. If the summons be served personally, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the fact of such service.

If otherwise, Nazir to endorse the reason of non service.

XXI. If personal service be not effected, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the reason of not serving it personally, and how it has been served.

Execution of process beyond jurisdiction of Court.

XXII. When a summons or other process is required to be served or executed in a place beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, such summons or other process shall be transmitted to the Court of Small Causes within whose jurisdiction the summons or other process is required to be served, whether such Court of Small Causes be within the local limits of the jurisdiction of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts or not, and a Judge of such Court shall back the same, and cause it to be served in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if it were a process issued by such Judge, and shall return the summons or other process to the Court issuing the same with a certificate of the Nazir of what shall have been done thereon.

When Court may adjourn the hearing of a case to a day to be fixed by proclamation.

XXIII. Clause 1.—When a summons has been served on a defendant, and he does not attend on the day fixed for his appearance, if the Nazir's report show that the service has not been made in sufficient time to admit of the defendant conveniently attending the Court on that day, the Court may adjourn the hearing to another day, which shall be made known to the parties by a proclamation affixed in a conspicuous place in the Court room.

Penalty for wilful false statement respecting service or non-service of summons, or for personating any party to a suit.

Clause 2.—Any Nazir who shall wilfully make any false statement in respect of the service or the non-service of a summons by any endorsement on such summons, and any person who shall wilfully make any false statement respecting the service or non-service of the summons, or shall personate any party to a suit, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour, or with fine, or with both.

On appearance of parties, defence to be made orally and reduced into writing, after which the parties may be examined by the Court, or cross-examine each other.

XXIV. Upon the appearance of the parties on the day named in the summons, or upon any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Judge, the Court shall call upon the defendant, or his pleader or agent, to make his defence: the defence shall be made either in writing in the language of the Court or verbally, and if made verbally shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, either by the Judge himself, or by an officer of the Court in the presence and under the personal superintendence of the Judge; after which the Judge shall proceed to examine such of the parties as may be present, and either party or his agent may cross-examine the other. If either of the parties be not bound to attend personally, any agent by whom he shall appear, or any witness who shall accompany such agent, shall be examined and cross-examined in like manner as the party himself would have been if he had attended personally.

Witnesses when to be examined.

XXV. If either of the parties shall bring forward a witness on such day, the Judge may take the evidence of such witness either on that day, or on any subsequent day which may be fixed for the examination of witnesses.

Mode of examination.

XXVI. The examination of the parties or their witnesses shall be upon oath or upon affirmation, and the substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the judge.

After examination, Court may make its decree if no further evidence is required.

XXVII. If, after the examination required by Section XXIV., and also the examination of any witness who may attend to give evidence on behalf of either of the parties, a decree can be properly made without further evidence, the Court shall make its decree accordingly.

Court to record issue and to fix a day for hearing evidence.

XXVIII. Clause 1.—If any issue result from the examination upon which it is necessary to hear further evidence, the Court shall declare and record such issue, and shall fix a convenient day for the examination of witnesses and the trial of the suit; and the trial shall take place on that day, unless there be sufficient reason for adjourning it, which reason shall be recorded by the Judge.

Documentary evidence how given.

Clause 2.—If the defendant, in support of his defence, rely on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making his defence, and the Court shall file the same; and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of such entry, and the Court, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the defendant; and, unless such document as above mentioned be delivered in or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of the defence.

Parties shall produce their witnesses on the day of trial; or Court, on application of either party, shall issue summons for the attendance of a witness.

XXIX. The parties shall bring their witnesses into Court on the day of trial, and if either party require the assistance of the Court to procure the attendance of a witness on such day, either to give evidence or to produce a document, he shall apply to the Court, after the recording of the issues and in sufficient time before the day fixed for the trial of the issues, to enable the witnesses to be summoned to attend on that day; and the Court shall issue a summons according to the form contained in Appendix C., or to the like effect, requiring such witness to attend.

Costs of summons and travelling charges shall be previously deposited in Court.

XXX. Every summons, whether to an adverse party or a witness, shall be served at the cost of the party at whose instance it is issued, and the amount of such cost, as well as any sum required for the travelling and other expenses of a witness, shall be deposited in Court before the summons is issued.

Rules regarding attendance, examination, &c., of witnesses.

XXXI. The provisions of the Acts and Regulations and all other Rules for the time being in force in the several Presidencies of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, relating to the evidence of witnesses, for procuring the attendance of witnesses, and the production of documents, and for the examination, remuneration, and punishment of witnesses, whether parties to the case or not, shall, except so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to, and be of equal force and effect in summary actions under this Act.

Parties to appear personally when so required.

XXXII. Every plaintiff and every defendant summoned to attend personally shall, except as hereinafter provided, attend in person on the day specified in the writ of summons; otherwise he shall not be heard by a pleader or agent.

Pleaders or agents may be employed, but without excusing personal attendance of parties when expressly required.

XXXIII. Any party to a suit may employ an authorized pleader or agent to conduct the case on his behalf; but the appointment of such pleader or agent shall not excuse the personal attendance of the plaintiff or defendant in cases where his personal attendance is expressly required by this Act, or by the summons, or any order of the Court.

Females of rank, when parties to a suit, exempted from personal attendance. Also parties under certain circumstances, unless required to attend as witnesses.

XXXIV. A plaintiff or defendant shall not be bound to attend in person if of the female sex and of a rank and description which, according to the prejudices of the country, would render it improper to require her personal attendance in Court. A plaintiff or defendant may be excused by the Judge from attending in person, if there be a Co-plaintiff or Co-defendant who appears in person, or if the opposite party be willing to excuse his attendance, or if the Court be satisfied that there is a reasonable excuse bonâ-fide for the non-attendance of such party; but any such party may be compelled to attend or give evidence as a witness in the suit under the law applicable to the attendance of parties to a suit as witnesses.

Parties exempted from personal attendance to appoint proper agents, who may be examined.

XXXV. If a plaintiff, or a defendant setting up a cross-demand against the plaintiff, be excused by the Court from personal appearance, such plaintiff or defendant shall appoint a person to attend the Court on his behalf, who has personal knowledge of the subject of the claim or demand, and who shall be liable to be examined and cross-examined in the same manner as the plaintiff or defendant would have been if he had personally attended. The Court may also, if it think fit, order that the party excused shall be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

If on the day of hearing, and prior to recording the issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, plaintiff to be nonsuited.

XXXVI. If on the day fixed by the summons for the appearance of the defendant, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, prior to the recording of issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, the Court shall nonsuit the plaintiff.

If defendant only appear and dispute the demand, Court to dismiss the case; but if defendant admit the claim, Court shall decree upon such admission.

XXXVII. If on any such day the defendant only appear and dispute the demand, the Court shall dismiss the case with costs, unless the defendant admit the cause of action, or any part of it; in which case the Court shall proceed to give judgment for the plaintiff upon such admission without costs: provided that such judgment, if there be several defendants, shall be only against the defendant who makes the admission.

Proviso.

If plaintiff only appear, Court may proceed ex-parte.

XXXVIII. If on any such day the plaintiff only appear, the Court, upon proof that the summons has been duly served according to the provisions of this Act, or that the defendant has come to the knowledge of such summons, shall proceed to examine the plaintiff or his agent, and after considering the allegations of the plaintiff, and any documentary or oral evidence adduced by him, may either dismiss the case, or postpone the hearing of it to a future day for the attendance of any witness the plaintiff may wish to call, or may make an ex-parte decree against the defendant.

If defendant appear on a day to which the case is postponed, the Court may allow him to be heard in answer to the suit.

XXXIX. If the defendant shall appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit may be postponed under the last preceding Section, the Court may, upon such conditions, if any, as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, allow him to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance.

If neither party appear on the day fixed for the trial of an issue, plaintiff to be nonsuited; if only one of the parties appear, issue to be tried ex-parte.

XL. If on the day fixed for the trial of any issue neither of the parties appear, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited. If on any such day one only of the parties appear, the issue shall be tried and determined ex-parte.

Revival, reversal, and alteration of ex-parte decrees under certain rules and conditions.

XLI. If a decree be made ex-parte and the party against whom such decree shall have been made appear, either in person or by agent, if a plaintiff, within fifteen days from the date of the Court's order, and if a defendant, within such time as the Court shall deem reasonable under all the circumstances of the case, not exceeding three months after the defendant has been arrested, or some part of his property has been attached in execution of the decree, and shall show good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, and shall satisfy the Court that there has been a failure of justice, the Court may, upon such terms and conditions as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, revive the suit, and alter or rescind the decree according to the justice of the case, recording the reasons for so doing, and may also order restitution, if the decree shall have been executed, which order may be enforced in the same manner as a decree; but no decree shall be reversed or altered without previously summoning the adverse party to appear and be heard in support of it.

Defendant may pay money into Court in satisfaction of the demand.

XLII. Clause 1.—The defendant, in any action under this Act, may pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, together with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and such sum shall be paid to the plaintiff.

If plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than that paid into Court, he shall be liable to the subsequent costs.

Clause 2.—If the defendant deposit less than the sum claimed, and the plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the plaintiff shall be charged with any costs incurred by the defendant in the suit after such payment.

No interest on deposits.

XLIII. No interest shall be allowed to a plaintiff on any sum paid by the defendant into Court, from the date of such payment, whether such sum be in full of the plaintiff's claim or fall short thereof.

Defendant may set off cross-claim against plaintiff.

XLIV. A defendant may set off against the plaintiff's claim, in any suit under this Act, any demand for which he might have sued the plaintiff in the same Court; but if the demand proposed to be set off exceed the amount cognizable by the Court, the defendant, previously to being allowed to set off the same, shall abandon the excess.

In cases where claims are set off, Court may adjudge any sum due to either party.

XLV. If the defendant in any case claim to set off any demand against the claim of the plaintiff, the Court shall find what amount is due to the plaintiff, and what amount, if any, is due to the defendant, and shall give judgment for the recovery of any sum which, upon such finding, shall appear due to either party.

Effect of judgment in such cases.

XLVI. The judgment of the Court with respect to any demand which a defendant may claim to set off, shall have the same effect as if such sum had been claimed by the defendant in a separate action against the plaintiff.

XLVII. Clause 1.—If a plaintiff have a demand recoverable against two or more persons jointly answerable, he may sue any one or more of such persons without joining the other, and the dismissal of such suit or a decree therein shall bar his claim against the person not joined.

Plaintiff having a joint demand against several persons may sue one or more of them without the others.

Effect of decree in such suit.

Clause 2.—If a plaintiff sue two or more persons jointly answerable, and one or more of such persons cannot be personally served with the summons, judgment may be obtained against any person or persons who shall have been personally served with such summons.

Judgment may be obtained against defendants who have been served with summons, though sued jointly with others who have not been served.

XLVIII. If either party fail to produce his proofs within the time allowed him, or to take out a summons for the attendance of any witness whose attendance he may require to be enforced, the case shall be proceeded with and determined as if such party had declined to produce any proof.

If either party fail to produce his proof, or adopt measures to enforce the attendance of witnesses, the case shall be proceeded with as if he had declined to produce any proof.

XLIX. The Court may, in any case, make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of a suit, and may also from time to time, for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Judge, adjourn the hearing or further hearing of any case, in such manner as to the Court may seem fit, or call on either party for proof on any point which the Court may think necessary for the determination of the case.

Court may grant time for prosecuting claim or defence, and may adjourn the hearing.

L. On the trial of any issues, the substance of the evidence of each witness shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge in the form of a narrative, by, or in the presence and under the personal superintendence of, the Judge.

On trial of issues, evidence to be reduced to writing.

LI. The Court shall pronounce judgment in open Court; and all the provisions of Act No. XII. of 1843 and Act No. XXXIII. of 1854 shall be applicable thereto.

Judgment how to be pronounced.

LII. If the decree be for the delivery of personal property, it shall state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had. The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the suit, and by what parties, and in what proportions they are to be paid.

Form of decree.

LIII. Every decree for the payment of money or costs shall contain an order for immediate execution, unless the Court shall see fit to provide for the payment by instalments, with or without interest, of any sum adjudged, or there shall be other good reason to the contrary.

Decree when to contain an order for immediate execution.

LIV. If any person entitled to plead in a Court of the East India Company shall appear on behalf of any party to a suit instituted under this Act, the Court, if it consider the case a fit one for the employment of a pleader, may charge the losing party, as part of the costs of suit, with a sum on account of the pleader's fee not exceeding, in the case of a plaintiff, 5 per centum upon the sum decreed, and in the case of a defendant 5 per centum upon the amount claimed by the plaintiff; but no fee for any pleader or agent shall be charged as part of the costs of suit in any other case.

Pleader's fee when and how to be charged.

Proviso.

LV. In a suit for damages for breach of contract, if it appear that the defendant is able to perform the contract, the Court may, with the consent of the plaintiff, order the specific performance of the contract within a time to be fixed by the Court, and shall award an amount of damages to be paid as an alternative.

In a suit for damages for breach of contract, Court may, with consent of plaintiff, order specific performance.

LVI. If the case be settled by compromise before the defendant is called upon to make his defence, the plaintiff shall be entitled to receive back the entire amount of the stamp duty paid on the plaint.

Refund of stamp duty on plaint in case of compromise before defence.

LVII. If the compromise be such as to require a decree to pass, on which process of execution can be taken out, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to a refund of the stamp duty.

No refund of stamp duty if compromise require a decree on which execution can be taken out.

LVIII. If one or more of several defendants die before judgment, the plaintiff may continue the suit against the survivor or survivors in the same manner as if he or they had been sued alone; provided that a decree in such suit shall be a bar to any proceedings against the representative of the deceased defendant.

Death of one or more of several defendants before judgment not to abate suit.

LIX. If a sole plaintiff die before judgment, the Court, at the instance of his representative, may proceed to judgment in the same manner as if the suit had been commenced by the representative.

Death of sole plaintiff.

LX. If the plaintiff become bankrupt or insolvent before judgment, the Court may proceed to judgment at the instance of the assignee in the name of the plaintiff.

Insolvency of plaintiff.

LXI. No suit instituted under this Act shall be dismissed on the ground of defect of parties, of misjoinder of persons or claims, of improper valuation of a claim, or of any other defect, error, or irregularity, if it shall appear to the Court that such defect of parties, misjoinder, improper valuation, error, defect, or irregularity was not wilful or for the purpose of obtaining any undue advantage, and that an amendment may be made without injustice to any person; and the Court may, for the purpose of correcting any error or defect, direct such amendment to be made as may be necessary, and upon such terms as it may deem proper.

Court may allow amendment of defects, errors, &c., in suits.

LXII. If at the time of a summary inquiry into a plaint under Section XLV. of this Act, or at any subsequent stage of a suit, any question of law, or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document affecting the decision of the case, may arise, on which the Court may entertain reasonable doubts, and which it may be requested by either party to reserve for the opinion of the Sudder Court, the Court may draw up a statement of the case, and submit it with its own opinion for the decision of the Sudder Court.

Court may refer questions of law, &c., to Sudder Court.

Grounds of refusal of Court to refer to Sudder Court on an application of parties, to be noted on the record.

LXIII. If the Court refuse the application of any of the parties to a suit for a reference to the Sudder Court, it shall make a note on the record of the grounds of the application and the reasons for refusal.

Notice of reference to Sudder Court, if made before issue of summons, to be forthwith given to defendant.

LXIV. If such case be stated before the issue of a summons to the defendant, notice of such reference to the Sudder Court (which notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the claim and the question referred) shall forthwith be served on the defendant in the same manner as a summons.

Court may pass decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court, pending which execution not to issue.

LXV. The Court may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the Sudder Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court on the point referred; and no execution shall be issued until the receipt of the order of the Sudder Court.

Full bench of the Sudder Court to decide cases referred under this Act.

LXVI. Cases referred for the opinion of the Sudder Court shall be dealt with by a full bench of that Court.

Sudder Court to fix an early day for the hearing of the case.

Proclamation thereof.

LXVII. The Sudder Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the case, and shall notify the same by a proclamation to be fixed up in the Court House of that Court.

Parties may appear and be heard in person or by pleader.

LXVIII. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the Sudder Court in person or by pleader.

Decision of Sudder Court how to be transmitted.

LXIX. The Sudder Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Register, to the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the Sudder Court.

Costs of reference to Sudder Court.

LXX. Each party shall bear his own costs, if any, consequent on the reference of a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

Process of execution.

LXXI. Process of execution shall be in the form contained in Appendix D or E, or to the like effect, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court. Any moveable property required to be seized under an execution shall be described in a list, to be furnished by the judgment creditor, and shall be pointed out by him or his agent. Process shall not be issued simultaneously against the person and property of a judgment debtor.

On default of payment of an instalment, execution shall issue upon application for full amount unpaid.

LXXII. If the Court shall award payment of any sum of money by instalments, and default be made in payment of any instalment as it falls due, execution shall issue upon the application of the judgment creditor for the full amount of all the instalments remaining unpaid.

Execution not to issue against heir or representative of a deceased party without notice.

LXXIII. Execution on a judgment shall not issue against the heir or other representative of a deceased party, without notice to such heir or other representative to appear and be heard.

Date of process of execution. How long warrant shall continue in force.

LXXIV. Process of execution shall bear date on the day on which it is signed by the Court, and no warrant shall continue in force for a longer period than sixty days calculated from such date.

Second and successive warrants.

LXXV. Second and successive warrants of execution may be issued by order of the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, after the expiration of the period above fixed for the continuance in force of a previous warrant. No such warrant shall continue in force for a longer period than sixty days.

Time for issue of warrant.

LXXVI. No warrant of execution shall be issued upon any judgment without notice to the party against whom execution is applied for, unless the application for the issue of the same be made within one year from the date of the judgment or from the date of the last previous application for execution, or, if the judgment be for payment by instalments, from the date of the first default of payment.

Warrant against personal property.

LXXVII. If the judgment of the Court be for the delivery of any personal property to the decree-holder, the Court shall issue a warrant, in the form contained in the Appendix F, or to the like effect, directing the Nazir to deliver, or cause to be delivered, the property to such party, or if delivery cannot be had, to levy, at the instance of the plaintiff, the sum awarded as an alternative.

Warrant against the person.

LXXVIII. If a warrant issue for taking in execution the body of any person, the Nazir of the Court shall cause him to be seized, and unless such person shall immediately deposit with the Officer entrusted with the service of the warrant the full amount specified therein, the Nazir shall bring him before the Court; and if such person shall not immediately deposit in Court the full amount specified in the warrant, or furnish good and sufficient security for the payment of the same either in full or by instalments, as the Court may direct, or satisfy the Court that he has done his best to pay the same and has no property or effects from which it can be discharged, the Court shall send him to the Civil Jail, there to remain for such time as shall be directed by the warrant, unless he shall in the meantime pay the full amount specified therein, or furnish such security as aforesaid. Provided that the term to be directed by the warrant shall not exceed three calendar months where the amount decreed, exclusive of costs, does not exceed Fifty Rupees, or six calendar months in any other case.

Form of security by bond for payment of decree by judgment debtor.

LXXIX. The security taken under the preceding Section shall be by bond in the form contained in Appendix G. If default shall happen in the fulfilment of the conditions of the bond, the judgment creditor may, without a fresh action, sue out execution upon such bond under the rules of this Act, in like manner as if a decree had been passed against the surety, his heirs, executors, or administrators upon such bond.

No person to be imprisoned a second time under same judgment, but his property to be liable to attachment.

LXXX. Any person once discharged from Jail shall not be imprisoned a second time under the same judgment, but such discharge shall not extinguish the liability of such person under the decree, or exempt any property liable to attachment in execution of the same.

Diet money to be deposited at the time of issue of warrant.

LXXXI. Any person suing out process of execution against the body of any person under this Act shall deposit with the Nazir of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one month of thirty days, at such rate as the Court may direct, not exceeding two annas per diem, unless the Court, for any special reason, direct the deposit after a higher rate, which shall not exceed four annas per diem.

Payment of diet money in advance during imprisonment.

LXXXII. Payment of diet money at the same rate shall be made previous to the commencement of each succeeding month of the imprisonment, in failure of which the party confined shall be discharged.

Diet money to be costs in suit.

LXXXIII. All diet money spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner shall be added to the costs in the suit, and any diet money not so spent shall be returned to the party who deposited the same.

Court may examine judgment debtor touching his property.

LXXXIV. The Court, at the instance of the judgment creditor, may, at any time after judgment, summon the judgment debtor, and any other person whom it may think necessary, and examine him upon oath or affirmation touching the property of the judgment debtor and his means of satisfying the judgment; and if such judgment debtor, or other person, on such examination, shall wilfully misrepresent any matter on which he may be examined, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and, upon conviction, punished accordingly.

Judgment debtor may deposit money in Court: no interest allowed on such deposits.

LXXXV. A judgment debtor may, at any time, deposit in Court any sum, or any part of any sum, of money which he may have been adjudged to pay, and the sum so deposited shall be paid over to the party entitled to receive the same; and no interest shall be allowed to such party upon such deposit from the date on which it was made, whether it be in full of the judgment, or fall short thereof.

Execution when cross-judgments have been obtained.

LXXXVI. When cross-judgments shall have been obtained between two parties, execution shall issue only upon the one which shall be for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum.

Tools and implements of business and seed-grain excepted from execution.

LXXXVII. In executing a writ of execution against the moveable property of a debtor liable under this Act, the Nazir shall except the tools and implements of the trade or business of such debtor and seed intended for the sowing of land cultivated by him.

Custody and sale of moveable property taken in execution.

LXXXVIII. No sale of any moveable property taken in execution shall be made until after the end of six days at least next following the day on which such moveable property may have been so taken, unless such moveable property be of a perishable nature, or upon the request in writing of the party whose property has been taken. Until such sale, the moveable property shall be deposited by the Nazir in some fit place, or it may remain in custody of some fit person approved by the Nazir.

Court to stay sale of moveable property seized if a third party claim any interest therein.

LXXXIX. If, within the period of five days, a third party appear before the Court, and by petition, supported by his oath or affirmation, claim a right or interest in any of the moveable property seized, the Court shall stay the sale of such property.

Court to adjudicate such claims.

XC. The Court shall adjudicate upon such claim, and make such order between the claimant and the plaintiff and defendant in the original suit as shall seem fit.

Mode of disposing of such claims and effect of judgment.

XCI. In trying such claims the Court shall be guided by the rules contained in this Act so far as they may be applicable; and the judgment passed by the Court upon such claim shall have the same effect and be subject to the same rules as a judgment in a summary action instituted under the provisions of this Act.

Third party failing to establish his claim, liable to pay compensation to judgment creditor.

XCII. If such third party shall fail to establish his right to the property seized, the Court, at the time of disposing of the case, may award to the judgment creditor against such third party, as part of the costs, such sum as it may consider sufficient to cover any loss of interest or damage which such judgment creditor may have sustained by reason of the postponement of the sale of such property.

Which of several judgment creditors is entitled to a preferential right to the proceeds of sale.

XCIII. If several judgments be recovered under this Act against the same party, the judgment creditor who first furnishes a list of moveable property to be seized in execution shall have a preferential right to have the whole of his claim satisfied from the proceeds of the sale of such property; but this rule shall not apply to any creditor who shall refuse to maintain his right to bring such property to sale against a third person who may claim the same, nor to any judgment which shall be proved to have been obtained collusively to defraud creditors.

Irregularity in publishing and conducting a sale shall not vitiate the same.

XCIV. No irregularity in publishing or conducting a sale of moveable property under an execution shall vitiate such sale; but this rule shall not be held to deprive any person, who may sustain damage by reason of such irregularity, from recovering such damage by action.

Proviso.

Judgment how to be enforced against land within the general jurisdiction of the Judge of the Court.

XCV. If a judgment creditor be unable to enforce or obtain satisfaction of a judgment by execution against the person or moveable property of the debtor within the jurisdiction of the Court which pronounced the same, the Judge of such Court, if he has a general jurisdiction by virtue of which he has power to issue execution against immoveable property for the satisfaction of decrees, shall, upon the application of the judgment creditor, issue execution against any immoveable property of the defendant, which the plaintiff shall point out, within his general jurisdiction, under the same rules and procedure, and subject to the same appeal, as in cases which fall within his general jurisdiction; or the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, shall grant him a copy of the judgment and a certificate of any sum remaining due under it, and on the presentation of the copy and certificate to any other Civil Court of Her Majesty or of the East India Company within the said Territories, such Court shall proceed to enforce such judgment by process either against the person or against the moveable or immoveable property of the debtor, according to its own rules and mode of procedure, under Act No. XXXIII. of 1852. Provided that no such judgment shall be removed into any Court other than a Court of Small Causes for the purpose of enforcing the same against the person or moveable property of a debtor within the local limits of a Court of Small Causes which such Court might levy under a decree of its own. Provided also, that Section I. Act XXIII. of 1840 shall not extend to any writ or process of execution issued out of a Small Cause Court.

Judgment how to be enforced beyond jurisdiction of Court.

Proviso.

Issue and service of process.

XCVI. Every process under this Act shall issue under the seal and signature of the Court, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court, and shall be served or executed by him, or by a single officer of his establishment.

Resistance of process.

XCVII. If any person resists the execution of a process issued under this Act, the Court may, on the statement on oath of the peon or other Officer resisted, summon the offender to answer the charge; and if, after due service of the summons, he fail to attend, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. If the charge be proved, the Court may punish the offender by a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment in the Civil Jail for a period not exceeding thirty days. All orders passed by a Court of Small Causes, under this Section, shall be appealable to the Zillah Judge.

Costs of serving process.

XCVIII. The Judge of each district shall, with the approval of the Sudder Court, prepare a table of the costs of serving process under this Act; and the amount chargeable for every process shall be deposited with the Nazir of the Court previously to the issue thereof, and shall form part of the costs of suit.

Deposit of costs with Nazir.

Judgment to be final, except as provided.

XCIX. Clause 1.—Every order and judgment passed by a Court of Small Causes under this Act shall be final and not open to review or appeal, except as in this Act provided.

Zillah Judge may order the admission of a plaint.

Clause 2.—Upon the application of a plaintiff, the Zillah Judge may order the admission of a plaint improperly rejected.

Court, with sanction of Zillah Judge, may order re-hearing of a suit on certain grounds.

Clause 3.—The Small Cause Court, with the sanction of the Zillah Judge, may, upon the application of either party to a suit, order the re-hearing of a suit upon the ground of the discovery of new evidence or matter material to the issue of the case which the petitioner had no knowledge of, or could not produce at the time of trial.

Zillah Judge may set aside decision of Court for any of the following reasons.

Clause 4.—The Zillah Judge may, upon the application of either party, set aside a judgment of the Small Cause Court, and make such investigation into the merits of the case, and pass such decision thereon, as to him may seem fit, for any of the following special reasons, namely—

Improper rejection or admission of evidence.

1. The rejection of evidence which ought to have been admitted, or the admission of evidence which ought to have been rejected, if the Judge be of opinion that the admission of the evidence improperly rejected, or the rejection of the evidence improperly admitted, would have been likely to cause a different finding upon any material issue in the case.

Substantial defect in procedure, &c., or misconduct of opposite party or Court.

2. Substantial defect in the procedure or investigation of a case in the Small Cause Court, or misconduct of the opposite party or of the Small Cause Court, from which there may be strong probable grounds for presuming a failure of justice; but no decision of a Small Cause Court shall be reversed or altered, nor shall a re-hearing be directed in any case, upon the ground that the decision of any question of fact is contrary to, or not warranted by, the evidence duly taken in the case.

Upon application of parties, Zillah Judge may state a case involving points of law, &c., for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

C. Upon the application of either of the parties, the Zillah Judge may state a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court, if he shall be of opinion that the decision of the Small Cause Court upon the construction of a document, or upon any point of law or usage having the force of law, affecting the merits of the case, is erroneous; and the Sudder Court, upon the receipt of such case, shall proceed in the manner laid down in Sections LXVII. to LXX. of this Act.

Applications to Zillah Judge under the two preceding Sections to be written on stamped paper.

CI. The application under Section XCIX. or C. to the Zillah Judge shall be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for petitions to the Zillah Court, provided that, when such value may be of higher amount than the value of the stamp prescribed for the petition of plaint by Section VIII. of this Act, the application may be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for the petition of plaint, or if no stamp be prescribed for the plaint, the application may be on unstamped paper. Provided also, that, if the application be successful, the value of the stamp, if any, shall be returned to the petitioner.

Proviso.

CII. Any application, either to the Zillah Judge or to the Small Cause Court, under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be presented within thirty days from the date of the decision; and no re-hearing, new trial, or reference to the Sudder Court shall be granted, unless the application be accompanied by a deposit in the Court of the whole amount, if any, decreed against the petitioner, whether absolutely, or as an alternative, except when the amount of the judgment and costs of execution has been paid into Court, or has been levied by process of execution: the amount if deposited in Court, or if levied and not paid over, shall remain in deposit subject to the order of the Court.

Applications to Zillah Judge or to Small Cause Court under Section XCIX. or C. when and how to be made.

CIII. The Court to which such application is made may interrogate the applicant or his agent, upon oath or solemn affirmation, previously to deciding upon the application; and without summoning the opposite party, reject the petition.

Mode of procedure on receipt of such application.

CIV. No decision of a Small Cause Court shall be annulled or otherwise altered to the prejudice of the opposite party, nor shall a case be referred to the Sudder Court without notice to such party to enable him to appear and be heard.

No decision of this Court to be annulled or modified, and no reference to be made to Sudder Court, without notice to opposite party.

CV. Every order passed by a Zillah Judge, or by the Small Cause Court, upon an application under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be final and not open to appeal or review.

Orders upon application under Sections XCIX. and C. to be final.

CVI. A nonsuit shall be no impediment to the institution of a new suit on the same cause of action where the party is not precluded by lapse of time or otherwise under the general law.

Nonsuit to be no bar to a new suit on same cause of action.

CVII. The Zillah Judge may transfer any case pending in a Small Cause Court within his Zillah to any other, Small Cause Court in the same Zillah, recording his reasons for such transfer.

Zillah Judge may transfer cases from one Court to another in his Zillah.

CVIII. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government in any of the said Presidencies to extend the summary jurisdiction of the Moonsiff's Court in any District as a Small Cause Court under this Act, to an amount not exceeding Three Hundred Rupees.

Local Governments may extend summary jurisdiction of Moonsiffs' Courts to Three Hundred Rupees.

CIX. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government in any of the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company to invest any Civil Court of the East India Company now existing, or which may hereafter be established with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, with the summary jurisdiction of a Small Cause Court under this Act, for the adjudication of claims to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits within which such Court shall exercise such summary jurisdiction. Provided that no Court shall be invested with jurisdiction as a Small Cause Court beyond the amount of its ordinary jurisdiction.

Local Governments empowered to invest Civil Courts with summary jurisdiction to the extent of Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits of jurisdiction.

CX. Provided that, in claims for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, it shall be at the option of the plaintiff to sue in a summary action in a Small Cause Court or otherwise; but no party having instituted a regular suit in a case in which he might have sued in a summary action under this Act, shall recover costs in such suit beyond the amount which he might have recovered in a summary action, nor any costs of appeal arising out of such regular suit. The defendant, however, in such case, if the judgment be in his favor, shall be entitled to recover the full costs either of the original suit or of an appeal arising therefrom, as if this Act had not been passed.

Claims exceeding Fifty Rupees may be sued for in a summary action in a Small Cause Court, or otherwise.

Proviso.

CXI. This Act shall not extend to any suit instituted before this Act shall come into operation.

Act to have prospective effect only.

CXII. The words "Civil Jail" shall include the Civil Jail of the Zillah and any place appointed by the Executive Government for the confinement of prisoners in civil cases by any Court constituted under this Act. The word "Nazir" shall include any officer of a Court authorized to serve or execute its process. Unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number; and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Interpretation Clause.

CXIII. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st day of January 1856.

Notification.

THE Most Noble the Governor General in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 4th September 1854, having decided that the practice of this Office, with reference to the salaries of Uncovenanted Officers when transferred from one District to another, in charging salaries only from the date of their joining their new appointments, and not from the date of their relief from their old posts, is wrong, all Officers having to submit Pay Bills are hereby required to take special notice of this decision. The following instructions are given for their information and guidance :—

When an Uncovenanted Officer quits a post for one in another District, to which a higher salary is attached, the controlling Officer of the new District shall draw the salary for the time between the quitting of the old Office and the joining of the new one, at the rate of the salary appertaining to the old Office ; but not for the full salary of the new appointment, until the Officer transferred shall have actually joined his new Office, when he shall draw for the full amount of his new salary.

SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 9th June 1855.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council on the 9th of June 1855, is re-published for general information:—

A Bill for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company; It is enacted as follows:—

Moonsiff's Courts to be Small Cause Courts for the trial of summary actions.

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, every Moonsiff's Court shall be a Court of Small Causes for the trial of summary actions, and shall exercise summary jurisdiction under the following rules.

Description of claims to be cognizable by Small Cause Courts.

II. All claims for money due, whether on Bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of Fifty Rupees, shall be tried summarily in a Court of Small Causes; provided that a summary action in such Court shall not lie in any of the following cases:—

Proviso.

1*st*.—On balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents.

2*nd*.—For a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or a legacy or part of a legacy under a will.

3*rd*.—For any claim relating to arrears or exactions of rent, or to alleged illegal distraints for rent, for which claim, or for any part whereof, a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department, if commenced in due time.

4*th*.—For the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

5*th*.—For any claim which, irrespectively of the amount thereof, is not according to law cognizable by a Moonsiff in his ordinary jurisdiction.

Jurisdiction of the Courts.

III. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted under this Act, and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court; provided that, if an action be brought against several defendants, of whom one shall be resident as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

Claims which can be tried under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court.

IV. Claims which can be tried in a summary action in a Small Cause Court under Section II. of this Act shall not be cognizable in any other Court or in any other manner; but nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature, or the jurisdiction which can be exercised by village Moonsiffs or village or district Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Punchayet under Regulation VII. of

Proviso.

1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the Rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars in Cantonments, and stations occupied by the troops of those Presidencies respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the Rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Minors may prosecute suits under this Act.

V. A minor may prosecute a suit under this Act upon any contract entered into with him, or for any wrong for which he might have sued under this Act if of full age, without being represented by his guardian or next friend, in the same manner as if he were of full age. Provided that no release, compromise, or acquittal by the minor be valid without the consent of the Court.

Seal of the Court. Court to be a Court of record, and to be subject generally to the Zillah Judge and Sudder Court.

VI. Every Court holden under this Act shall use a Seal bearing the following inscription in English and in the language of the Court—"Court of Small Causes of ————;" and every such Court shall be a Court of record, and shall be subject to the general control and orders of the Judge of the district and of the Sudder Court.

No cause of action to be divided, but plaintiff may abandon excess.

VII. A plaintiff shall not divide any cause of action for the sake of bringing two or more summary actions under this Act; but a plaintiff having a cause of action for more than the amount cognizable by the Court, may abandon the excess, which abandonment shall be stated in the plaint and shall for ever bar any claim to such excess.

Stamped paper, according to a table of rates given, to be used for plaint, except by Native Officers and Soldiers.

VIII. The plaint in a summary action under this Act, except in actions by Native Officers and Soldiers, which, under the provisions of Act No. XV. of 1845, may be instituted on unstamped paper, shall be engrossed on paper bearing a stamp or stamps proportioned to the amount sued for, according to the rates in the following Table:—

	Rs.	As.	P.
If the amount of debt or damage, or the value of the property claimed, shall not exceed 5 Rupees, ...	0	4	0
If the same shall exceed 5 Rupees, and not exceed 10 Rupees, ...	0	8	0
If the same shall exceed 10 Rupees, and not exceed 15 Rupees, ...	0	12	0
If the same shall exceed 15 Rupees, and not exceed 20 Rupees, ...	1	0	0
If the same shall exceed 20 Rupees, and not exceed 25 Rupees, ...	1	4	0
If the same shall exceed 25 Rupees, and not exceed 30 Rupees, ...	1	8	0
If the same shall exceed 30 Rupees, and not exceed 35 Rupees. ..	1	12	0
If the same shall exceed 35 Rupees, and not exceed 40 Rupees. ...	2	0	0
If the same shall exceed 40 Rupees, and not exceed 45 Rupees, ..	2	4	0
If the same shall exceed 45 Rupees, and not exceed 50 Rupees, ...	2	8	0

Provided that nothing in this Act shall render it necessary for any plaint to be written on stamped paper when the amount of debt or damage shall not exceed one rupee, nor shall render a stamp necessary in any place not now subject to a stamp law.

When plaint on plain paper may be received. Subsequent procedure for recovery of costs.

IX. Clause 1.—The Court, if satisfied of the inability of the plaintiff to pay the value of the stamp prescribed for plaints, may receive such plaint on plain paper.

Clause 2.—On the conclusion of the suit, the whole of the costs which would have been incurred by the plaintiff, had he been admitted to sue as a pauper, shall be ascertained and entered in the decree.

Clause 3.—If the decree is in favor of the plaintiff, the costs, or such part of them as the Court may decree, shall be recovered from the defendant for the benefit of the Government and other parties entitled thereto.

Clause 4.—If the decree is against the plaintiff, the defendant, if payment of costs is awarded, may proceed against the plaintiff under the ordinary rules for the enforcement of decrees.

No other stamp duty to be required in suits under this Act not exceeding 50 Rs., but general Stamp Regulations to be applicable in suits exceeding that amount.

X. In a suit instituted under this Act for a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees, no stamp shall be required in respect of any petition or other proceeding connected with the suit, or with the execution of any order or judgment passed therein, or for copies of any papers, other than the stamp duty hereinbefore required on the plaint. In suits for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, the general Stamp Regulations in force in the several Presidencies shall be applicable.

Mode of instituting a suit under this Act.

XI. In order to the institution of a suit under this Act, a plaintiff may state his claim to a Judge verbally; in which case it shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, by the Judge himself, or by an Officer of the Court in his presence and under his personal superintendence, upon stamped paper to be provided by the plaintiff for that purpose; or the plaintiff or his authorized agent may present to the Judge a plaint in the vernacular language of the Court.

Form of plaint.

XII. The plaint, whether taken down in writing in the Court, or presented in writing, shall state briefly the name, designation, and residence of the plaintiff, and also, if known, the name, designation, and residence of the defendant, the substance and value of the claim, and the date of the cause of action, according to one of the forms contained in the Appendix A, or to the like effect.

Documentary evidence to be produced by plaintiff.

XIII. If the plaintiff sue on a bond, or rely in support of his claim on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making or presenting his complaint, and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies; and unless such document as above-mentioned be delivered in, or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court may see fit to extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of his claim.

Mode of procedure after plaint received.

XIV. The Court, having received a plaint shall proceed thereupon to make inquiry, by examination of the plaintiff or his agent, upon oath or affirmation, as to the merits, and shall record the substance of the examination. The Court shall reject the plaint unless it appear that the plaintiff has a cause of action, or if it shall appear that the defendant or the matter of the suit is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the action is barred by the lapse of time. If the plaint be not rejected, it shall be filed together with any document produced in support thereof, unless the document be a book; in which case, the Court, after examining and comparing the copy of the entry produced with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the plaintiff.

On rejection of plaint, Court to record its decision and the reasons, in the language of the Judge.

XV. The Court, upon rejecting a plaint, shall record its decision, which shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge, together with the reasons upon which it is founded.

On admission of plaint, Court to direct issue of summons to the defendant.

XVI. If the plaint shall be admitted, the Court shall direct the issue of a summons to the defendant in the form laid down in the Appendix B, or to the like effect.

A copy or translation of the plaint to be annexed to the summons, and personal attendance of defendant may be required.

XVII. Clause 1.—A copy of the plaint shall be left with the defendant when the summons is served upon him; and if the plaintiff require the personal attendance of the defendant, and satisfy the judge that such personal attendance is necessary, or the Judge of his own accord require such personal attendance, the summons shall contain an order for the defendant to appear personally in Court on a day to be specified in the summons, otherwise the summons shall order the defendant to appear personally, or by an Agent duly authorized on his behalf who has personal knowledge of the subject or who shall be accompanied by a witness who has such personal knowledge.

The presence of one or more of several defendants may be required.

Clause 2.—If there be more than one defendant, the plaintiff or the Judge may require the personal attendance of any one or more of the defendants, and the same shall be specified in the summons, which shall be served on each of the defendants.

The day to be specified in the summons how to be fixed. Defendant to be ordered to produce necessary documents.

Clause 3.—The day to be specified in the summons shall be fixed with reference to the state of the file and the distance that the defendant may be, or be supposed to be, at the time, from the place where the Court is held; and the summons shall order the defendant to produce any document which he may have in his possession, of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant may intend to rely in support of his defence.

Defendants residing fifty miles distant from the Court exempted from personal attendance.

Clause 4.—Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to require the personal attendance of any defendant, who, at the time of issuing the summons, is bonâ fide residing beyond fifty miles from the place where the Court is situated.

Misnomers and inaccurate description of person or place not to vitiate summons, &c.

XVIII. No misnomer, or inaccurate description of any person or place, in any summons or other proceeding, shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein so described as to be sufficiently identified.

Summons how to be served.

XIX. The summons shall be served by a single peon, by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally when practicable, or if the summons cannot be served on the defendant personally, by delivering a copy of it, together with a copy of the plaint, to some adult male member or servant of his family, residing or being in his dwelling-house or place of business, or by affixing a copy of the summons and a copy of the plaint to some conspicuous part of his usual place of abode or place of business, and also by affixing copies of the same in the Court room. The summons in either case shall be served a sufficient time before the day fixed for the appearance of the defendant, to enable him to appear in Court on that day.

If summons has been personally served Nazir to endorse the fact.

XX. If the summons be served personally, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the fact of such service.

If otherwise, Nazir to endorse the reason of non service.

XXI. If personal service be not effected, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the reason of not serving it personally, and how it has been served.

Execution of process beyond jurisdiction of Court.

XXII. When a summons or other process is required to be served or executed in a place beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, such summons or other process shall be transmitted to the Court of Small Causes within whose jurisdiction the summons or other process is required to be served, whether such Court of Small Causes be within the local limits of the jurisdiction of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts or not, and a Judge of such Court shall back the same, and cause it to be served in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if it were a process issued by such Judge, and shall return the summons or other process to the Court issuing the same with a certificate of the Nazir of what shall have been done thereon.

When Court may adjourn the hearing of a case to a day to be fixed by proclamation.

XXIII. Clause 1.—When a summons has been served on a defendant, and he does not attend on the day fixed for his appearance, if the Nazir's report show that the service has not been made in sufficient time to admit of the defendant conveniently attending the Court on that day, the Court may adjourn the hearing to another day, which shall be made known to the parties by a proclamation affixed in a conspicuous place in the Court room.

Penalty for wilful false statement respecting service or non-service of summons, or for personating any party to a suit.

Clause 2.—Any Nazir who shall wilfully make any false statement in respect of the service or the non-service of a summons by any endorsement on such summons, and any person who shall wilfully make any false statement respecting the service or non-service of the summons, or shall personate any party to a suit, shall,

on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour, or with fine, or with both.

On appearance of parties, defence to be made orally and reduced into writing, after which the parties may be examined by the Court, or cross-examine each other.

XXIV. Upon the appearance of the parties on the day named in the summons, or upon any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Judge, the Court shall call upon the defendant, or his pleader or agent, to make his defence: the defence shall be made either in writing in the language of the Court or verbally, and if made verbally shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, either by the Judge himself, or by an officer of the Court in the presence and under the personal superintendence of the Judge; after which the Judge shall proceed to examine such of the parties as may be present, and either party or his agent may cross-examine the other. If either of the parties be not bound to attend personally, any agent by whom he shall appear, or any witness who shall accompany such agent, shall be examined and cross-examined in like manner as the party himself would have been if he had attended personally.

Witnesses when to be examined.

XXV. If either of the parties shall bring forward a witness on such day, the Judge may take the evidence of such witness either on that day, or on any subsequent day which may be fixed for the examination of witnesses.

Mode of examination.

XXVI. The examination of the parties or their witnesses shall be upon oath or upon affirmation, and the substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the judge.

After examination, Court may make its decree if no further evidence is required.

XXVII. If, after the examination required by Section XXIV., and also the examination of any witness who may attend to give evidence on behalf of either of the parties, a decree can be properly made without further evidence, the Court shall make its decree accordingly.

Court to record issue and to fix a day for hearing evidence.

XXVIII. Clause 1.—If any issue result from the examination upon which it is necessary to hear further evidence, the Court shall declare and record such issue, and shall fix a convenient day for the examination of witnesses and the trial of the suit; and the trial shall take place on that day, unless there be sufficient reason for adjourning it, which reason shall be recorded by the Judge.

Documentary evidence how given.

Clause 2.—If the defendant, in support of his defence, rely on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making his defence, and the Court shall file the same; and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of such entry, and the Court, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the defendant; and, unless such document as above mentioned be delivered in or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of the defence.

Parties shall produce their witnesses on the day of trial; or Court, on application of other party, shall issue summons for the attendance of a witness.

XXIX. The parties shall bring their witnesses into Court on the day of trial, and if either party require the assistance of the Court to procure the attendance of a witness, on such day, either to give evidence or to produce a document, he shall apply to the Court, after the recording of the issues and in sufficient time before the day fixed for the trial of the issues, to enable the witnesses to be summoned to attend on that day; and the Court shall issue a summons according to the form contained in Appendix C, or to the like effect, requiring such witness to attend.

Costs of summons and travelling charges shall be previously deposited in Court.

XXX. Every summons, whether to an adverse party or a witness, shall be served at the cost of the party at whose instance it is issued, and the amount of such cost, as well as any sum required for the travelling and other expenses of a witness, shall be deposited in Court before the summons is issued.

Rules regarding attendance, examination, &c., of witnesses.

XXXI. The provisions of the Acts and Regulations and all other Rules for the time being in force in the several Presidencies of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, relating to the evidence of witnesses, for procuring the attendance of witnesses, and the production of documents, and for the examination, remuneration, and punishment of witnesses, whether parties to the case or not, shall, except so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to, and be of equal force and effect in summary actions under this Act.

Parties to appear personally when so required.

XXXII. Every plaintiff and every defendant summoned to attend personally shall, except as hereinafter provided, attend in person on the day specified in the writ of summons; otherwise he shall not be heard by a pleader or agent.

Pleaders or agents may be employed, but without excusing personal attendance of parties when expressly required.

XXXIII. Any party to a suit may employ an authorized pleader or agent to conduct the case on his behalf; but the appointment of such pleader or agent shall not excuse the personal attendance of the plaintiff or defendant in cases where his personal attendance is expressly required by this Act, or by the summons, or any order of the Court.

Females of rank, when parties to a suit, exempted from personal attendance. Also parties under certain circumstances, unless required to attend as witnesses.

XXXIV. A plaintiff or defendant shall not be bound to attend in person if of the female sex and of a rank and description which, according to the prejudices of the country, would render it improper to require her personal attendance in Court. A plaintiff or defendant may be excused by the Judge from attending in person, if there be a Co-plaintiff or Co-defendant who appears in person, or if the opposite party be willing to excuse his attendance, or if the Court be satisfied that there is a reasonable excuse bonâ-fide for the non-attendance of such party; but any such party may be compelled to attend or give evidence as a witness in the suit under the law applicable to the attendance of parties to a suit as witnesses.

Parties exempted from personal attendance to appoint proper agents, who may be examined.

XXXV. If a plaintiff, or a defendant setting up a cross-demand against the plaintiff, be excused by the Court from personal appearance, such plaintiff or defendant shall appoint a person to attend the Court on his behalf, who has personal knowledge of the subject of the claim or demand, and who shall be liable to be examined and cross-examined in the same manner as the plaintiff or defendant would have been if he had personally attended. The Court may also, if it think fit, order that the party excused shall be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

If on the day of hearing, and prior to recording the issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, plaintiff to be nonsuited.

XXXVI. If on the day fixed by the summons for the appearance of the defendant, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, prior to the recording of issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, the Court shall nonsuit the plaintiff.

If defendant only appear and dispute the demand, Court to dismiss the case; but if defendant admit the claim, Court shall decree upon such admission.

XXXVII. If on any such day the defendant only appear and dispute the demand, the Court shall dismiss the case with costs, unless the defendant admit the cause of action, or any part of it; in which case the Court shall proceed to give judgment for the plaintiff upon such admission without costs: provided that such judgment, if there be several defendants, shall be only against the defendant who makes the admission.

Proviso.

If plaintiff only appear, Court may proceed ex-parte.

XXXVIII. If on any such day the plaintiff only appear, the Court, upon proof that the summons has been duly served according to the provisions of this Act, or that the defendant has come to the knowledge of such summons, shall proceed to examine the plaintiff or his agent, and after considering the allegations of the plaintiff, and any documentary or oral evidence adduced by him, may either dismiss the case, or postpone the hearing of it to a future day for the attendance of any witness the plaintiff may wish to call, or may make an ex-parte decree against the defendant.

If defendant appear on a day to which the case is postponed, the Court may allow him to be heard in answer to the suit.

XXXIX. If the defendant shall appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit may be postponed under the last preceding Section, the Court may, upon such conditions, if any, as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, allow him to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance.

If neither party appear on the day fixed for the trial of an issue, plaintiff to be nonsuited; if only one of the parties appear, issue to be tried ex-parte.

XL. If on the day fixed for the trial of any issue neither of the parties appear, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited. If on any such day one only of the parties appear, the issue shall be tried and determined ex-parte.

Revival, reversal, and alteration of ex-parte decrees under certain rules and conditions.

XLI. If a decree be made ex-parte and the party against whom such decree shall have been made appear, either in person or by agent, if a plaintiff, within fifteen days from the date of the Court's order, and if a defendant, within such time as the Court shall deem reasonable under all the circumstances of the case, not exceeding three months after the defendant has been arrested, or some part of his property has been attached in execution of the decree, and shall show good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, and shall satisfy the Court that there has been a failure of justice, the Court may, upon such terms and conditions as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, revive the suit, and alter or rescind the decree according to the justice of the case, recording the reasons for so doing, and may also order restitution, if the decree shall have been executed, which order may be enforced in the same manner as a decree; but no decree shall be reversed or altered without previously summoning the adverse party to appear and be heard in support of it.

Defendant may pay money into Court in satisfaction of the demand.

XLII. Clause 1.—The defendant, in any action under this Act, may pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, together with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and such sum shall be paid to the plaintiff.

If plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than that paid into Court, he shall be liable to the subsequent costs.

Clause 2.—If the defendant deposit less than the sum claimed and the plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the plaintiff shall be charged with any costs incurred by the defendant in the suit after such payment.

No interest on deposits.

XLIII. No interest shall be allowed to a plaintiff on any sum paid by the defendant into Court, from the date of such payment, whether such sum be in full of the plaintiff's claim or fall short thereof.

Defendant may set off cross-claim against plaintiff.

XLIV. A defendant may set off against the plaintiff's claim, in any suit under this Act, any demand for which he might have sued the plaintiff in the same Court; but if the demand proposed to be set off exceed the amount cognizable by the Court, the defendant, previously to being allowed to set off the same, shall abandon the excess.

In cases where claims are set off, Court may adjudge any sum due to either party.

XLV. If the defendant in any case claim to set off any demand against the claim of the plaintiff, the Court shall find what amount is due to the plaintiff, and what amount, if any, is due to the defendant, and shall give judgment for the recovery of any sum which, upon such finding, shall appear due to either party.

Effect of judgment in such cases.

XLVI. The judgment of the Court with respect to any demand which a defendant may claim to set off, shall have the same effect as if such sum had been claimed by the defendant in a separate action against the plaintiff.

XLVII. Clause 1.—If a plaintiff have a demand recoverable against two or more persons jointly answerable, he may sue any one or more of such persons without joining the other, and the dismissal of such suit or a decree therein shall bar his claim against the person not joined.

Plaintiff having a joint demand against several persons may sue one or more of them without the others.

Effect of decree in such suit.

Clause 2.—If a plaintiff sue two or more persons jointly answerable, and one or more of such persons cannot be personally served with the summons, judgment may be obtained against any person or persons who shall have been personally served with such summons.

Judgment may be obtained against defendants who have been served with summons, though sued jointly with others who have not been served.

XLVIII. If either party fail to produce his proofs within the time allowed him, or to take out a summons for the attendance of any witness whose attendance he may require to be enforced, the case shall be proceeded with and determined as if such party had declined to produce any proof.

If either party fail to produce his proof, or adopt measures to enforce the attendance of witnesses, the case shall be proceeded with as if he had declined to produce any proof.

XLIX. The Court may, in any case, make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of a suit, and may also from time to time, for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Judge, adjourn the hearing or further hearing of any case, in such manner as to the Court may seem fit, or call on either party for proof on any point which the Court may think necessary for the determination of the case.

Court may grant time for prosecuting claim or defence, and may adjourn the hearing.

L. On the trial of any issues, the substance of the evidence of each witness shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge in the form of a narrative, by, or in the presence and under the personal superintendence of, the Judge.

On trial of issues, evidence to be reduced to writing.

LI. The Court shall pronounce judgment in open Court; and all the provisions of Act No. XII. of 1843 and Act No. XXXIII. of 1854 shall be applicable thereto.

Judgment how to be pronounced.

LII. If the decree be for the delivery of personal property, it shall state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had. The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the suit, and by what parties, and in what proportions they are to be paid.

Form of decree.

LIII. Every decree for the payment of money or costs shall contain an order for immediate execution, unless the Court shall see fit to provide for the payment by instalments, with or without interest, of any sum adjudged, or there shall be other good reason to the contrary.

Decree when to contain an order for immediate execution.

LIV. If any person entitled to plead in a Court of the East India Company shall appear on behalf of any party to a suit instituted under this Act, the Court, if it consider the case a fit one for the employment of a pleader, may charge the losing party, as part of the costs of suit, with a sum on account of the pleader's fee not exceeding, in the case of a plaintiff, 3 per centum upon the sum decreed, and in the case of a defendant 5 per centum upon the amount claimed by the plaintiff; but no fee for any pleader or agent shall be charged as part of the costs of suit in any other case.

Pleader's fee when and how to be charged.

Proviso.

LV. In a suit for damages for breach of contract, if it appear that the defendant is able to perform the contract, the Court may, with the consent of the plaintiff, order the specific performance of the contract within a time to be fixed by the Court, and shall award an amount of damages to be paid as an alternative.

In a suit for damages for breach of contract, Court may, with consent of plaintiff, order specific performance.

LVI. If the case be settled by compromise before the defendant is called upon to make his defence, the plaintiff shall be entitled to receive back the entire amount of the stamp duty paid on the plaint.

Refund of stamp duty on plaint in case of compromise before defence.

LVII. If the compromise be such as to require a decree to pass, on which process of execution can be taken out, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to a refund of the stamp duty.

No refund of stamp duty if compromise require a decree on which execution can be taken out.

LVIII. If one or more of several defendants die before judgment, the plaintiff may continue the suit against the survivor or survivors in the same manner as if he or they had been sued alone; provided that a decree in such suit shall be a bar to any proceedings against the representative of the deceased defendant.

Death of one or more of several defendants before judgment not to abate suit.

LIX. If a sole plaintiff die before judgment, the Court, at the instance of his representative, may proceed to judgment in the same manner as if the suit had been commenced by the representative.

Death of sole plaintiff.

LX. If the plaintiff become bankrupt or insolvent before judgment, the Court may proceed to judgment at the instance of the assignee in the name of the plaintiff.

Insolvency of plaintiff.

LXI. No suit instituted under this Act shall be dismissed on the ground of defect of parties, of misjoinder of persons or claims, of improper valuation of a claim, or of any other defect, error, or irregularity, if it shall appear to the Court that such defect of parties, misjoinder, improper valuation, error, defect, or irregularity was not wilful or for the purpose of obtaining any undue advantage, and that an amendment may be made without injustice to any person; and the Court may, for the purpose of correcting any error or defect, direct such amendment to be made as may be necessary, and upon such terms as it may deem proper.

Court may allow amendment of defects, errors, &c., in suits.

LXII. If at the time of a summary inquiry into a plaint under Section XIV. of this Act, or at any subsequent stage of a suit, any question of law, or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document affecting the decision of the case, may arise, on which the Court may entertain reasonable doubts, and which it may be requested by either party to reserve for the opinion of the Sudder Court, the Court may draw up a statement of the case, and submit it with its own opinion for the decision of the Sudder Court.

Court may refer questions of law, &c., to Sudder Court.

Grounds of refusal of Court to refer to Sudder Court on an application of parties, to be noted on the record.

LXIII. If the Court refuse the application of any of the parties to a suit for a reference to the Sudder Court, it shall make a note on the record of the grounds of the application and the reasons for refusal.

Notice of reference to Sudder Court, if made before issue of summons, to be forthwith given to defendant.

LXIV. If such case be stated before the issue of a summons to the defendant, notice of such reference to the Sudder Court (which notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the claim and the question referred) shall forthwith be served on the defendant in the same manner as a summons.

Court may pass decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court, pending which execution not to issue.

LXV. The Court may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the Sudder Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court on the point referred; and no execution shall be issued until the receipt of the order of the Sudder Court.

Full bench of the Sudder Court to decide cases referred under this Act.

LXVI. Cases referred for the opinion of the Sudder Court shall be dealt with by a full bench of that Court.

Sudder Court to fix an early day for the hearing of the case.

Proclamation thereof.

LXVII. The Sudder Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the case, and shall notify the same by a proclamation to be fixed up in the Court House of that Court.

Parties may appear and be heard in person or by pleader.

LXVIII. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the Sudder Court in person or by pleader.

Decision of Sudder Court how to be transmitted.

LXIX. The Sudder Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Register, to the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the Sudder Court.

Costs of reference to Sudder Court.

LXX. Each party shall bear his own costs, if any, consequent on the reference of a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

Process of execution.

LXXI. Process of execution shall be in the form contained in Appendix D or E, or to the like effect, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court. Any moveable property required to be seized under an execution shall be described in a list, to be furnished by the judgment creditor, and shall be pointed out by him or his agent. Process shall not be issued simultaneously against the person and property of a judgment debtor.

On default of payment of an instalment, execution shall issue upon application for full amount unpaid.

LXXII. If the Court shall award payment of any sum of money by instalments, and default be made in payment of any instalment as it falls due, execution shall issue upon the application of the judgment creditor for the full maount of all the instalments remaining unpaid.

Execution not to issue against heir or representative of a deceased party without notice.

LXXIII. Execution on a judgment shall not issue against the heir or other representative of a deceased party, without notice to such heir or other representative to appear and be heard.

Date of process of execution. How long warrant shall continue in force.

LXXIV. Process of execution shall bear date on the day on which it is signed by the Court, and no warrant shall continue in force for a longer period than sixty days calculated from such date.

Second and successive warrants.

LXXV. Second and successive warrants of execution may be issued by order of the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, after the expiration of the period above fixed for the continuance in force of a previous warrant. No such warrant shall continue in force for a longer period than sixty days.

Time for issue of warrant.

LXXVI. No warrant of execution shall be issued upon any judgment without notice to the party against whom execution is applied for, unless the application for the issue of the same be made within one year from the date of the judgment or from the date of the last previous application for execution, or, if the judgment be for payment by instalments, from the date of the first default of payment.

Warrant against personal property.

LXXVII. If the judgment of the Court be for the delivery of any personal property to the decree-holder, the Court shall issue a warrant, in the form contained in the Appendix F. or to the like effect, directing the Nazir to deliver, or cause to be delivered, the property to such party, or if delivery cannot be had, to levy, at the instance of the plaintiff, the sum awarded as an alternative.

Warrant against the person.

LXXVIII. If a warrant issue for taking in execution the body of any person, the Nazir of the Court shall cause him to be seized, and unless such person shall immediately deposit with the Officer entrusted with the service of the warrant the full amount specified therein, the Nazir shall bring him before the Court; and if such person shall not immediately deposit in Court the full amount specified in the warrant, or furnish good and sufficient security for the payment of the same either in full or by instalments, as the Court may direct, or satisfy the Court that he has done his best to pay the same and has no property or effects from which it can be discharged, the Court shall send him to the Civil Jail, there to remain for such time as shall be directed by the warrant, unless he shall in the meantime pay the full amount specified therein, or furnish such security as aforesaid. Provided that the term to be directed by the warrant shall not exceed three calendar months where the amount decreed, exclusive of costs, does not exceed Fifty Rupees, or six calendar months in any other case.

Form of security by bond for payment of decree by judgment debtor,

LXXIX. The security taken under the preceding Section shall be by bond in the form contained in Appendix G. If default shall happen in the fulfilment of the conditions of the bond, the judgment creditor may, without a fresh action, sue out execution upon such bond under the rules of this Act, in like manner as if a decree had been passed against the surety, his heirs, executors, or administrators upon such bond.

No person to be imprisoned a second time under same judgment, but his property to be liable to attachment.

LXXX. Any person once discharged from Jail shall not be imprisoned a second time under the same judgment, but such discharge shall not extinguish the liability of such person under the decree, or exempt any property liable to attachment in execution of the same.

Diet money to be deposited at the time of issue of warrant.

LXXXI. Any person suing out process of execution against the body of any person under this Act shall deposit with the Nazir of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one month of thirty days, at such rate as the Court may direct, not exceeding two annas per diem, unless the Court, for any special reason, direct the deposit after a higher rate, which shall not exceed four annas per diem.

Payment of diet money in advance during imprisonment.

LXXXII. Payment of diet money at the same rate shall be made previous to the commencement of each succeeding month of the imprisonment, in failure of which the party confined shall be discharged.

Diet money to be costs in suit.

LXXXIII. All diet money spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner shall be added to the costs in the suit, and any diet money not so spent shall be returned to the party who deposited the same.

Court may examine judgment debtor touching his property.

LXXXIV. The Court, at the instance of the judgment creditor, may, at any time after judgment, summon the judgment debtor, and any other person whom it may think necessary, and examine him upon oath or affirmation touching the property of the judgment debtor and his means of satisfying the judgment; and if such judgment debtor, or other person, on such examination, shall wilfully misrepresent any matter on which he may be examined, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and, upon conviction, punished accordingly.

Judgment debtor may deposit money in Court; no interest allowed on such deposits.

LXXXV. A judgment debtor may, at any time, deposit in Court any sum, or any part of any sum, of money which he may have been adjudged to pay, and the sum so deposited shall be paid over to the party entitled to receive the same; and no interest shall be allowed to such party upon such deposit from the date on which it was made, whether it be in full of the judgment, or fall short thereof.

Execution when cross-judgments have been obtained.

LXXXVI. When cross-judgments shall have been obtained between two parties, execution shall issue only upon the one which shall be for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum.

Tools and implements of business and seed-grain excepted from execution.

LXXXVII. In executing a writ of execution against the moveable property of a debtor liable under this Act, the Nazir shall except the tools and implements of the trade or business of such debtor and seed intended for the sowing of land cultivated by him.

Custody and sale of moveable property taken in execution.

LXXXVIII. No sale of any moveable property taken in execution shall be made until after the end of six days at least next following the day on which such moveable property may have been so taken, unless such moveable property be of a perishable nature, or upon the request in writing of the party whose property has been taken. Until such sale, the moveable property shall be deposited by the Nazir in some fit place, or it may remain in custody of some fit person approved by the Nazir.

Court to stay sale of moveable property seized if a third party claim any interest therein.

LXXXIX. If, within the period of five days, a third party appear before the Court, and by petition, supported by his oath or affirmation, claim a right or interest in any of the moveable property seized, the Court shall stay the sale of such property.

Court to adjudicate such claims.

XC. The Court shall adjudicate upon such claim, and make such order between the claimant and the plaintiff and defendant in the original suit as shall seem fit.

Mode of disposing of such claims and effect of judgment.

XCI. In trying such claims the Court shall be guided by the rules contained in this Act so far as they may be applicable; and the judgment passed by the Court upon such claim shall have the same effect and be subject to the same rules as a judgment in a summary action instituted under the provisions of this Act.

Third party failing to establish his claim, liable to pay compensation to judgment creditor.

XCII. If such third party shall fail to establish his right to the property seized, the Court, at the time of disposing of the case, may award to the judgment creditor against such third party, as part of the costs, such sum as it may consider sufficient to cover any loss of interest or damage which such judgment creditor may have sustained by reason of the postponement of the sale of such property.

Which of several judgment creditors is entitled to a preferential right to the proceeds of sale.

XCIII. If several judgments be recovered under this Act against the same party, the judgment creditor who first furnishes a list of moveable property to be seized in execution shall have a preferential right to have the whole of his claim satisfied from the proceeds of the sale of such property; but this rule shall not apply to any creditor who shall refuse to maintain his right to bring such property to sale against a third person who may claim the same, nor to any judgment which shall be proved to have been obtained collusively to defraud creditors.

XCIV. No irregularity in publishing or conducting a sale of moveable property under an execution shall vitiate such sale; but this rule shall not be held to deprive any person, who may sustain damage by reason of such irregularity, from recovering such damage by action.

Irregularity in publishing and conducting a sale shall not vitiate the same.

Proviso.

XCV. If a judgment creditor be unable to enforce or obtain satisfaction of a judgment by execution against the person or moveable property of the debtor within the jurisdiction of the Court which pronounced the same, the Judge of such Court, if he has a general jurisdiction by virtue of which he has power to issue execution against immoveable property for the satisfaction of decrees, shall, upon the application of the judgment creditor, issue execution against any immoveable property of the defendant, which the plaintiff shall point out, within his general jurisdiction, under the same rules and procedure, and subject to the same appeal, as in cases which fall within his general jurisdiction; or the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, shall grant him a copy of the judgment and a certificate of any sum remaining due under it, and on the presentation of the copy and certificate to any other Civil Court of Her Majesty or of the East India Company within the said Territories, such Court shall proceed to enforce such judgment by process either against the person or against the moveable or immoveable property of the debtor, according to its own rules and mode of procedure, under Act No. XXXIII. of 1852. Provided that no such judgment shall be removed into any Court other than a Court of Small Causes for the purpose of enforcing the same against the person or moveable property of a debtor within the local limits of a Court of Small Causes which such Court might levy under a decree of its own. Provided also, that Section I. Act XXIII. of 1840 shall not extend to any writ or process of execution issued out of a Small Cause Court.

Judgment how to be enforced against land within the general jurisdiction of the Judge of the Court.

Judgment how to be enforced beyond jurisdiction of Court.

Proviso.

XCVI. Every process under this Act shall issue under the seal and signature of the Court, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court, and shall be served or executed by him, or by a single officer of his establishment.

Issue and service of process.

XCVII. If any person resists the execution of a process issued under this Act, the Court may, on the statement on oath of the peon or other Officer resisted, summon the offender to answer the charge; and if, after due service of the summons, he fail to attend, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. If the charge be proved, the Court may punish the offender by a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment in the Civil Jail for a period not exceeding thirty days. All orders passed by a Court of Small Causes, under this Section, shall be appealable to the Zillah Judge.

Resistance of process.

XCVIII. The Judge of each district shall, with the approval of the Sudder Court, prepare a table of the costs of serving process under this Act; and the amount chargeable for every process shall be deposited with the Nazir of the Court previously to the issue thereof, and shall form part of the costs of suit.

Costs of serving process.

Deposit of costs with Nazir.

XCIX. Clause 1.—Every order and judgment passed by a Court of Small Causes under this Act shall be final and not open to review or appeal, except as in this Act provided.

Judgment to be final, except as provided.

Clause 2.—Upon the application of a plaintiff, the Zillah Judge may order the admission of a plaint improperly rejected.

Zillah Judge may order the admission of a plaint.

Clause 3.—The Small Cause Court, with the sanction of the Zillah Judge, may, upon the application of either party to a suit, order the re-hearing of a suit upon the ground of the discovery of new evidence or matter material to the issue of the case which the petitioner had no knowledge of, or could not produce at the time of trial.

Court, with sanction of Zillah Judge, may order re hearing of a suit on certain grounds.

Clause 4.—The Zillah Judge may, upon the application of either party, set aside a judgment of the Small Cause Court, and make such investigation into the merits of the case, and pass such decision thereon, as to him may seem fit, for any of the following special reasons, namely—

Zillah Judge may set aside decision of court for any of the following reasons.

1. The rejection of evidence which ought to have been admitted, or the admission of evidence which ought to have been rejected, if the Judge be of opinion that the admission of the evidence improperly rejected, or the rejection of the evidence improperly admitted, would have been likely to cause a different finding upon any material issue in the case.

Improper rejection or admission of evidence.

2. Substantial defect in the procedure or investigation of a case in the Small Cause Court, or misconduct of the opposite party or of the Small Cause Court, from which there may be strong probable grounds for presuming a failure of justice; but no decision of a Small Cause Court shall be reversed or altered, nor shall a re-hearing be directed in any case, upon the ground that the decision of any question of fact is contrary to, or not warranted by, the evidence duly taken in the case.

Substantial defect in procedure, &c., or misconduct of opposite party or Court.

C. Upon the application of either of the parties, the Zillah Judge may state a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court, if he shall be of opinion that the decision of the Small Cause Court upon the construction of a document, or upon any point of law or usage having the force of law, affecting the merits of the case, is erroneous; and the Sudder Court, upon the receipt of such case, shall proceed in the manner laid down in Sections LXVII. to LXX of this Act.

Upon application of parties, Zillah Judge may state a case involving points of law, &c., for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

CI. The application under Section XCIX. or C. to the Zillah Judge shall be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for petitions to the Zillah Court, provided that, when such value may be of higher amount than the value of the stamp prescribed for the petition of plaint by Section VIII. of this Act, the application may be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for the petition of plaint, or if no stamp be prescribed for the plaint, the application may be on unstamped paper. Provided also, that, if the application be successful, the value of the stamp, if any, shall be returned to the petitioner.

Proviso.

CII. Any application, either to the Zillah Judge or to the Small Cause Court, under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be presented within thirty days from the date of the decision; and no re-hearing, new trial, or reference to the Sudder Court shall be granted, unless the application be accompanied by a deposit in the Court of the whole amount, if any, decreed against the petitioner, whether absolutely, or as an alternative, except when the amount of the judgment and costs of execution has been paid into Court, or has been levied by process of execution: the amount if deposited in Court, or if levied and not paid over, shall remain in deposit subject to the order of the Court.

Applications to Zillah Judge or to Small Cause Court under Section XCIX. or C. when and how to be made.

CIII. The Court to which such application is made may interrogate the applicant or his agent, upon oath or solemn affirmation, previously to deciding upon the application; and without summoning the opposite party, reject the petition.

Mode of procedure on receipt of such application.

CIV. No decision of a Small Cause Court shall be annulled or otherwise altered to the prejudice of the opposite party, nor shall a case be referred to the Sudder Court without notice to such party to enable him to appear and be heard.

No decision of this Court to be annulled or modified, and no reference to be made to Sudder Court, without notice to opposite party.

CV. Every order passed by a Zillah Judge, or by the Small Cause Court, upon an application under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be final and not open to appeal or review.

Orders upon application under Sections XCIX. and C. to be final.

CVI. A nonsuit shall be no impediment to the institution of a new suit on the same cause of action where the party is not precluded by lapse of time or otherwise under the general law.

Nonsuit to be no bar to a new suit on same cause of action.

CVII. The Zillah Judge may transfer any case pending in a Small Cause Court within his Zillah to any other, Small Cause Court in the same Zillah, recording his reasons for such transfer.

Zillah Judge may transfer cases from one Court to another in his Zillah.

CVIII. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government in any of the said Presidencies to extend the summary jurisdiction of the Moonsiff's Court in any District as a Small Cause Court under this Act, to an amount not exceeding Three Hundred Rupees.

Local Governments may extend summary jurisdiction of Moonsiffs' Courts to Three Hundred Rupees.

CIX. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government in any of the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Compnny to invest any Civil Court of the East India Company now existing, or which may hereafter be established with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, with the summary jurisdiction of a Small Cause Court under this Act, for the adjudication of claims to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits within which such Court shall exercise such summary jurisdiction. Provided that no Court shall be invested with jurisdiction as a Small Cause Court beyond the amount of its ordinary jurisdiction.

Local Governments empowered to invest Civil Courts with summary jurisdiction to the extent of Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits of jurisdiction.

CX. Provided that, in claims for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, it shall be at the option of the plaintiff to sue in a summary action in a Small Cause Court or otherwise; but no party having instituted a regular suit in a case in which he might have sued in a summary action under this Act, shall recover costs in such suit beyond the amount which he might have recovered in a summary action, nor any costs of appeal arising out of such regular suit. The defendant, however, in such case, if the judgment be in his favor, shall be entitled to recover the full costs either of the original suit or of an appeal arising therefrom, as if this Act had not been passed.

Claims exceeding Fifty Rupees may be sued for in a summary action in a Small Cause Court, or otherwise

Legislative Council.

The 9th June 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 2nd June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 13th of September next :—

A Bill to Amend Act No. XXVIII. of 1839.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to modify the said Act so far as it relates to the height of buildings within the walls of the Fort of Bombay—

Governor in Council may allow buildings within the Fort of Bombay to be of a greater height than 50 feet.

I. It is hereby enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council, by order in writing to be signed by one of the Secretaries to Government, to allow the erection of any building, which now is or may be hereafter erected within the walls of the Fort of Bombay, of a greater height than 50 feet measured from the surface of the street, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

FORT WILLIAM,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

The 8th June 1855.

THE following Rules for the grant of Leave of Absence for regulating Deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances, and for limiting the period of Service of Civil Servants, are published for general information, and will take effect in all the Presidencies and Settlements under the Government of India from the date of the publication of this Notification, in supersession of the Rules of the 17th May 1843 and the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER I.

RULES FOR APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

NOTE.—This Rule must be considered as superseding the Rule under which Commissioners of the Land Revenue and other Officers have heretofore been allowed to grant Leave of Absence in Bengal.

Section I. No Leave of Absence from any Office or Station can be granted, but by the Government under which the employment is held, and on the application of the party requiring such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially excepted. The application must be made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

Section II. The official allowances of the holder of a Civil Office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the date of his quitting until his return, or, in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave, to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Section III. No Leave of Absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by Medical Certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE.

Section IV. Upon application duly made, the Government may grant Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V. When an application for Leave of Absence is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a Certificate and a Statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed, as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere, as laid down in Section IV.; and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtaining leave, the Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, on their being satisfied, on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery. Should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the Presidency, the Certificate must, in the first instance, be counter-signed by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, and afterwards submitted with the statement of the case for the consideration and counter-signature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The Certificate shall be given in the following form:—

I, A. B., Surgeon at or of ——— do hereby certify that E F., of the Civil Service, is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to Sea, (or to such place as the Surgeon may think proper, expressing it in the Certificate)

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon, in counter-signing the Surgeon's Certificate:—

We (or I) do hereby certify, that, according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we (or I) consider the state of health of E. F., to be such as to render Leave of Absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited; and such Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division, in which the applicant may be located, as the case may be, on perusal of the statement. In like manner, if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the Certificate to be counter-signed by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the applicant is in England, or if not in England by the principal Medical authority of the Colony or Country to which the Absentee may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such counter-signature if the Certificate be not so counter-signed. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon, before counter-signing a Certificate as above-mentioned, must either personally examine the applicant or state some sufficient reason why they, or he, have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI. The following conditions will in future attach to Leaves of Absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical Certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health:—

1*st*,—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided, shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section and in Section VII. of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion.

2*ndly*,—The office of the absentee will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the Presidency, from the date of his arrival thereat to the date of his quitting the Sanitarium; if to any place beyond the Presidency, but within the Continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own Presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to Sea, from the date of the sailing of the Vessel on which he may have embarked from any Port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency, to the date of his arrival at any Port within the Presidency to which he belongs, or at any other Port which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency.

3*rdly*,—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary, and the same will be paid to him during such period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10,000 (£1,000) per annum, during that period. In cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted.

4thly,—For the interval elapsing between departure from Station to the commencement of reckoning absence or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station, the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months or three months according to the distance to be travelled as prescribed in Section XX of these Rules, and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause 3 of this Section.

5thly,—If the absentee shall apply under Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary after examination by their Medical Officer in England, that he should do so; the leave which may have been granted in India will, under the orders of the Honorable Court, be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain Office, and half salary within the limits enjoined, during such extension.

6thly,—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 4, he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment, but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, or of £250 if not above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole. At the expiration of that term, all allowance must cease until he reports his return to his Presidency.

Section VII. If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on Sick Leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months at one time, at whatever period of his service such Sick Leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for Leave of Absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may, on special grounds, grant Leave of Absence for one further period not exceeding six months, during which the absentee may retain his office, and half his salary under the limits above enjoined.

Section VIII. If a Civil Servant, after fifteen years' service, shall be compelled by ill health to apply for further Leave of Absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it, but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary; the Government of India and the subordinate Governments will however, respectively, exercise a discretionary power to grant, in such last-mentioned cases, a sick absentee allowance, not exceeding Rupees 5,000 or £500 per annum, for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX. A Civil Servant who has taken Sick Leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843, will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above Rules, with the privilege of retaining Office, provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843.

Section X. None of the above-mentioned Rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each Member may, however, with the special sanction of the Government, be permitted to be absent, under Medical Certificate, for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary, which shall be paid to him during such absence, but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Section XI. Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above Rules, will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XII. The Government may grant to Civil Servants Leave of Absence to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which they may resort for one month in each year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such Servants—such leave, however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave; but Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year, may obtain, under the like conditions, Leave of Absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may, in like manner, be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave; but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this Rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave, and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant.

Civil Servants absent from their Stations under Medical Certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this Rule in continuation of their Sick Leave; and if, while absent under this Rule, they be granted extended leave under Medical Certificate, they shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate for the whole period of their absence.

Civil Servants who have been absent on Medical Certificate during any portion of a calendar year are not entitled to leave under this Rule during that year; but in determining the interval necessary to entitle a person to leave under this Rule, no reference will be made to any intermediate Leave of Absence that may have been granted under Section XIV. Clause 1.

Section XIII. As a general Rule, when leave is granted under Section XII, such leave will be in one period only, whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions to complete one month within the year, and the term year shall be held o mean the calendar year commencing with the 1st of January and ending with the 31st of December, but as an exception to this Rule, it shall be discretional with the several Local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction Leave of Absence under this Rule to such parties as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in instalments, not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year, on the understanding that no leave can be granted for any fresh calendar year until the completion of three months from the expiration of the entire leave or of the last instalment of leave taken in the past calendar year.

Section XIV., Clause I. The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant to a Civil Servant special Leave of Absence on Private Affairs for six months, to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort, provided, however, that if any Officer to whom such leave shall be granted shall be absent from his Station for any period exceeding that to which he may be entitled without deduction, under Section XII., the absentee shall, for the period in excess, draw no more than one-half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months (exclusive of any period which may be granted under Section XII.) any Office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

Clause II. The Leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto, and a second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause III. It will be understood that leave under this Section is not to be granted as a r of course to every applicant, but that it the duty of the Government to consider termine whether the grounds of the ap are sufficiently urgent to justify the con the leave.

CHAPTER IV.

FURLOUGHS ON PRIVATE AFFA

Section XV. In the place of th three years (in one term,) for whi has hitherto been granted, Civil Ser allowed the option of taking a Furl years as at present, or of dividing into three periods of one year ea after successive periods of seven into two periods, which may eith two years respectively, or of each, provided that, in every Servant shall declare, on tak whether he intends it to be fo twenty-four or thirty-six mon Government may make its ingly. In case of a division first Furlough must be t of not less than ten year lough after a further re years from the date of re lough ; but Civil Servan to Europe will continu their offices.

Section XVI. The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever, be permitted for any longer period than three years.

Section XVII. Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under Medical Certificate, before completing seven years' residence in India, will be entitled to receive during their Furlough on Private Affairs, taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum, for three years.

Section XVIII. Clause I. In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years, will count as service in India in the twenty-five years entitling to the annuity, the present qualification of twenty-two years' residence being retained.

Clause II. Absence on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as Service and residence in India, and be so computed in addition to the three years of absence which under the Clause next preceding are allowed to be reckoned as Indian Service. All periods of short Leave of Absence on Private Affairs taken under Sections XII. and XIV. of these Rules will also count as service and residence.

Section XIX. Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Orders No. 1150 dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of Leave of Absence and Furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

CHAPTER V.

RULES FOR JOINING STATIONS.

Section XX. There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new Office the periods of one month, two months, or three months for joining, accordingly as the distance may not exceed 00 miles, or be in excess of the last-men- istance. Officers not joining their Station the said periods, respectively, shall forfeit alary for the time delayed in excess of the periods, and if such excess shall exceed one , the office shall be vacated, unless otherwise ally ordered by Government.

The time al- ing is com- he date of aching the inted.

ection XXI. Upon the first appointment of Civil Servant, who shall be reported qualified Public Service by the Examiners appointed by e Government, to any Civil Station, there shall allowed for travelling expenses to the Station, n allowance at the rate of 8 annas per mile by he direct Post Road, according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the Bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after he Officer shall have joined the Station: if required in advance, an order of the Government shall be necessary.

Section XXII. The salary of office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in case of Junior Civil Servants, the salary of Assistants will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the Public Service unless forfeited under the preceding Rule, through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

Section XXIII. In case of a change of office, when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No. XX., regulating the time and distance for joining Station, shall be applicable, and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that Rule respectively, draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join, a sum equal to that of his previous situation.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES FOR DEPUTATION ALLOWANCES.

Section XXIV. The sum of Company's Rupees 52,200 per annum having been fixed, under the orders of the Court of Directors, as the maximum salary of Civil Office for the offices of Government under the situation of Member of Council, Civil Servants who may draw larger allowances than this annual sum, as a consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance, in conderation of the necessary expenses of their position, will, in all cases of absence, be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the allowance thus limited, and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position; provided however, that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854. the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary, under the Government Resolution, No. 563, of that date.

NOTE.—This Rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

Section XXV. Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:—

To Civil Servants not holding any substantive appointment, at the rate of 50 per cent. on the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, such Deputation Allowance being in addition to the Subsistence Allowance of their respective ranks.

To Civil Servants holding an office of inferior emolument, when officiating in an office of superior emolument, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon Company's Rupees 2,000, and of 10 per cent. on the amount in which the monthly salary may exceed Company's Rupees 2,000, provided however that no lower rate of Deputation Allowance shall be given than Rupees 200 per mensem.

The Deputation Allowance shall in all cases be in addition to the salary of the substantive appointment held by the Officer on deputation.

The above rates are granted provisionally, subject to future revision.

In the Punjab, Nagpore and other places, where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances, payable at the above rates, will be calculated, not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating, but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointment may belong.

A Civil Servant acting for another shall have no claim to Commission or Fees, where any such sources of emolument exist. These shall be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved, subject to the prescribed deductions.

A Civil Servant acting in an appointment, the salary of which is to be reduced on the retirement of the present incumbent, will draw Deputation Allowance on the reduced salary.

An Officer officiating in more than one appointment will be entitled to Deputation Allowance, regulated by the aggregate amount of the salary of the offices.

An Officer appointed permanently to a higher situation, but prevented from joining his appointment by an order of Government, and detained to officiate in a situation of still higher emolument than the one to which he has been permanently appointed, will be entitled to a Deputation Allowance in addition to the higher salary to which he has been promoted.

Section XXVI. No Civil Servant, temporarily officiating for another, shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance, according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another, shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance, unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

Section XXVII. No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same office or establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month, and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrear. But a servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to Deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

Section XXVIII. Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed, or if ordered by Government on special duty, shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

CHAPTER VII.

RULES FOR LIMITING THE PERIOD OF SERVICE.

Section XXIX. After thirty-five years' service no Civil Servant shall be appointed to any new office, nor be permitted to retain an office which he has held for a period of five years and upwards, except in special cases, which are to be referred for the decision of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors. This Rule will be applicable to every Civil Servant appointed to office after its promulgation, and to the case of every other Civil Servant to whom it relates at the close of five years from the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO LAW OFFICERS.

Section XXX. The East India Company's Law Officers may obtain Sick Leave and Short Leave on Private Affairs under the conditions prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, both as respects the periods of absence and the limitation of allowances during such absence. Leave will however only be granted at the convenience of the Government, and no additional expense will on any consideration be incurred by the Government on account thereof.

If any Law Officer shall quit his duty, save on leave under Medical Certificate or on Short Leave on Private Affairs, he will be considered to have vacated his appointment.

CHAPTER IX.

RULES FOR CHAPLAINS AND ASSISTANT CHAPLAINS.

Section XXXI. Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may take Furlough on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate, also privilege leave and leave for short periods on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate in or out of India, on the same terms and conditions as Military Officers, with the following modifications:—

1*st.*—Chaplains being allowed to retire after twenty years' service, the period of Furlough on Private Affairs, is in their case limited to the present term of three years. The Furlough may however either be taken in one period, or be divided into two periods, whether of eighteen months each, or of two years and one year, respectively, and if divided, the first Furlough may be taken, as at present, after seven years' residence, and the second Furlough after a further residence of ten years in India. As respects Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains appointed before the 11th January 1854, when the period of Service was only eighteen years, their second Furlough, if they should exercise the option of taking Furlough in two periods, will be available after a second residence in India for a term of eight years.

2*ndly.*—No Furlough or Leave of Absence, whether on Private Affairs or on Sick Certificate, taken in Europe or elsewhere out of India, in excess of three years, will be allowed to count as Service in India in the twenty years which qualifies Chaplains for their Retiring Pensions.

Section XXXII. The Furlough Pay of Chaplains will remain as at present. With regard to their allowance during Sick Leave to any place out of India, they shall receive salary (but at a rate not exceeding £600 per annum) for the first six months of absence, and, for the remaining twelve months, an allowance equal to the Furlough Pay of their standing. If the leave be extended, an allowance equal to Furlough Pay may be drawn for a further period of eighteen months.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

PARA. 1. We received on the 25th ultimo an announcement that, at the recommendation of the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, the General Commanding-in-Chief would advise the Queen to declare it to be Her Majesty's pleasure that Officers of the East India Company's Army shall have everywhere rank and precedence with Officers of Her Majesty's Army according to the dates of their respective Commissions.

2. We expressed, in reply, our sincere gratification at this announcement, and we observed that the result would be, in the highest degree, satisfactory to the Officers of the Company's Army, as manifesting the desire of Her Majesty's Government and of General Viscount Hardinge to confer upon them every advantage in respect to rank and precedence which is consistent with the constitution of the Service of the East India Company.

3. The following is a copy of the Official Order, as published in the London Gazette of the 1st instant:

Memorandum, Horse Guards, 25th April 1855.

"In order to remove any doubt which may exist as to the rank and precedence of the Officers of the Hon'ble East India Company's Service, it is Her Majesty's pleasure, that Officers of the Honorable East India Company's Service, whose commissions shall be signed by authorities duly deputed to do so by Her Majesty, shall have rank and precedence with Officers of Her Majesty's regular Army according to the dates of their Commissions in all parts of Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere."

Notification.

THE Most Noble the Governor General in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 4th September 1854, having decided that the practice of this Office, with reference to the salaries of Uncovenanted Officers when transferred from one District to another, in charging salaries only from the date of their joining their new appointments, and not from the date of their relief from their old posts, is wrong, all Officers having to submit Pay Bills are hereby required to take special notice of this decision. The following instructions are given for their information and guidance :—

When an Uncovenanted Officer quits a post for one in another District, to which a higher salary is attached, the controlling Officer of the new District shall draw the salary for the time between the quitting of the old Office and the joining of the new one, at the rate of the salary appertaining to the old Office; but not for the full salary of the new appointment, until the Officer transferred shall have actually joined his new Office, when he shall draw for the full amount of his new salary.

Notice

Is hereby given that the Government Bullock Train will cease to run above Kurnaul after the 15th instant, owing to the road being still impracticable for the successful management of that establishment during the rainy season.

From the above date, all Packages for stations above Kurnaul will, as heretofore, be conveyed in country carts, with every possible degree of care, but there can be no guarantee against possible damage from wet, as many Rivers and Nullahs without bridges have to be crossed.

The Bullock Train between Lahore and Mooltan will probably be maintained throughout the rainy season.

Notice.

COMPLAINTS having been made of Steam or British Postage, although paid on letters from India, having been levied in England, on the plea that Indian Postage Stamps are not recognised there, the Post-master General, N. W. P., begs to notify, that all letters on which Steam or British Postage is paid, in addition to Inland or Indian Postage, are stamped with the words "India Paid" in red ink, and that this mark is recognised by the Post Office authorities in England as proof of pre-payment of Steam Postage.

Parties who pay Steam Postage on their letters should note on them Steam or British Postage pre-paid to England, and as Overland letters are now received on the latest safe dates by a Writer at the Post Office Window, the Postage Stamps will then and there be obliterated and the words "India Paid" stamped in red ink.

Those who pre-pay their letters to England are recommended to give the information above to their correspondents, so that if Steam Postage be demanded from them, they may protest and appeal to Her Majesty's Post-masters General for redress.

9th June 1855.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council on the 9th of June 1855, is re-published for general information :—

A Bill for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company; It is enacted as follows :—

Moonsiff's Courts to be Small Cause Courts for the trial of summary actions.

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, every Moonsiff's Court shall be a Court of Small Causes for the trial of summary actions, and shall exercise summary jurisdiction under the following rules.

Description of claims to be cognizable by Small Cause Courts.

II. All claims for money due, whether on Bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of Fifty Rupees, shall be tried summarily in a Court of Small Causes; provided that a summary action in such Court shall not lie in any of the following cases :—

Proviso.

1st.—On balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents.

2nd.—For a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or a legacy or part of a legacy under will.

3rd.—For any claim relating to arrears or exactions of rent, or to alleged illegal distraints for rent, for which claim, or for any part whereof, a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department, if commenced in due time.

4th.—For the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

5th.—For any claim which, irrespectively of the amount thereof, is not according to law cognizable by a Moonsiff in his ordinary jurisdiction.

Jurisdiction of the Courts.

III. No person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted under this Act, and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court; provided that, if an action be brought against several defendants, of whom one shall be resident as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

Claims which can be tried under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court.

IV. Claims which can be tried in a summary action in a Small Cause Court under Section II. of this Act shall not be cognizable in any other Court or in any other manner; but nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature, or the jurisdiction which can be exercised by village Moonsiffs or village or district Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Punchayet under Regulation VII. of

Proviso.

1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the Rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars, in Cantonments, and stations occupied by the troops of those Presidencies respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the Rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St George.

Minors may prosecute suits under this Act.

V. A minor may prosecute a suit under this Act upon any contract entered into with him, or for any wrong for which he might have sued under this Act if of full age, without being represented by his guardian or next friend, in the same manner as if he were of full age. Provided that no release, compromise, or acquittal by the minor be valid without the consent of the Court.

Seal of the Court. Court to be a Court of record, and to be subject generally to the Zillah Judge and Sudder Court.

VI. Every Court holden under this Act shall use a Seal bearing the following inscription in English and in the language of the Court—"Court of Small Causes of ————;" and every such Court shall be a Court of record, and shall be subject to the general control and orders of the Judge of the district and of the Sudder Court

No cause of action to be divided, but plaintiff may abandon excess.

VII. A plaintiff shall not divide any cause of action for the sake of bringing two or more summary actions under this Act; but a plaintiff having a cause of action for more than the amount cognizable by the Court, may abandon the excess, which abandonment shall be stated in the plaint and shall for ever bar any claim to such excess.

Stamped paper, according to a table of rates given, to be used for plaint, except by Native Officers and Soldiers.

VIII. The plaint in a summary action under this Act, except in actions by Native Officers and Soldiers, which, under the provisions of Act No. XV. of 1845, may be instituted on unstamped paper, shall be engrossed on paper bearing a stamp or stamps proportioned to the amount sued for, according to the rates in the following Table:—

	Rs.	As.	P.
If the amount of debt or damage, or the value of the property claimed, shall not exceed 5 Rupees,	0	4	0
If the same shall exceed 5 Rupees, and not exceed 10 Rupees,	0	8	0
If the same shall exceed 10 Rupees, and not exceed 15 Rupees,	0	12	0
If the same shall exceed 15 Rupees, and not exceed 20 Rupees,	1	0	0
If the same shall exceed 20 Rupees, and not exceed 25 Rupees,	1	4	0
If the same shall exceed 25 Rupees, and not exceed 30 Rupees,	1	8	0
If the same shall exceed 30 Rupees, and not exceed 35 Rupees.	1	12	0
If the same shall exceed 35 Rupees, and not exceed 40 Rupees.	2	0	0
If the same shall exceed 40 Rupees, and not exceed 45 Rupees,	2	4	0
If the same shall exceed 45 Rupees, and not exceed 50 Rupees,	2	8	0

Provided that nothing in this Act shall render it necessary for any plaint to be written on stamped paper when the amount of debt or damage shall not exceed one rupee, nor shall render a stamp necessary in any place not now subject to a stamp law.

When plaint plain paper may be received. Subsequent procedure for recovery of costs.

IX Clause 1.—The Court if satisfied of the inability of the plaintiff to pay the value of the stamp prescribed for plaints, may receive such plaint on plain paper.

Clause 2.—On the conclusion of the suit, the whole of the costs which would have been incurred by the plaintiff, had he been admitted to sue as a paupor, shall be ascertained and entered in the decree.

Clause 3.—If the decree is in favor of the plaintiff, the costs, or such part of them as the Court may decree, shall be recovered from the defendant for the benefit of the Government and other parties entitled thereto.

Clause 4.—If the decree is against the plaintiff, the defendant, if payment of costs is awarded, may proceed against the plaintiff under the ordinary rules for the enforcement of decrees

No other stamp duty to be required in suits under this Act not exceeding 50 Rs., but general Stamp Regulations to be applicable in suits exceeding that amount.

X. In a suit instituted under this Act for a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees, no stamp shall be required in respect of any petition or other proceeding connected with the suit, or with the execution of any order or judgment passed therein, or for copies of any papers, other than the stamp duty hereinbefore required on the plaint. In suits for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, the general Stamp Regulations in force in the several Presidencies shall be applicable.

Mode of instituting a suit under this Act

XI. In order to the institution of a suit under this Act, a plaintiff may state his claim to a Judge verbally; in which case it shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, by the Judge himself, or by an Officer of the Court in his presence and under his personal superintendence, upon stamped paper to be provided by the plaintiff for that purpose; or the plaintiff or his authorized agent may present to the Judge a plaint in the vernacular language of the Court.

Form of plaint.

XII. The plaint, whether taken down in writing in the Court, or presented in writing, shall state briefly the name, designation, and residence of the plaintiff, and also, if known, the name, designation, and residence of the defendant, the substance and value of the claim, and the date of the cause of action, according to one of the forms contained in the Appendix A, or to the like effect.

Documentary evidence to be produced by plaintiff

XIII. If the plaintiff sue on a bond, or rely in support of his claim on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making or presenting his complaint, and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies; and unless such document as above-mentioned be delivered in, or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court may see fit to extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of his claim

Mode of procedure after plaint received.

XIV. The Court, having received a plaint, shall proceed thereupon to make inquiry, by examination of the plaintiff or his agent, upon oath or affirmation, as to the merits, and shall record the substance of the examination. The Court shall reject the plaint unless it appear that the plaintiff has a cause of action, or if it shall appear that the defendant or the matter of the suit is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the action is barred by the lapse of time. If the plaint be not rejected, it shall be filed together with any document produced in support thereof, unless the document be a book; in which case, the Court, after examining and comparing the copy of the entry produced with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the plaintiff.

On rejection of plaint, Court to record its decision and the reasons, in the language of the Judge.

XV. The Court, upon rejecting a plaint, shall record its decision, which shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge, together with the reasons upon which it is founded.

On admission of plaint, Court to direct issue of summons to the defendant.

XVI. If the plaint shall be admitted, the Court shall direct the issue of a summons to the defendant in the form laid down in the Appendix B, or to the like effect.

A copy or translation of the plaint to be annexed to the summons, and personal attendance of defendant may be required.

XVII. Clause 1.—A copy of the plaint shall be left with the defendant when the summons is served upon him; and if the plaintiff require the personal attendance of the defendant, and satisfy the judge that such personal attendance is necessary, or the Judge of his own accord require such personal attendance, the summons shall contain an order for the defendant to appear personally in Court on a day to be specified in the summons, otherwise the summons shall order the defendant to appear personally, or by an Agent duly authorized on his behalf who has personal knowledge of the subject or who shall be accompanied by a witness who has such personal knowledge.

The presence of one or more of several defendants may be required.

Clause 2.—If there be more than one defendant, the plaintiff or the Judge may require the personal attendance of any one or more of the defendants, and the same shall be specified in the summons, which shall be served on each of the defendants.

The day to be specified in the summons how to be fixed. Defendant to be ordered to produce necessary documents.

Clause 3.—The day to be specified in the summons shall be fixed with reference to the state of the file and the distance that the defendant may be, or be supposed to be, at the time, from the place where the Court is held; and the summons shall order the defendant to produce any document which he may have in his possession, of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant may intend to rely in support of his defence.

Defendants residing fifty miles distant from the Court exempted from personal attendance.

Clause 4.—Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to require the personal attendance of any defendant, who, at the time of issuing the summons, is bond fide residing beyond fifty miles from the place where the Court is situated.

Misnomers and inaccurate description of person or place not to vitiate summons, &c.

XVIII. No misnomer, or inaccurate description of any person or place, in any summons or other proceeding, shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein so described as to be sufficiently identified.

Summons how to be served.

XIX. The summons shall be served by a single peon, by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally when practicable, or if the summons cannot be served on the defendant personally, by delivering a copy of it, together with a copy of the plaint, to some adult male member or servant of his family, residing or being in his dwelling-house or place of business, or by affixing a copy of the summons and a copy of the plaint to some conspicuous part of his usual place of abode or place of business, and also by affixing copies of the same in the Court room. The summons in either case shall be served a sufficient time before the day fixed for the appearance of the defendant, to enable him to appear in Court on that day.

If summons has been personally served Nazir to endorse the fact.

XX. If the summons be served personally, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the fact of such service.

If otherwise, Nazir to endorse the reason of non service.

XXI. If personal service be not effected, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the reason of not serving it personally, and how it has been served.

Execution of process beyond jurisdiction of Court.

XXII. When a summons or other process is required to be served or executed in a place beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, such summons or other process shall be transmitted to the Court of Small Causes within whose jurisdiction the summons or other process is required to be served, whether such Court of Small Causes be within the local limits of the jurisdiction of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts or not, and a Judge of such Court shall back the same, and cause it to be served in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if it were a process issued by such Judge, and shall return the summons or other process to the Court issuing the same with a certificate of the Nazir of what shall have been done thereon.

When Court may adjourn the hearing of a case to a day to be fixed by proclamation.

XXIII. Clause 1.—When a summons has been served on a defendant, and he does not attend on the day fixed for his appearance, if the Nazir's report show that the service has not been made in sufficient time to admit of the defendant conveniently attending the Court on that day, the Court may adjourn the hearing to another day, which shall be made known to the parties by a proclamation affixed in a conspicuous place in the Court room.

Penalty for wilful false statement respecting service or non-service of summons, or for personating any party to a suit.

Clause 2.—Any Nazir who shall wilfully make any false statement in respect of the service or the non-service of a summons by any endorsement on such summons, and any person who shall wilfully make any false statement respecting the service or non-service of the summons, or shall personate any party to a suit, shall,

on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour, or with fine, or with both.

On appearance of parties, defence to be made orally and reduced into writing, after which the parties may be examined by the Court, or cross-examine each other.

XXIV. Upon the appearance of the parties on the day named in the summons, or upon any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Judge, the Court shall call upon the defendant, or his pleader or agent, to make his defence: the defence shall be made either in writing in the language of the Court or verbally, and if made verbally shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, either by the Judge himself, or by an officer of the Court in the presence and under the personal superintendence of the Judge; after which the Judge shall proceed to examine such of the parties as may be present, and either party or his agent may cross-examine the other. If either of the parties be not bound to attend personally, any agent by whom he shall appear, or any witness who shall accompany such agent, shall be examined and cross-examined in like manner as the party himself would have been if he had attended personally.

Witnesses when to be examined.

XXV. If either of the parties shall bring forward a witness on such day, the Judge may take the evidence of such witness either on that day, or on any subsequent day which may be fixed for the examination of witnesses.

Mode of examination.

XXVI. The examination of the parties or their witnesses shall be upon oath or upon affirmation, and the substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the judge.

After examination, Court may make its decree if no further evidence is required.

XXVII. If, after the examination required by Section XXIV., and also the examination of any witness who may attend to give evidence on behalf of either of the parties, a decree can be properly made without further evidence, the Court shall make its decree accordingly.

Court to record issue and to fix a day for hearing evidence.

XXVIII. Clause 1.—If any issue result from the examination upon which it is necessary to hear further evidence, the Court shall declare and record such issue, and shall fix a convenient day for the examination of witnesses and the trial of the suit; and the trial shall take place on that day, unless there be sufficient reason for adjourning it, which reason shall be recorded by the Judge.

Documentary evidence how given.

Clause 2.—If the defendant, in support of his defence, rely on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making his defence, and the Court shall file the same; and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of such entry, and the Court, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the defendant; and, unless such document as above-mentioned be delivered in or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of the defence.

Parties shall produce their witnesses on the day of trial; or Court, on application of either party, shall issue summons for the attendance of a witness.

XXIX. The parties shall bring their witnesses into Court on the day of trial, and if either party require the assistance of the Court to procure the attendance of a witness on such day, either to give evidence or to produce a document, he shall apply to the Court, after the recording of the issues and in sufficient time before the day fixed for the trial of the issues, to enable the witnesses to be summoned to attend on that day; and the Court shall issue a summons according to the form contained in Appendix C., or to the like effect, requiring such witness to attend.

Costs of summons and travelling charges shall be previously deposited in Court.

XXX. Every summons, whether to an adverse party or a witness, shall be served at the cost of the party at whose instance it is issued, and the amount of such cost, as well as any sum required for the travelling and other expenses of a witness, shall be deposited in Court before the summons is issued.

Rules regarding attendance, examination, &c., of witnesses.

XXXI. The provisions of the Acts and Regulations and all other Rules for the time being in force in the several Presidencies of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, relating to the evidence of witnesses, for procuring the attendance of witnesses, and the production of documents, and for the examination, remuneration, and punishment of witnesses, whether parties to the case or not, shall, except so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to, and be of equal force and effect in summary actions under this Act.

Parties to appear personally when so required.

XXXII. Every plaintiff and every defendant summoned to attend personally shall, except as hereinafter provided, attend in person on the day specified in the writ of summons; otherwise he shall not be heard by a pleader or agent.

Pleaders or agents may be employed, but without excusing personal attendance of parties when expressly required.

XXXIII. Any party to a suit may employ an authorized pleader or agent to conduct the case on his behalf; but the appointment of such pleader or agent shall not excuse the personal attendance of the plaintiff or defendant in cases where his personal attendance is expressly required by this Act, or by the summons, or any order of the Court.

Females of rank, when parties to a suit, exempted from personal attendance. Also parties under certain circumstances, unless required to attend as witnesses.

XXXIV. A plaintiff or defendant shall not be bound to attend in person if of the female sex and of a rank and description which, according to the prejudices of the country, would render it improper to require her personal attendance in Court. A plaintiff or defendant may be excused by the Judge from attending in person, if there be a Co-plaintiff or Co-defendant who appears in person, or if the opposite party be willing to excuse his attendance, or if the Court be satisfied that there is a reasonable excuse bonâ-fide for the non-attendance of such party; but any such party may be compelled to attend or give evidence as a witness in the suit under the law applicable to the attendance of parties to a suit as witnesses.

Parties exempted from personal attendance to appoint proper agents, who may be examined.

XXXV. If a plaintiff, or a defendant setting up a cross-demand against the plaintiff, be excused by the Court from personal appearance, such plaintiff or defendant shall appoint a person to attend the Court on his behalf, who has personal knowledge of the subject of the claim or demand, and who shall be liable to be examined and cross-examined in the same manner as the plaintiff or defendant would have been if he had personally attended. The Court may also, if it think fit, order that the party excused shall be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

If on the day of hearing, and prior to recording the issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, plaintiff to be nonsuited.

XXXVI. If on the day fixed by the summons for the appearance of the defendant, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, prior to the recording of issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, the Court shall nonsuit the plaintiff.

If defendant only appear and dispute the demand, Court to dismiss the case; but if defendant admit the claim, Court shall decree upon such admission.

XXXVII. If on any such day the defendant only appear and dispute the demand, the Court shall dismiss the case with costs, unless the defendant admit the cause of action, or any part of it; in which case the Court shall proceed to give judgment for the plaintiff upon such admission without costs: provided that such judgment, if there be several defendants, shall be only against the defendant who makes the admission.

Proviso.

If plaintiff only appear, Court may proceed ex-parte.

XXXVIII. If on any such day the plaintiff only appear, the Court, upon proof that the summons has been duly served according to the provisions of this Act, or that the defendant has come to the knowledge of such summons, shall proceed to examine the plaintiff or his agent, and after considering the allegations of the plaintiff, and any documentary or oral evidence adduced by him, may either dismiss the case, or postpone the hearing of it to a future day for the attendance of any witness the plaintiff may wish to call, or may make an ex-parte decree against the defendant.

If defendant appear on a day to which the case is postponed, the Court may allow him to be heard in answer to the suit.

XXXIX. If the defendant shall appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit may be postponed under the last preceding Section, the Court may, upon such conditions, if any, as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, allow him to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance.

If neither party appear on the day fixed for the trial of an issue, plaintiff to be nonsuited; if only one of the parties appear, issue to be tried ex-parte.

XL. If on the day fixed for the trial of any issue neither of the parties appear, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited. If on any such day one only of the parties appear, the issue shall be tried and determined ex-parte.

Revival, reversal, and alteration of ex-parte decrees under certain rules and conditions.

XLI. If a decree be made ex-parte and the party against whom such decree shall have been made appear, either in person or by agent, if a plaintiff, within fifteen days from the date of the Court's order, and if a defendant, within such time as the Court shall deem reasonable under all the circumstances of the case, not exceeding three months after the defendant has been arrested, or some part of his property has been attached in execution of the decree, and shall show good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, and shall satisfy the Court that there has been a failure of justice, the Court may, upon such terms and conditions as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, revive the suit, and alter or rescind the decree according to the justice of the case, recording the reasons for so doing, and may also order restitution, if the decree shall have been executed, which order may be enforced in the same manner as a decree; but no decree shall be reversed or altered without previously summoning the adverse party to appear and be heard in support of it.

Defendant may pay money into Court in satisfaction of the demand.

XLII. Clause 1.—The defendant, in any action under this Act, may pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, together with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and such sum shall be paid to the plaintiff.

If plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than that paid into Court, he shall be liable to the subsequent costs.

Clause 2.—If the defendant deposit less than the sum claimed, and the plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the plaintiff shall be charged with any costs incurred by the defendant in the suit after such payment.

No interest on deposits.

XLIII. No interest shall be allowed to a plaintiff on any sum paid by the defendant into Court, from the date of such payment, whether such sum be in full of the plaintiff's claim or fall short thereof.

Defendant may set off cross-claim against plaintiff.

XLIV. A defendant may set off against the plaintiff's claim, in any suit under this Act, any demand for which he might have sued the plaintiff in the same Court; but if the demand proposed to be set off exceed the amount cognizable by the Court, the defendant, previously to being allowed to set off the same, shall abandon the excess.

In cases where claims are set off, Court may adjudge any sum due to either party.

XLV. If the defendant in any case claim to set off any demand against the claim of the plaintiff, the Court shall find what amount is due to the plaintiff, and what amount, if any, is due to the defendant, and shall give judgment for the recovery of any sum which, upon such finding, shall appear due to either party.

Effect of judgment in such cases.

XLVI. The judgment of the Court with respect to any demand which a defendant may claim to set off, shall have the same effect as if such sum had been claimed by the defendant in a separate action against the plaintiff.

XLVII. Clause 1.—If a plaintiff have a demand recoverable against two or more persons jointly answerable, he may sue any one or more of such persons without joining the other, and the dismissal of such suit or a decree therein shall bar his claim against the person not joined.

Plaintiff having a joint demand against several persons may sue one or more of them without the others.

Effect of decree in such suit.

Clause 2.—If a plaintiff sue two or more persons jointly answerable, and one or more of such persons cannot be personally served with the summons, judgment may be obtained against any person or persons who shall have been personally served with such summons.

Judgment may be obtained against defendants who have been served with summons, though sued jointly with others who have not been served.

XLVIII. If either party fail to produce his proofs within the time allowed him, or to take out a summons for the attendance of any witness whose attendance he may require to be enforced, the case shall be proceeded with and determined as if such party had declined to produce any proof.

If either party fail to produce his proof, or adopt measures to enforce the attendance of witnesses, the case shall be proceeded with as if he had declined to produce any proof.

XLIX. The Court may, in any case, make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of a suit, and may also from time to time, for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Judge, adjourn the hearing or further hearing of any case, in such manner as to the Court may seem fit, or call on either party for proof on any point which the Court may think necessary for the determination of the case.

Court may grant time for prosecuting claim or defence, and may adjourn the hearing.

L. On the trial of any issues, the substance of the evidence of each witness shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge in the form of a narrative, by, or in the presence and under the personal superintendence of, the Judge.

On trial of issues, evidence to be reduced to writing.

LI The Court shall pronounce judgment in open Court, and all the provisions of Act No XII of 1843 and Act No XXXIII of 1854 shall be applicable thereto

Judgment how to be pronounced

LII. If the decree be for the delivery of personal property, it shall state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had. The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the suit, and by what parties, and in what proportions they are to be paid.

Form of decree.

LIII. Every decree for the payment of money or costs shall contain an order for immediate execution, unless the Court shall see fit to provide for the payment by instalments, with or without interest, of any sum adjudged, or there shall be other good reason to the contrary.

Decree when to contain an order for immediate execution.

LIV. If any person entitled to plead in a Court of the East India Company shall appear on behalf of any party to a suit instituted under this Act, the Court, if it consider the case a fit one for the employment of a pleader, may charge the losing party, as part of the costs of suit, with a sum on account of the pleader's fee not exceeding, in the case of a plaintiff, 3 per centum upon the sum decreed, and in the case of a defendant 5 per centum upon the amount claimed by the plaintiff; but no fee for any pleader or agent shall be charged as part of the costs of suit in any other case.

Pleader's fee when and how to be charged.

Proviso.

LV. In a suit for damages for breach of contract, if it appear that the defendant is able to perform the contract, the Court may, with the consent of the plaintiff, order the specific performance of the contract within a time to be fixed by the Court, and shall award an amount of damages to be paid as an alternative.

In a suit for damages for breach of contract, Court may, with consent of plaintiff, order specific performance.

LVI. If the case be settled by compromise before the defendant is called upon to make his defence, the plaintiff shall be entitled to receive back the entire amount of the stamp duty paid on the plaint.

Refund of stamp duty on plaint in case of compromise before defence.

LVII. If the compromise be such as to require a decree to pass, on which process of execution can be taken out, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to a refund of the stamp duty.

No refund of stamp duty if compromise require a decree on which execution can be taken out.

LVIII. If one or more of several defendants die before judgment, the plaintiff may continue the suit against the survivor or survivors in the same manner as if he or they had been sued alone; provided that a decree in such suit shall be a bar to any proceedings against the representative of the deceased defendant.

Death of one or more of several defendants before judgment not to abate suit.

LIX. If a sole plaintiff die before judgment, the Court, at the instance of his representative, may proceed to judgment in the same manner as if the suit had been commenced by the representative.

Death of sole plaintiff.

LX. If the plaintiff become bankrupt or insolvent before judgment, the Court may proceed to judgment at the instance of the assignee in the name of the plaintiff.

Insolvency of plaintiff.

LXI. No suit instituted under this Act shall be dismissed on the ground of defect of parties, of misjoinder of persons or claims, of improper valuation of a claim, or of any other defect, error, or irregularity, if it shall appear to the Court that such defect of parties, misjoinder, improper valuation, error, defect, or irregularity was not wilful or for the purpose of obtaining any undue advantage, and that an amendment may be made without injustice to any person; and the Court may, for the purpose of correcting any error or defect, direct such amendment to be made as may be necessary, and upon such terms as it may deem proper.

Court may allow amendment of defects, errors, &c., in suits.

LXII. If at the time of a summary inquiry into a plaint under Section XIV. of this Act, or at any subsequent stage of a suit, any question of law, or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document affecting the decision of the case, may arise, on which the Court may entertain reasonable doubts, and which it may be requested by either party to reserve for the opinion of the Sudder Court, the Court may draw up a statement of the case, and submit it with its own opinion for the decision of the Sudder Court.

Court may refer questions of law, &c., to Sudder Court.

Grounds of refusal of Court to refer to Sudder Court on an application of parties, to be noted on the record.

LXIII. If the Court refuse the application of any of the parties to a suit for a reference to the Sudder Court, it shall make a note on the record of the grounds of the application and the reasons for refusal.

Notice of reference to Sudder Court, if made before issue of summons, to be forthwith given to defendant.

LXIV. If such case be stated before the issue of a summons to the defendant, notice of such reference to the Sudder Court (which notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the claim and the question referred) shall forthwith be served on the defendant in the same manner as a summons.

Court may pass decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court, pending which execution not to issue.

LXV. The Court may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the Sudder Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court on the point referred; and no execution shall be issued until the receipt of the order of the Sudder Court.

Full bench of the Sudder Court to decide cases referred under this Act.

LXVI. Cases referred for the opinion of the Sudder Court shall be dealt with by a full bench of that Court.

Sudder Court to fix an early day for the hearing of the case.

Proclamation thereof.

LXVII. The Sudder Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the case, and shall notify the same by a proclamation to be fixed up in the Court House of that Court.

Parties may appear and be heard in person or by pleader.

LXVIII. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the Sudder Court in person or by pleader.

Decision of Sudder Court how to be transmitted.

LXIX. The Sudder Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Register, to the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the Sudder Court.

Costs of reference to Sudder Court.

LXX. Each party shall bear his own costs, if any, consequent on the reference of a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

Process of execution.

LXXI. Process of execution shall be in the form contained in Appendix D or E, or to the like effect, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court. Any moveable property required to be seized under an execution shall be described in a list, to be furnished by the judgment creditor, and shall be pointed out by him or his agent. Process shall not be issued simultaneously against the person and property of a judgment debtor.

On default of payment of an instalment, execution shall issue upon application for full amount unpaid.

LXXII. If the Court shall award payment of any sum of money by instalments, and default be made in payment of any instalment as it falls due, execution shall issue upon the application of the judgment creditor for the full amount of all the instalments remaining unpaid.

Execution not to issue against heir or representative of a deceased party without notice.

LXXIII. Execution on a judgment shall not issue against the heir or other representative of a deceased party, without notice to such heir or other representative to appear and be heard.

Date of process of execution. How long warrant shall continue in force.

LXXIV. Process of execution shall bear date on the day on which it is signed by the Court, and no warrant shall continue in force for a longer period than sixty days calculated from such date.

Second and successive warrants

LXXV. Second and successive warrants of execution may be issued by order of the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, after the expiration of the period above fixed for the continuance in force of a previous warrant. No such warrant shall continue in force for a longer period than sixty days.

Time for issue of warrant.

LXXVI. No warrant of execution shall be issued upon any judgment without notice to the party against whom execution is applied for, unless the application for the issue of the same be made within one year from the date of the judgment or from the date of the last previous application for execution, or, if the judgment be for payment by instalments, from the date of the first default of payment.

Warrant against personal property.

LXXVII. If the judgment of the Court be for the delivery of any personal property to the decree-holder, the Court shall issue a warrant in the form contained in the Appendix F, or to the like effect, directing the Nazir to deliver, or cause to be delivered, the property to such party, or if delivery cannot be had, to levy, at the instance of the plaintiff, the sum awarded as an alternative.

Warrant against the person.

LXXVIII. If a warrant issue for taking in execution the body of any person, the Nazir of the Court shall cause him to be seized, and unless such person shall immediately deposit with the Officer entrusted with the service of the warrant the full amount specified therein, the Nazir shall bring him before the Court; and if such person shall not immediately deposit in Court the full amount specified in the warrant, or furnish good and sufficient security for the payment of the same either in full or by instalments, as the Court may direct, or satisfy the Court that he has done his best to pay the same and has no property or effects from which it can be discharged, the Court shall send him to the Civil Jail, there to remain for such time as shall be directed by the warrant, unless he shall in the meantime pay the full amount specified therein, or furnish such security as aforesaid. Provided that the term to be directed by the warrant shall not exceed three calendar months where the amount decreed, exclusive of costs, does not exceed Fifty Rupees, or six calendar months in any other case.

Form of security by bond for payment of decree by judgment debtor.

LXXIX. The security taken under the preceding Section shall be by bond in the form contained in Appendix G. If default shall happen in the fulfilment of the conditions of the bond, the judgment creditor may, without a fresh action, sue out execution upon such bond under the rules of this Act, in like manner as if a decree had been passed against the surety, his heirs, executors, or administrators upon such bond.

No person to be imprisoned a second time under same judgment, but his property to be liable to attachment.

LXXX. Any person once discharged from Jail shall not be imprisoned a second time under the same judgment, but such discharge shall not extinguish the liability of such person under the decree, or exempt any property liable to attachment in execution of the same.

Diet money to be deposited at the time of issue of warrant.

LXXXI. Any person suing out process of execution against the body of any person under this Act shall deposit with the Nazir of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one month of thirty days, at such rate as the Court may direct, not exceeding two annas per diem, unless the Court, for any special reason, direct the deposit after a higher rate, which shall not exceed four annas per diem.

Payment of diet money in advance during imprisonment.

LXXXII. Payment of diet money at the same rate shall be made previous to the commencement of each succeeding month of the imprisonment, in failure of which the party confined shall be discharged.

Diet money to be costs in suit.

LXXXIII. All diet money spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner shall be added to the costs in the suit, and any diet money not so spent shall be returned to the party who deposited the same.

Court may examine judgment debtor touching his property.

LXXXIV. The Court, at the instance of the judgment creditor, may, at any time after judgment, summon the judgment debtor, and any other person whom it may think necessary, and examine him upon oath or affirmation touching the property of the judgment debtor and his means of satisfying the judgment; and if such judgment debtor, or other person, on such examination, shall wilfully misrepresent any matter on which he may be examined, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and, upon conviction, punished accordingly.

Judgment debtor may deposit money in Court: no interest allowed on such deposits.

LXXXV. A judgment debtor may, at any time, deposit in Court any sum, or any part of any sum, of money which he may have been adjudged to pay, and the sum so deposited shall be paid over to the party entitled to receive the same; and no interest shall be allowed to such party upon such deposit from the date on which it was made, whether it be in full of the judgment, or fall short thereof.

Execution when cross-judgments have been obtained.

LXXXVI. When cross-judgments shall have been obtained between two parties, execution shall issue only upon the one which shall be for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum.

Tools and implements of business and seed-grain excepted from execution.

LXXXVII. In executing a writ of execution against the moveable property of a debtor liable under this Act, the Nazir shall except the tools and implements of the trade or business of such debtor and seed intended for the sowing of land cultivated by him.

Custody and sale of moveable property taken in execution.

LXXXVIII. No sale of any moveable property taken in execution shall be made until after the end of six days at least next following the day on which such moveable property may have been so taken, unless such moveable property be of a perishable nature, or upon the request in writing of the party whose property has been taken. Until such sale, the moveable property shall be deposited by the Nazir in some fit place, or it may remain in custody of some fit person approved by the Nazir.

Court to stay sale of moveable property seized if a third party claim any interest therein.

LXXXIX. If, within the period of five days, a third party appear before the Court, and by petition, supported by his oath or affirmation, claim a right or interest in any of the moveable property seized, the Court shall stay the sale of such property.

Court to adjudicate such claims.

XC. The Court shall adjudicate upon such claim, and make such order between the claimant and the plaintiff and defendant in the original suit as shall seem fit.

Mode of disposing of such claims and effect of judgment.

XCI. In trying such claims the Court shall be guided by the rules contained in this Act so far as they may be applicable; and the judgment passed by the Court upon such claim shall have the same effect and be subject to the same rules as a judgment in a summary action instituted under the provisions of this Act.

Third party failing to establish his claim, liable to pay compensation to judgment creditor.

XCII. If such third party shall fail to establish his right to the property seized, the Court, at the time of disposing of the case, may award to the judgment creditor against such third party, as part of the costs, such sum as it may consider sufficient to cover any loss of interest or damage which such judgment creditor may have sustained by reason of the postponement of the sale of such property.

Which of several judgment creditors is entitled to a preferential right to the proceeds of sale.

XCIII. If several judgments be recovered under this Act against the same party, the judgment creditor who first furnishes a list of moveable property to be seized in execution shall have a preferential right to have the whole of his claim satisfied from the proceeds of the sale of such property; but this rule shall not apply to any creditor who shall refuse to maintain his right to bring such property to sale against a third person who may claim the same, nor to any judgment which shall be proved to have been obtained collusively to defraud creditors.

Irregularity in publishing and conducting a sale shall not vitiate the same.

Proviso.

XCIV. No irregularity in publishing or conducting a sale of moveable property under an execution shall vitiate such sale; but this rule shall not be held to deprive any person, who may sustain damage by reason of such irregularity, from recovering such damage by action.

Judgment how to be enforced against land within the general jurisdiction of the Judge of the Court.

XCV. If a judgment creditor be unable to enforce or obtain satisfaction of a judgment by execution against the person or moveable property of the debtor within the jurisdiction of the Court which pronounced the same, the Judge of such Court, if he has a general jurisdiction by virtue of which he has power to issue execution against immoveable property for the satisfaction of decrees, shall, upon the application of the judgment creditor, issue execution against any immoveable property of the defendant, which the plaintiff shall point out within his general jurisdiction, under the same rules and procedure, and subject to the same appeal, as in cases which fall within his general jurisdiction; or the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, shall grant him a copy of the judgment and a certificate of any sum remaining due under it, and on the presentation of the copy and certificate to any other Civil Court of Her Majesty or of the East India Company within the said Territories, such Court shall proceed to enforce such judgment by process either against the person or against the moveable or immoveable property of the debtor, according to its own rules and mode of procedure, under Act No. XXXIII. of 1852. Provided that no such judgment shall be removed into any Court other than a Court of Small Causes for the purpose of enforcing the same against the person or moveable property of a debtor within the local limits of a Court of Small Causes which such Court might levy under a decree of its own. Provided also, that Section I. Act XXIII. of 1840 shall not extend to any writ or process of execution issued out of a Small Cause Court.

Judgment how to be enforced beyond jurisdiction of Court.

Proviso.

Issue and service of process.

XCVI. Every process under this Act shall issue under the seal and signature of the Court, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court, and shall be served or executed by him, or by a single officer of his establishment.

Resistance of process.

XCVII. If any person resists the execution of a process issued under this Act, the Court may, on the statement on oath of the peon or other Officer resisted, summon the offender to answer the charge; and if, after due service of the summons, he fail to attend, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. If the charge be proved, the Court may punish the offender by a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment in the Civil Jail for a period not exceeding thirty days. All orders passed by a Court of Small Causes, under this Section, shall be appealable to the Zillah Judge.

Costs of serving process.

XCVIII. The Judge of each district shall, with the approval of the Sudder Court, prepare a table of the costs of serving process under this Act; and the amount chargeable for every process shall be deposited with the Nazir of the Court previously to the issue thereof, and shall form part of the costs of suit.

Deposit of costs with Nazir.

Judgment to be final, except as provided.

XCIX. Clause 1.—Every order and judgment passed by a Court of Small Causes under this Act shall be final and not open to review or appeal, except as in this Act provided.

Zillah Judge may order the admission of a plaint.

Clause 2.—Upon the application of a plaintiff, the Zillah Judge may order the admission of a plaint improperly rejected.

Court, with sanction of Zillah Judge, may order re hearing of a suit on certain grounds.

Clause 3.—The Small Cause Court, with the sanction of the Zillah Judge, may, upon the application of either party to a suit, order the re-hearing of a suit upon the ground of the discovery of new evidence or matter material to the issue of the case which the petitioner had no knowledge of, or could not produce at the time of trial.

Zillah Judge may set aside decision of court for any of the following reasons.

Clause 4.—The Zillah Judge may, upon the application of either party, set aside a judgment of the Small Cause Court, and make such investigation into the merits of the case, and pass such decision thereon, as to him may seem fit, for any of the following special reasons, namely—

Improper rejection or admission of evidence.

1. The rejection of evidence which ought to have been admitted, or the admission of evidence which ought to have been rejected, if the Judge be of opinion that the admission of the evidence improperly rejected, or the rejection of the evidence improperly admitted, would have been likely to cause a different finding upon any material issue in the case.

Substantial defect in procedure, &c., or misconduct of opposite party or Court.

2. Substantial defect in the procedure or investigation of a case in the Small Cause Court, or misconduct of the opposite party or of the Small Cause Court, from which there may be strong probable grounds for presuming a failure of justice; but no decision of a Small Cause Court shall be reversed or altered, nor shall a re-hearing be directed in any case, upon the ground that the decision of any question of fact is contrary to, or not warranted by, the evidence duly taken in the case.

Upon application of parties, Zillah Judge may state a case involving points of law, &c., for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

C. Upon the application of either of the parties, the Zillah Judge may state a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court, if he shall be of opinion that the decision of the Small Cause Court upon the construction of a document, or upon any point of law or usage having the force of law, affecting the merits of the case, is erroneous; and the Sudder Court, upon the receipt of such case, shall proceed in the manner laid down in Sections LXVII. to LXX of this Act.

Applications to Zillah Judge under the two preceding Sections to be written on stamped paper.

CI. The application under Section XCIX. or C. to the Zillah Judge shall be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for petitions to the Zillah Court, provided that, when such value may be of higher amount than the value of the stamp prescribed for the petition of plaint by Section VIII. of this Act, the application may be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for the petition of plaint, or if no stamp be prescribed for the plaint, the application may be on unstamped paper. Provided also, that, if the application be successful, the value of the stamp, if any, shall be returned to the petitioner.

Proviso.

Applications to Zillah Judge or to Small Cause Court under Section XCIX. or C. when and how to be made.

CII. Any application, either to the Zillah Judge or to the Small Cause Court, under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be presented within thirty days from the date of the decision; and no re-hearing, new trial, or reference to the Sudder Court shall be granted, unless the application be accompanied by a deposit in the Court of the whole amount, if any, decreed against the petitioner, whether absolutely, or as an alternative, except when the amount of the judgment and costs of execution has been paid into Court, or has been levied by process of execution: the amount if deposited in Court, or if levied and not paid over, shall remain in deposit subject to the order of the Court.

Mode of procedure on receipt of such application.

CIII. The Court to which such application is made may interrogate the applicant or his agent, upon oath or solemn affirmation, previously to deciding upon the application; and without summoning the opposite party, reject the petition.

No decision of this Court to be annulled or modified, and no reference to be made to Sudder Court, without notice to opposite party.

CIV. No decision of a Small Cause Court shall be annulled or otherwise altered to the prejudice of the opposite party, nor shall a case be referred to the Sudder Court without notice to such party to enable him to appear and be heard.

Orders upon application under Sections XCIX. and C. to be final.

CV. Every order passed by a Zillah Judge, or by the Small Cause Court, upon an application under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be final and not open to appeal or review.

Nonsuit to be no bar to a new suit on same cause of action.

CVI. A nonsuit shall be no impediment to the institution of a new suit on the same cause of action where the party is not precluded by lapse of time or otherwise under the general law.

Zillah Judge may transfer cases from one Court to another in his Zillah.

CVII. The Zillah Judge may transfer any case pending, in a Small Cause Court within his Zillah to any other, Small Cause Court in the same Zillah, recording his reasons for such transfer.

Local Governments may extend summary jurisdiction of Moonsiffs' Courts to Three Hundred Rupees.

CVIII. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government in any of the said Presidencies to extend the summary jurisdiction of the Moonsiff's Court in any District as a Small Cause Court, under this Act, to an amount not exceeding Three Hundred Rupees.

Local Governments empowered to invest Civil Courts with summary jurisdiction to the extent of Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits of jurisdiction.

CIX. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government in any of the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company to invest any Civil Court of the East India Company now existing, or which may hereafter be established with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, with the summary jurisdiction of a Small Cause Court under this Act, for the adjudication of claims to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits within which such Court shall exercise such summary jurisdiction. Provided that no Court shall be invested with jurisdiction as a Small Cause Court beyond the amount of its ordinary jurisdiction.

Claims exceeding Fifty Rupees may be sued for in a summary action in a Small Cause Court, or otherwise.

CX. Provided that, in claims for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, it shall be at the option of the plaintiff to sue in a summary action in a Small Cause Court or otherwise; but no party having instituted a regular suit, in a case in which he might have sued in a summary action under this Act, shall recover costs in such suit beyond the amount which he might have recovered in a summary action, nor any costs of appeal arising out of such regular suit. The defendant, however, in such case, if the judgment be in his favor, shall be entitled to recover the full costs either of the original suit or of an appeal arising therefrom, as if this Act had not been passed.

Proviso.

Act to have prospective effect only.

CXI. This Act shall not extend to any suit instituted before this Act shall come into operation.

Interpretation Clause.

CXII. The words "Civil Jail" shall include the Civil Jail of the Zillah and any place appointed by the Executive Government for the confinement of prisoners in civil cases by any Court constituted under this Act. The word "Nazir" shall include any officer of a Court authorized to serve or execute its process. Unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number; and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Commencement of Act.

CXIII. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st day of January 1856.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 9th June 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 2nd June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 13th of September next:—

A Bill to Amend Act No. XXVIII. of 1839.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to modify the said Act so far as it relates to the height of buildings within the walls of the Fort of Bombay—

Governor in Council may allow buildings within the Fort of Bombay to be of a greater height than 50 feet.

1. It is hereby enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council, by order in writing to be signed by one of the Secretaries to Government, to allow the erection of any building, which now is or may be hereafter erected within the walls of the Fort of Bombay, of a greater height than 50 feet measured from the surface of the street, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 16th June 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 16th June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 20th of September next:—

A Bill to facilitate the acquisition of Land needed for public purposes in the Presidency of Bombay.

Declaration of Government that land is needed for a public purpose.

I. WHENEVER it shall appear to the Governor of Bombay in Council that any Land is needed for a public purpose, he shall make a declaration to that effect in a Minute of Council, and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the land is needed is a public purpose.

After such declaration possession may be taken, and claims for compensation subsequently determined.

II. When a declaration has been made by the Governor in Council that any land is needed for a public purpose, if there shall be any hinderance to the immediate acquisition of such land by purchase from the parties interested therein, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to order the land to be taken possession of on the part of Government and applied to the purpose for which it is needed, leaving claims for compensation for the land to be determined as hereinafter provided.

Land to be measured and possession to be taken; after which, the property shall be vested in the Government.

III. When such order is passed by the Governor in Council, it shall be sent to the Collector of the district in which the land lies, or to such other Officer as the Governor in Council shall think fit to appoint, to carry it into execution; and the Collector or other Officer so appointed shall cause the land ordered to be taken to be marked out and measured, and possession to be taken thereof on behalf of Government, and the land shall thenceforward be vested absolutely in the Government, free and clear of all other estates, rights, titles, remainders, reversions, limitations, trusts, and interests, and also of all mortgages, liens, or incumbrances whatsoever, of and in the land so taken as aforesaid; and any suit which may be instituted to recover the land so taken by Government in any Court of Judicature, shall be dismissed with costs. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of the party who may receive the value of any land so taken by Government without having a good title to the same.

Proviso.

Publication of order in Council and citation to parties interested to appear.

IV. As soon as the land has been marked out, the Collector, or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, shall cause the order in Council to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land, and published by proclamation in the neighbouring bazars and villages, with a citation calling on all parties interested in the land to appear before him in person, or by authorized agents, on a certain day, not less than fifteen days after the date of citation, and to state the nature of their interests in the land required, and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for the same.

Collector to admit claims appearing to be valid, and if compensation be agreed upon to make award for the amount.

V. It shall be competent to the said Collector, or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, to admit any such claims that appear to him to be valid, and if he and all the parties interested in the land agree as to the compensation to be allowed to them respectively, to pass an award for the same.

Arbitrators to be appointed if claims or amount of compensation are not admitted.

VI. If the said Collector or Officer shall judge any of the claims preferred to be inadmissible, and the parties interested in the land or any of them shall nevertheless persist in such claims, or if the said Collector or Officer, admitting the interests claimed, shall object to the compensation demanded for the same as excessive, the points in dispute shall be referred to the determination of arbitrators, to be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Nomination of arbitrators.

VII. Two persons shall be chosen to act as arbitrators on the part of Government by the Collector or other Officer duly appointed as aforesaid, and the party or parties claiming to be interested in the land taken shall be called upon by the said Collector or Officer to elect, within fifteen days, two persons to act as arbitrators on his or their part. If there be several parties interested as aforesaid, and they cannot agree within the required period in the election of persons to act as arbitrators on their behalf, then and in that case each of them shall nominate one person whom he may desire to act on his behalf, and the said Collector or Officer shall choose by lot, out of the persons so nominated by the parties aforesaid, or by any of them, two persons to act as arbitrators on behalf of the parties interested in the land. If only two persons shall be so nominated by the parties interested in the land, they shall be the arbitrators on behalf of such parties, whether the whole of the parties interested as aforesaid may or may not have been concerned in their nomination. If only one person shall be so nominated, then only one of the persons selected to act as arbitrators on the part of Government shall be employed on the duty. If the parties interested in the land shall refuse or neglect, or if, by reason of minority, lunacy, or absence from the Presidency, they shall be unable to make any nomination within the required period, then the said Collector or Officer shall and may select two impartial persons to arbitrate the matter between Government and the parties interested in the land.

Appointment of umpire.

VIII. Before the arbitrators proceed to arbitrate, they shall be required by the said Collector or Officer to appoint an umpire for the decision of any points whereon they may differ in opinion, when the voices on each side shall be equal. If the arbitrators cannot agree in the selection of an umpire, the said Collector or Officer shall be authorized to choose some person to act as such.

Decision of umpire, &c.

IX. In cases wherein the arbitrators may differ in opinion, if the voices on each side shall be equal, the decision of the umpire on the point of difference shall be conclusive; in all other cases the opinion of the majority of arbitrators shall determine the award.

Arbitrators' enquiry to be under superintendence of Collector.

X. The arbitrators shall hold their enquiry under the general superintendence of the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, who shall be competent to exercise towards them such powers and authority for the purpose of securing their attendance and the due completion of their award as the Courts of Judicature may legally exercise towards persons summoned as witnesses before them, for the purpose of compelling such witnesses to attend and give evidence. It shall further be competent to the Officer presiding, in the event of any unnecessary delay on the part of the arbitrators in determining any question referred to them, to call upon them to make their award within a specified time, and in default thereof, to refer such question to the umpire for his decision.

XI. The said Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid shall, on the application of the arbitrators, summon any witnesses whom the arbitrators may call for and whom the parties may not be able to produce before them without such process. He shall also cause the proper forms of affirmation to be executed by any witnesses whom the arbitrators may desire to examine upon affirmation, or he may empower the arbitrators to administer or cause the execution of such affirmation, if the witnesses cannot with convenience attend before him. Any witness who shall refuse or omit to appear when duly summoned by such Collector or Officer, or who shall appear but shall refuse to execute the affirmation to be administered as aforesaid, or who shall refuse to give evidence, shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence before a Court of Justice. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition, under a solemn affirmation, in any case referred to arbitration as above, and upon a point material to the issue thereof, shall be held to be guilty of perjury and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law. and any person causing or procuring another person to commit the offence of perjury, as above described, shall be guilty of subornation of perjury and punishable according to law.

Summoning witnesses.

Penalty for non-attendance or for false swearing.

XII. It shall also be competent to the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid to call upon the parties interested in the land so taken as aforesaid, to appear and produce any accounts, title deeds, or other documents which may be required by the arbitrators for the purposes of their enquiry, and in the event of such persons neglecting or refusing to produce such accounts, title deeds, or documents, and the fact of their existence being proved by information given upon solemn affirmation, such persons shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence in a Court of Justice.

Production of title deeds, &c.

XIII. The arbitrators shall take into consideration the statements of the parties interested in the said land, and the objections of the Collector or other Officer aforesaid on behalf of Government, and after examining the evidence offered on both sides, and making any further enquiry that may appear to them necessary, shall pass their award allowing or disallowing the interests claimed, provided such interest is not the subject of enquiry under Act XI. of 1852; and determining the total amount of compensation to be given for the interests allowed, the mode in which it is to be given, and if to be given to more than one party, the shares of total compensation which each party shall be entitled to receive.

Award of arbitrators

XIV. The award of the arbitrators, or of the umpire, if he shall be called upon to make an award, shall be binding and conclusive both upon the Government and the parties interested in the land, as respects the gross amount of the compensation to be paid by Government, unless the award shall be set aside by the Civil Court of the zillah upon a charge of corruption against the arbitrators or the umpire, as the case may be, brought by either party and proved, after due investigation, to the satisfaction of such Court; in which case the matter shall be referred for the determination of a second set of arbitrators, to be chosen in the same manner as the first, and their decision, whatever it may be, shall be final. No petition to set aside an award made under this Act shall be received by the Civil Court of the zillah unless it be presented within thirty days from the date of the award complained of; and the said petition shall be presented on stamped paper of the value used for miscellaneous petitions, and shall be accompanied with a copy of the award objected to. The award of the arbitrators or umpire shall also be binding as respects the shares to be paid to the several parties interested in the land, unless upon a suit instituted within thirty days from the date of the award, in a competent Court, by any of the parties concerned, to alter the apportionment made by such award, an injunction shall be issued to suspend the payment until a decree is passed in the case.

Award conclusive as to amount of compensation unless fraudulent.

Proceedings to set aside award.

Award when binding as to shares of persons interested.

XV. If any question arises as to the previous possession of or title to any land taken by Government under this Act, or if the parties or any of them interested in the land are minors, lunatics, or absent as aforesaid, and are not represented by their guardian, committee, attorney, or other person authorized in that behalf, or if there exist other grounds which, in the judgment of the arbitrators, render it improper to make immediate payment of the compensation awarded by them, or of any part thereof, to any of the parties interested in such land, the said arbitrators shall certify the same to the said Collector or Officer under whose directions they may act, and in such case, or if for any such reason, or any such ground as aforesaid, the said Collector or other Officer shall deem immediate payment improper, then the amount of compensation payable shall be held in deposit by Government until the parties interested in the said land or some of them shall obtain an order of a competent Court for the payment of the same and interest (if any) to them. All sums held in deposit as aforesaid shall bear interest at the lowest rate of any Government securities which may then be procurable.

In certain cases compensation money to be held in deposit until order for payment is made by a competent Court.

XVI. On the close of the enquiry, the arbitrators or umpire shall deliver to the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, a full and complete report and award upon the questions submitted to their arbitration, under their respective signatures, specifying the amount of compensation to be granted, and (except where, under Section XV., it may appear proper to suspend payment,) the parties to whom it is to be made, and the proportions to be paid to each respectively, with a solemn declaration subscribed thereto that the award so given is, to the best of their judgment, true and impartial, and according to the evidence adduced before them, and they shall at the same time deposit with the said Collector or Officer the whole of their proceedings.

Arbitrators to deliver to Collector their report and other proceedings.

No suits to be instituted against Government to obtain compensation.

XVII. All suits and proceedings instituted against Government to obtain compensation for land taken as aforesaid, other than such petitions to set aside awards as aforesaid, shall be dismissed with costs; but nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any party to recover the value of any land taken by Government from any person who may have received the same without having any title thereto.

Right to recover purchase-money from person who has received it without title, not to be affected.

Proclamation and proceedings in case land is bought by agreement from persons apparently interested.

XVIII. In the case of land declared by a minute of the Governor in Council to be needed for a public purpose being acquired by the Government by bargain with and purchase from the parties apparently interested therein, the Collector or Officer appointed by Government to receive possession of the same shall cause proclamation to be made, in the manner prescribed in the 4th Section of this Act, of the transfer of the land to Government by the said parties, and requiring all other persons who may claim any right, title, or interest in such land, to prefer their claims within one calendar month after such proclamation made; and any claims that may be preferred shall be dealt with under Section V. or under Section VI. and the following Sections of this Act. Provided always, that, if no claims shall be made within one calendar month after such proclamation as aforesaid, the said land shall vest absolutely in the Government free and clear of all other estates, rights, titles, remainders, reversions, limitations, trusts, interests, mortgages, liens, or incumbrances whatsoever of and in the said land so purchased; and any suit to recover the land so purchased by Government, or to obtain from Government compensation for the loss thereof, which may be preferred in any Court of Judicature, shall be dismissed with costs. But nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of the party who may receive the value of any land purchased by Government without having a good title to the same.

Proviso.

Expense of arbitration.

XIX. In cases referred to arbitration under the provisions of this Act, any necessary expense which may attend the enquiry of the arbitration, whether for the diet of witnesses or otherwise, shall be paid by Government.

Right to enter upon land required for a public purpose.

XX. Persons employed in any public work, or in any purpose which has been declared, under the authority of this Act, to be a public purpose, their servants and workmen, may, after due notice to the occupier, enter upon any land in order to survey the same or to mark and set out the line of work in contemplation, and may mark the intended line by cutting a trench or placing land-marks along the same and may, with the sanction of Government or of any Officer appointed by Government to exercise supervision over the work, cut down and clear away any part of any jungle or tree or tope of trees in the direction of the survey or the intended line. Provided that no person shall enter the curtilage of any house under colour of this Act without the consent of the occupier, unless between sunrise and sunset and after due notice given to such occupier.

Temporary occupation of adjacent land.

XXI. The powers of this Act shall also extend to authorize, in all cases within the Act, the temporary occupation of any land not more than 100 yards from the centre line of the line of work in contemplation, the taking earth and other materials, the depositing thereon superfluous earth or other materials, the erection of temporary buildings and workshops thereon, or the occupation of any land which may be needed for making temporary roads or approaches from any public road to an intended line of Railway; and for any damage done under the powers conferred in this and the preceding Sections, including the full value of all clay, gravel, soil, and other materials taken thence, compensation shall be paid to and among all persons having an interest therein, to be ascertained, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as compensation for land permanently taken under this Act.

Penalty for wilful obstruction of person exercising powers of this Act.

XXII. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of the authority conferred in the 3rd and 4th Sections of this Act shall be liable to be imprisoned by the Magistrate of the district for any term not exceeding six months and to be fined any amount not exceeding rupees 200.

Land taken for a public purpose otherwise than according to this Act to vest in Government after 5 years' non-claim.

XXIII. In every case in which any land has been or shall be taken by the Government for any work of public utility otherwise than according to the provisions of this Act, such land, after the lapse of five years without any claim preferred for the recovery thereof in any competent Court, shall vest absolutely in the East India Company, freed and discharged from all other claims thereunto.

Computation of term of 5 years.

XXIV. The said term of five years shall be reckoned from the date of this Act in the case of land heretofore taken, and in case of land hereafter taken from the time of taking possession thereof.

Compensation to be paid to person establishing his right in such case.

XXV. If within the said term of five years any suit is begun upon which judgment shall be finally obtained establishing the right of the Plaintiff to any interest in any such land, then, in lieu and in place of such interest in the said land, there shall be paid to the person obtaining such judgment the value of his interest in the said land at the time when possession thereof was taken with interest thereon at the usual and lawful rate, to be ascertained and settled by the Civil Court in awarding judgment in the suit.

Construction of word "land" as used in this Act.

XXVI. The word "land" as used in this Act shall include the buildings, trees, and wells thereon, the revenue thereof, and all rights and privileges lawfully enjoyed thereon or therefrom

XXVII. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something either in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, (that is to say)—words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular: words importing the masculine gender only shall include females: the expression "party or parties interested in the land," shall be understood to mean all parties interested in the land either for life or for years, or in remainder, reversion, or succession, and all trustees, cestui que trusts, mortgagees, incumbrancers, lease-holders, or tenants, not being tenants by the month or at will of such land.

Interpretation.

XXVIII. This Act shall not be held to extend to land within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court.

Act not to extend to land within local jurisdiction of Supreme Court.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

FORT WILLIAM,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,
The 8th June 1855.

THE following Rules for the grant of Leave of Absence for regulating Deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances, and for limiting the period of Service of Civil Servants, are published for general information, and will take effect in all the Presidencies and Settlements under the Government of India from the date of the publication of this Notification, in supersession of the Rules of the 17th May 1843 and the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER I.

RULES FOR APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Section I. No Leave of Absence from any Office or Station can be granted, but by the Government under which the employment is held, and on the application of the party requiring such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially excepted. The application must be made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

NOTE.—This Rule must be considered as superseding the Rule under which Commissioners of the Land Revenue and other Officers have heretofore been allowed to grant Leave of Absence in Bengal.

Section II. The official allowances of the holder of a Civil Office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the date of his quitting until his return, or, in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave, to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Section III. No Leave of Absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by Medical Certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE.

Section IV. Upon application duly made, the Government may grant Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V. When an application for Leave of Absence is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a Certificate and a Statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed, as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere, as laid down in Section IV.; and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtaining leave, the Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, on their being satisfied, on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery. Should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the Presidency, the Certificate must, in the first instance, be counter-signed by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, and afterwards submitted with the statement of the case for the consideration and counter-signature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The Certificate shall be given in the following form:—

I, A. B., Surgeon at or of ——— do hereby certify that E F., of the Civil Service, is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to Sea, (or to such place as the Surgeon may think proper, expressing it in the Certificate.)

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon, in counter-signing the Surgeon's Certificate:—

We (or I) do hereby certify, that, according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we (or I) consider the state of health of E. F., to be such as to render Leave of Absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited; and such Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division, in which the applicant may be located, as the case may be, on perusal of the statement. In like manner, if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the Certificate to be counter-signed by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the applicant is in England, or if not in England by the principal Medical authority of the Colony or Country to which the Absentee may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such counter-signature if the Certificate be not so counter-signed. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon, before counter-signing a Certificate as above-mentioned, must either personally examine the applicant or state some sufficient reason why they, or he, have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI. The following conditions will in future attach to Leaves of Absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical Certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health:—

1*st*,—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided, shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section and in Section VII. of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion.

2*ndly*,—The office of the absentee will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the Presidency, from the date of his arrival thereat to the date of his quitting the Sanitarium; if to any place beyond the Presidency, but within the Continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own Presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to Sea, from the date of the sailing of the Vessel on which he may have embarked from any Port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency, to the date of his arrival at any Port within the Presidency to which he belongs, or at any other Port which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency.

3*rdly*,—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary, and the same will be paid to him during such period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10,000 (£1,000) per annum, during that period. In cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted.

4*thly*,—For the interval elapsing between departure from Station to the commencement of reckoning absence or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station, the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months or three months according to the distance to be travelled as prescribed in Section XX. of these Rules, and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause 3 of this Section.

5*thly*,—If the absentee shall apply under Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary after examination by their Medical Officer in England, that he should do so; the leave which may have been granted in India will, under the orders of the Honorable Court, be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain Office, and half salary within the limits enjoined, during such extension.

6*thly*,—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 5, he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment, but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, or of £250 if not above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole. At the expiration of that term, all allowance must cease until he reports his return to his Presidency.

Section VII. If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on Sick Leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months at one time, at whatever period of his service such Sick Leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for Leave of Absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may, on special grounds, grant Leave of Absence for one further period not exceeding six months, during which the absentee may retain his office, and half his salary under the limits above enjoined.

Section VIII. If a Civil Servant, after fifteen years' service, shall be compelled by ill health to apply for further Leave of Absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it, but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary; the Government of India and the subordinate Governments will however, respectively, exercise a discretionary power to grant, in such last-mentioned cases, a sick absentee allowance, not exceeding Rupees 5,000 or £500 per annum, for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX. A Civil Servant who has taken Sick Leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843, will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above Rules, with the privilege of retaining Office, provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843.

Section X. None of the above-mentioned Rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each Member may, however, with the special sanction of the Government, be permitted to be absent, under Medical Certificate, for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary, which shall be paid to him during such absence, but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Section XI. Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above Rules, will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XII. The Government may grant to Civil Servants Leave of Absence to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which they may resort for one month in each year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such Servants—such leave, however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave; but Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year, may obtain, under the like conditions, Leave of Absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may, in like manner, be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave; but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this Rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave, and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant.

Civil Servants absent from their Stations under Medical Certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this Rule in continuation of their Sick Leave; and if, while absent under this Rule, they be granted extended leave under Medical Certificate, they shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate for the whole period of their absence.

Civil Servants who have been absent on Medical Certificate during any portion of a calendar year are not entitled to leave under this Rule during that year; but in determining the interval necessary to entitle a person to leave under this Rule, no reference will be made to any intermediate Leave of Absence that may have been granted under Section XIV. Clause I.

Section XIII. As a general Rule, when leave is granted under Section XII., such leave will be in one period only, whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions to complete one month within the year, and the term year shall be held to mean the calendar year, commencing with the 1st of January and ending with the 31st of December, but as an exception to this Rule, it shall be discretional with the several Local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction Leave of Absence under this Rule to such parties as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in instalments, not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year, on the understanding that no leave can be granted for any fresh calendar year until the completion of three months from the expiration of the entire leave or of the last instalment of leave taken in the past calendar year.

Section XIV., Clause I. The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant to a Civil Servant special Leave of Absence on Private Affairs for six months, to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort, provided, however, that if any Officer to whom such leave shall be granted shall be absent from his Station for any period exceeding that to which he may be entitled without deduction, under Section XII., the absentee shall, for the period in excess, draw no more than one-half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months (exclusive of any period which may be granted under Section XII.) any Office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

Clause II. The Leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto, and a second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause III. It will be understood that leave under this Section is not to be granted as a matter of course to every applicant, but that it will be the duty of the Government to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

CHAPTER IV.

FURLOUGHS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XV. In the place of the period of three years (in one term,) for which Furlough has hitherto been granted, Civil Servants will be allowed the option of taking a Furlough of three years as at present, or of dividing the Furlough into three periods of one year each, to be taken after successive periods of seven years service, or into two periods, which may either be of one or two years respectively, or of eighteen months each; provided that, in every case, the Civil Servant shall declare, on taking his Furlough, whether he intends it to be for twelve, eighteen, twenty-four or thirty-six months, in order that the Government may make its arrangements accordingly. In case of a division, into two periods, the first Furlough must be taken after a residence of not less than ten years, and the second Furlough after a further residence in India of ten years from the date of return from the first Furlough; but Civil Servants returning on Furlough to Europe will continue, as at present, to vacate their offices.

Section XVI. The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever, be permitted for any longer period than three years.

Section XVII. Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under Medical Certificate, before completing seven years' residence in India, will be entitled to receive during their Furlough on Private Affairs, taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum, for three years.

Section XVIII. Clause I. In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years, will count as service in India in the twenty-five years entitling to the annuity, the present qualification of twenty-two years' residence being retained.

Clause II. Absence on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as Service and residence in India, and be so computed in addition to the three years of absence which under the Clause next preceding are allowed to be reckoned as Indian Service. All periods of short Leave of Absence on Private Affairs taken under Sections XII. and XIV. of these Rules will also count as service and residence.

Section XIX. Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Orders No. 1150 dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of Leave of Absence and Furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

CHAPTER V.

RULES FOR JOINING STATIONS.

Section XX. There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new Office the periods of one month, two months, or three months for joining, accordingly as the distance may not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last-mentioned distance. Officers not joining their Station within the said periods, respectively, shall forfeit their salary for the time delayed in excess of the above periods, and if such excess shall exceed one month, the office shall be vacated, unless otherwise specially ordered by Government.

NOTE.—The time allowed for joining is computed from the date of the Order reaching the Officer appointed.

Section XXI Upon the first appointment of any Civil Servant, who shall be reported qualified for Public Service by the Examiners appointed by the Government, to any Civil Station, there shall be allowed for travelling expenses to the Station, an allowance at the rate of 8 annas per mile by the direct Post Road, according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the Bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after the Officer shall have joined the Station: if required in advance, an order of the Government shall be necessary.

Section XXII. The salary of office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in case of Junior Civil Servants, the salary of Assistants will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the Public Service unless forfeited under the preceding Rule, through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

Section XXIII. In case of a change of office, when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No. XX., regulating the time and distance for joining Station, shall be applicable, and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that Rule respectively, draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join, a sum equal to that of his previous situation.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES FOR DEPUTATION ALLOWANCES.

Section XXIV. The sum of Company's Rupees 32,200 per annum having been fixed, under the orders of the Court of Directors, as the maximum salary of Civil Office for the offices of Government under the situation of Member of Council, Civil Servants who may draw larger allowances than this annual sum, as a consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance, in consideration of the necessary expenses of their position, will, in all cases of absence, be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the allowance thus limited, and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position; provided however, that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854, the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary, under the Government Resolution, No. 563, of that date.

NOTE.—This Rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

Section XXV. Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:—

To Civil Servants not holding any substantive appointment, at the rate of 50 per cent. on the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, such Deputation Allowance being in addition to the Subsistence Allowance of their respective ranks.

To Civil Servants holding an office of inferior emolument, when officiating in an office of superior emolument, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon Company's Rupees 2,000, and of 10 per cent. on the amount in which the monthly salary may exceed Company's Rupees 2,000, provided however that no lower rate of Deputation Allowance shall be given than Rupees 200 per mensem.

The Deputation Allowance shall in all cases be in addition to the salary of the substantive appointment held by the Officer on deputation.

The above rates are granted provisionally, subject to future revision.

In the Punjab, Nagpore and other places, where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances, payable at the above rates, will be calculated, not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating, but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointment may belong.

A Civil Servant acting for another shall have no claim to Commission or Fees, where any such sources of emolument exist. These shall be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved, subject to the prescribed deductions.

A Civil Servant acting in an appointment, the salary of which is to be reduced on the retirement of the present incumbent, will draw Deputation Allowance on the reduced salary.

An Officer officiating in more than one appointment will be entitled to Deputation Allowance, regulated by the aggregate amount of the salary of the offices.

An Officer appointed permanently to a higher situation, but prevented from joining his appointment by an order of Government, and detained to officiate in a situation of still higher emolument than the one to which he has been permanently appointed, will be entitled to a Deputation Allowance in addition to the higher salary to which he has been promoted.

Section XXVI. No Civil Servant, temporarily officiating for another, shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance, according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another, shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance, unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

Section XXVII. No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same office or establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month, and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrear. But a servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to Deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

Section XXVIII Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed, or if ordered by Government on special duty, shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

CHAPTER VII.

RULES FOR LIMITING THE PERIOD OF SERVICE.

Section XXIX. After thirty-five years' service no Civil Servant shall be appointed to any new office, nor be permitted to retain an office which he has held for a period of five years and upwards, except in special cases, which are to be referred for the decision of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors. This Rule will be applicable to every Civil Servant appointed to office after its promulgation, and to the case of every other Civil Servant to whom it relates at the close of five years from the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO LAW OFFICERS.

Section XXX. The East India Company's Law Officers may obtain Sick Leave and Short Leave on Private Affairs under the conditions prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, both as respects the periods of absence and the limitation of allowances during such absence. Leave will however only be granted at the convenience of the Government, and no additional expense will on any consideration be incurred by the Government on account thereof.

If any Law Officer shall quit his duty, save on leave under Medical Certificate or on Short Leave on Private Affairs, he will be considered to have vacated his appointment.

CHAPTER IX.

RULES FOR CHAPLAINS AND ASSISTANT CHAPLAINS.

Section XXXI. Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may take Furlough on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate, also privilege leave and leave for short periods on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate in or out of India, on the same terms and conditions as Military Officers, with the following modifications:—

1*st.*—Chaplains being allowed to retire after twenty years' service, the period of Furlough on Private Affairs, is in their case limited to the present term of three years. The Furlough may however either be taken in one period, or be divided into two periods, whether of eighteen months each, or of two years and one year, respectively, and if divided, the first Furlough may be taken, as at present, after seven years' residence, and the second Furlough after a further residence, of ten years in India. As respects Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains appointed before the 11th January 1854, when the period of Service was only eighteen years, their second Furlough, if they should exercise the option of taking Furlough in two periods, will be available after a second residence in India for a term of eight years.

2*ndly.*—No Furlough or Leave of Absence, whether on Private Affairs or on Sick Certificate, taken in Europe or elsewhere out of India, in excess of three years, will be allowed to count as Service in India in the twenty years which qualifies Chaplains for their Retiring Pensions.

Section XXXII. The Furlough Pay of Chaplains will remain as at present. With regard to their allowance during Sick Leave to any place out of India, they shall receive salary (but at a rate not exceeding £600 per annum) for the first six months of absence, and, for the remaining twelve months, an allowance equal to the Furlough Pay of their standing. If the leave be extended, an allowance equal to Furlough Pay may be drawn for a further period of eighteen months.

No. 1381.

Notification.

THE Most Noble the Governor General in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 4th September 1854, having decided that the practice of this Office, with reference to the salaries of Uncovenanted Officers when transferred from one District to another, in charging salaries only from the date of their joining their new appointments, and not from the date of their relief from their old posts, is wrong, all Officers having to submit Pay Bills are hereby required to take special notice of this decision. The following instructions are given for their information and guidance:—

When an Uncovenanted Officer quits a post for one in another District, to which a higher salary is attached, the controlling Officer of the new District shall draw the salary for the time between the quitting of the old Office and the joining of the new one, at the rate of the salary appertaining to the old Office; but not for the full salary of the new appointment, until the Officer transferred shall have actually joined his new Office, when he shall draw for the full amount of his new salary.

Price One Rupee.

[The work will extend to about 100 (or more) closely printed octavo pages. There will be a few lithographic drawings illustrating the Language of Flowers, and an Appendix of Practical Instructions and useful information respecting the Anglo-Indian Flower Garden.]

The above work is founded on an article first published in the Calcutta Literary Gazette, but the text has been since so greatly enlarged, and so copiously illustrated with additional quotations from the British Poets that it may be regarded as a new work. As only a comparatively small number of copies will be printed, subscribers are requested to send in their names without delay to the publishers, Messrs. P. S. DeRozario and Co., Tank Square, Calcutta.

LOST or MISLAID.—A Certificate, No. 2091, for one Share in the Capital Stock of the Bank of Bengal, standing in the names of Lieutenant-Colonel John Welchman, Captain R. A. Ramsay, and J. L. Russell, Esq., since deceased.

Any person giving information regarding the above Certificate to Messrs. Lyons and Bell, Attornies at Law, Esplanade Row, Calcutta, will be rewarded if required.

Notice.

Is hereby given that the Government Bullock Train will cease to run above Kurnaul after the 15th instant, owing to the road being still impracticable for the successful management of that establishment during the rainy season.

From the above date, all Packages for stations above Kurnaul will, as heretofore, be conveyed in country carts, with every possible degree of care, but there can be no guarantee against possible damage from wet, as many Rivers and Nullahs without bridges have to be crossed.

The Bullock Train between Lahore and Mooltan will probably be maintained throughout the rainy season.

Notice.

COMPLAINTS having been made of Steam or British Postage, although paid on letters from India, having been levied in England, on the plea that Indian Postage Stamps are not recognised there, the Post-master General, N. W. P., begs to notify, that all letters on which Steam or British Postage is paid, in addition to Inland or Indian Postage, are stamped with the words "India Paid" in red ink, and that this mark is recognised by the Post Office authorities in England as proof of pre-payment of Steam Postage.

Parties who pay Steam Postage on their letters should note on them Steam or British Postage pre-paid to England, and as Overland letters are now received on the latest safe dates by a Writer at the Post Office Window, the Postage Stamps will then and there be obliterated and the words "India Paid" stamped in red ink.

Those who pre-pay their letters to England are recommended to give the information above to their correspondents, so that if Steam Postage be demanded from them, they may protest and appeal to Her Majesty's Post-masters General for redress.

THE 2ND FEBRUARY 1855 The Government of Bengal having entered into a Contract with Messrs Samuel Smith and Co., for the execution of the Government Printing Work, all Public Officers under the Government of India at the Presidency are hereby directed not to employ any other Printing Establishment for the execution of Government Work.

CECIL BEADON,
Secy. to the Govt. of India

SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 16th June 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 16th June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 20th of September next:—

A Bill to facilitate the acquisition of Land needed for public purposes in the Presidency of Bombay.

I. WHENEVER it shall appear to the Governor of Bombay in Council that any Land is needed for a public purpose, he shall make a declaration to that effect in a Minute of Council, and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the land is needed is a public purpose.

Declaration of Government that land is needed for a public purpose.

II. When a declaration has been made by the Governor in Council that any land is needed for a public purpose, if there shall be any hinderance to the immediate acquisition of such land by purchase from the parties interested therein, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to order the land to be taken possession of on the part of Government and applied to the purpose for which it is needed, leaving claims for compensation for the land to be determined as hereinafter provided.

After such declaration possession may be taken, and claims for compensation subsequently determined.

III. When such order is passed by the Governor in Council, it shall be sent to the Collector of the district in which the land lies, or to such other Officer as the Governor in Council shall think fit to appoint, to carry it into execution; and the Collector or other Officer so appointed shall cause the land ordered to be taken to be marked out and measured, and possession to be taken thereof on behalf of Government, and the land shall thenceforward be vested absolutely in the Government, free and clear of all other estates, rights, titles, remainders, reversions, limitations, trusts, and interests, and also of all mortgages, liens, or incumbrances whatsoever, of and in the land so taken as aforesaid; and any suit which may be instituted to recover the land so taken by Government in any Court of Judicature, shall be dismissed with costs. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of the party who may receive the value of any land so taken by Government without having a good title to the same.

Land to be measured and possession to be taken; after which, the property shall be vested in the Government.

Proviso.

IV. As soon as the land has been marked out, the Collector, or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, shall cause the order in Council to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land, and published by proclamation in the neighbouring bazars and villages, with a citation calling on all parties interested in the land to appear before him in person, or by authorized agents, on a certain day, not less than fifteen days after the date of citation, and to state the nature of their interests in the land required, and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for the same.

Publication of order in Council and citation to parties interested to appear.

V. It shall be competent to the said Collector, or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, to admit any such claims that appear to him to be valid, and if he and all the parties interested in the land agree as to the compensation to be allowed to them respectively, to pass an award for the same.

Collector to admit claims appearing to be valid, and if compensation be agreed upon to make award for the amount.

Arbitrators to be appointed if claims or amount of compensation are not admitted.

VI. If the said Collector or Officer shall judge any of the claims preferred to be inadmissible, and the parties interested in the land or any of them shall nevertheless persist in such claims, or if the said Collector or Officer, admitting the interests claimed, shall object to the compensation demanded for the same as excessive, the points in dispute shall be referred to the determination of arbitrators, to be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Nomination of arbitrators.

VII. Two persons shall be chosen to act as arbitrators on the part of Government by the Collector or other Officer duly appointed as aforesaid, and the party or parties claiming to be interested in the land taken shall be called upon by the said Collector or Officer to elect, within fifteen days, two persons to act as arbitrators on his or their part. If there be several parties interested as aforesaid, and they cannot agree within the required period in the election of persons to act as arbitrators on their behalf, then and in that case each of them shall nominate one person whom he may desire to act on his behalf, and the said Collector or Officer shall choose by lot, out of the persons so nominated by the parties aforesaid, or by any of them, two persons to act as arbitrators on behalf of the parties interested in the land. If only two persons shall be so nominated by the parties interested in the land, they shall be the arbitrators on behalf of such parties, whether the whole of the parties interested as aforesaid may or may not have been concerned in their nomination. If only one person shall be so nominated, then only one of the persons selected to act as arbitrators on the part of Government shall be employed on the duty. If the parties interested in the land shall refuse or neglect, or if, by reason of minority, lunacy, or absence from the Presidency, they shall be unable to make any nomination within the required period, then the said Collector or Officer shall and may select two impartial persons to arbitrate the matter between Government and the parties interested in the land.

Appointment of umpire.

VIII. Before the arbitrators proceed to arbitrate, they shall be required by the said Collector or Officer to appoint an umpire for the decision of any points whereon they may differ in opinion, when the voices on each side shall be equal. If the arbitrators cannot agree in the selection of an umpire, the said Collector or Officer shall be authorized to choose some person to act as such.

Decision of umpire, &c.

IX. In cases wherein the arbitrators may differ in opinion, if the voices on each side shall be equal, the decision of the umpire on the point of difference shall be conclusive; in all other cases the opinion of the majority of arbitrators shall determine the award.

Arbitrators' enquiry to be under superintendence of Collector.

X. The arbitrators shall hold their enquiry under the general superintendence of the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, who shall be competent to exercise towards them such powers and authority for the purpose of securing their attendance and the due completion of their award as the Courts of Judicature may legally exercise towards persons summoned as witnesses before them, for the purpose of compelling such witnesses to attend and give evidence. It shall further be competent to the Officer presiding, in the event of any unnecessary delay on the part of the arbitrators in determining any question referred to them, to call upon them to make their award within a specified time, and in default thereof, to refer such question to the umpire for his decision.

Summoning witnesses.

XI. The said Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid shall, on the application of the arbitrators, summon any witnesses whom the arbitrators may call for and whom the parties may not be able to produce before them without such process. He shall also cause the proper forms of affirmation to be executed by any witnesses whom the arbitrators may desire to examine upon affirmation, or he may empower the arbitrators to administer or cause the execution of such affirmation, if the witnesses cannot with convenience attend before him. Any witness who shall refuse or omit to appear when duly summoned by such Collector or Officer, or who shall appear but shall refuse to execute the affirmation to be administered as aforesaid, or who shall refuse to give evidence, shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence before a Court of Justice. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition, under a solemn affirmation, in any case referred to arbitration as above, and upon a point material to the issue thereof, shall be held to be guilty of perjury and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law: and any person causing or procuring another person to commit the offence of perjury, as above described, shall be guilty of subornation of perjury and punishable according to law.

Penalty for non-attendance or for false swearing.

Production of title deeds, &c.

XII. It shall also be competent to the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid to call upon the parties interested in the land so taken as aforesaid, to appear and produce any accounts, title deeds, or other documents which may be required by the arbitrators for the purposes of their enquiry, and in the event of such persons neglecting or refusing to produce such accounts, title deeds, or documents, and the fact of their existence being proved by information given upon solemn affirmation, such persons shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence in a Court of Justice.

Award of arbitrators.

XIII. The arbitrators shall take into consideration the statements of the parties interested in the said land, and the objections of the Collector or other Officer aforesaid on behalf of Government, and after examining the evidence offered on both sides, and making any further enquiry that may appear to them necessary, shall pass their award allowing or disallowing the interests claimed, provided such interest is not the subject of enquiry under Act XI. of 1852; and determining the total amount of compensation to be given for the interests allowed, the mode in which it is to be given, and if to be given to more than one party, the shares of total compensation which each party shall be entitled to receive.

XIV. The award of the arbitrators, or of the umpire, if he shall be called upon to make an award, shall be binding and conclusive both upon the Government and the parties interested in the land, as respects the gross amount of the compensation to be paid by Government, unless the award shall be set aside by the Civil Court of the zillah upon a charge of corruption against the arbitrators or the umpire, as the case may be, brought by either party, and proved, after due investigation, to the satisfaction of such Court; in which case the matter shall be referred for the determination of a second set of arbitrators, to be chosen in the same manner as the first, and their decision, whatever it may be, shall be final. No petition to set aside an award made under this Act shall be received by the Civil Court of the zillah unless it be presented within thirty days from the date of the award complained of; and the said petition shall be presented on stamped paper of the value used for miscellaneous petitions, and shall be accompanied with a copy of the award objected to. The award of the arbitrators or umpire shall also be binding as respects the shares to be paid to the several parties interested in the land, unless upon a suit instituted within thirty days from the date of the award, in a competent Court, by any of the parties concerned, to alter the apportionment made by such award, an injunction shall be issued to suspend the payment until a decree is passed in the case.

Award conclusive as to amount of compensation unless fraudulent.

Proceedings to set aside award.

Award when binding as to shares of persons interested.

XV. If any question arises as to the previous possession of or title to any land taken by Government under this Act, or if the parties or any of them interested in the land are minors, lunatics, or absent as aforesaid, and are not represented by their guardian, committee, attorney, or other person authorized in that behalf, or if there exist other grounds which, in the judgment of the arbitrators, render it improper to make immediate payment of the compensation awarded by them, or of any part thereof, to any of the parties interested in such land, the said arbitrators shall certify the same to the said Collector or Officer under whose directions they may act, and in such case, or if for any such reason, or any such ground as aforesaid, the said Collector or other Officer shall deem immediate payment improper, then the amount of compensation payable shall be held in deposit by Government until the parties interested in the said land or some of them shall obtain an order of a competent Court for the payment of the same and interest (if any) to them. All sums held in deposit as aforesaid shall bear interest at the lowest rate of any Government securities which may then be procurable.

In certain cases compensation money to be held in deposit until order for payment is made by a competent Court.

XVI. On the close of the enquiry, the arbitrators or umpire shall deliver to the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, a full and complete report and award upon the questions submitted to their arbitration, under their respective signatures, specifying the amount of compensation to be granted, and (except where, under Section XV., it may appear proper to suspend payment,) the parties to whom it is to be made, and the proportions to be paid to each respectively, with a solemn declaration subscribed thereto that the award so given is, to the best of their judgment, true and impartial, and according to the evidence adduced before them, and they shall at the same time deposit with the said Collector or Officer the whole of their proceedings.

Arbitrators to deliver to Collector their report and other proceedings.

XVII. All suits and proceedings instituted against Government to obtain compensation for land taken as aforesaid, other than such petitions to set aside awards as aforesaid, shall be dismissed with costs: but nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any party to recover the value of any land taken by Government from any person who may have received the same without having any title thereto.

No suits to be instituted against Government to obtain compensation.

Right to recover purchase-money from person who has received it without title, not to be affected.

XVIII. In the case of land declared by a minute of the Governor in Council to be needed for a public purpose being acquired by the Government by bargain with and purchase from the parties apparently interested therein, the Collector or Officer appointed by Government to receive possession of the same shall cause proclamation to be made, in the manner prescribed in the 4th Section of this Act, of the transfer of the land to Government by the said parties, and requiring all other persons who may claim any right, title, or interest in such land, to prefer their claims within one calendar month after such proclamation made; and any claims that may be preferred shall be dealt with under Section V. or under Section VI. and the following Sections of this Act. Provided always, that, if no claims shall be made within one calendar month after such proclamation as aforesaid, the said land shall vest absolutely in the Government free and clear of all other estates, rights, titles, remainders, reversions, limitations, trusts, interests, mortgages, liens, or incumbrances whatsoever of and in the said land so purchased; and any suit to recover the land so purchased by Government, or to obtain from Government compensation for the loss thereof, which may be preferred in any Court of Judicature, shall be dismissed with costs. But nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of the party who may receive the value of any land purchased by Government without having a good title to the same.

Proclamation and proceedings in case land is bought by agreement from persons apparently interested.

Proviso.

XIX. In cases referred to arbitration under the provisions of this Act, any necessary expense which may attend the enquiry of the arbitration, whether for the diet of witnesses or otherwise, shall be paid by Government.

Expense of arbitration.

XX. Persons employed in any public work, or in any purpose which has been declared, under the authority of this Act, to be a public purpose, their servants and workmen, may, after due notice to the occupier, enter upon any land in order to [illegible] same or to mark and set out the line of work in contemplation, and may mark the intended line by cutting a trench or placing land-marks along the same and may, with the sanction of Government or of any Officer appointed by Government to exercise supervision over the work, cut down and clear away any part of any jungle or tree or tope of trees in the direction of the survey or the intended line. Provided that no person shall enter the curtilage of any house under colour of this Act without the consent of the occupier, unless between sunrise and sunset and after due notice given to such occupier.

Right to enter upon land required for a public purpose.

Temporary occupation of adjacent land.

XXI. The powers of this Act shall also extend to authorize, in all cases within the Act, the temporary occupation of any land not more than 100 yards from the centre line of the line of work in contemplation, the taking earth and other materials, the depositing thereon superfluous earth or other materials, the erection of temporary buildings and workshops thereon, or the occupation of any land which may be needed for making temporary roads or approaches from any public road to an intended line of Railway; and for any damage done under the powers conferred in this and the preceding Sections, including the full value of all clay, gravel, soil, and other materials taken thence, compensation shall be paid to and among all persons having an interest therein, to be ascertained, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as compensation for land permanently taken under this Act.

Penalty for wilful obstruction of person exercising powers of this Act

XXII. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of the authority conferred in the 3rd and 4th Sections of this Act shall be liable to be imprisoned by the Magistrate of the district for any term not exceeding six months and to be fined any amount not exceeding rupees 200.

Land taken for a public purpose otherwise than according to this Act to vest in Government after 5 years' non-claim.

XXIII. In every case in which any land has been or shall be taken by the Government for any work of public utility otherwise than according to the provisions of this Act, such land, after the lapse of five years without any claim preferred for the recovery thereof in any competent Court, shall vest absolutely in the East India Company, freed and discharged from all other claims thereunto.

Computation of term of 5 years.

XXIV. The said term of five years shall be reckoned from the date of this Act in the case of land heretofore taken, and in case of land hereafter taken from the time of taking possession thereof.

Compensation to be paid to person establishing his right in such case.

XXV. If within the said term of five years any suit is begun upon which judgment shall be finally obtained establishing the right of the Plaintiff to any interest in any such land, then, in lieu and in place of such interest in the said land, there shall be paid to the person obtaining such judgment the value of his interest in the said land at the time when possession thereof was taken with interest thereon at the usual and lawful rate, to be ascertained and settled by the Civil Court in awarding judgment in the suit.

Construction of word "land" as used in this Act.

XXVI. The word "land" as used in this Act shall include the buildings, trees, and wells thereon, the revenue thereof, and all rights and privileges lawfully enjoyed thereon or therefrom.

Interpretation.

XXVII. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something either in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, (that is to say)—words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular: words importing the masculine gender only shall include females: the expression "party or parties interested in the land," shall be understood to mean all parties interested in the land either for life or for years, or in remainder, reversion, or succession, and all trustees, cestui que trusts, mortgagees, incumbrancers, lease-holders, or tenants, not being tenants by the month or at will of such land.

Act not to extend to land within local jurisdiction of Supreme Court.

XXVIII. This Act shall not be held to extend to land within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

FORT WILLIAM,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

The 8th June 1855.

THE following Rules for the grant of Leave of Absence for regulating Deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances, and for limiting the period of Service of Civil Servants, are published for general information, and will take effect in all the Presidencies and Settlements under the Government of India from the date of the publication of this Notification, in supersession of the Rules of the 17th May 1843 and the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER I.

RULES FOR APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

NOTE.—This Rule must be considered as superseding the Rule under which Commissioners of the Land Revenue and other Officers have heretofore been allowed to grant Leave of Absence in Bengal.

Section I. No Leave of Absence from any Office or Station can be granted, but by the Government under which the employment is held, and on the application of the party requiring such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially excepted. The application must be made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

Section II. The official allowances of the holder of a Civil Office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the date of his quitting until his return, or, in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave, to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Section III. No Leave of Absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by Medical Certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE.

Section IV. Upon application duly made, the Government may grant Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V. When an application for Leave of Absence is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a Certificate and a Statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed, as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere, as laid down in Section IV.; and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtaining leave, the Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, on their being satisfied, on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery. Should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the Presidency, the Certificate must, in the first instance, be counter-signed by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, and afterwards submitted with the statement of the case for the consideration and counter-signature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The Certificate shall be given in the following form:—

I, A. B., Surgeon at or of ——— do hereby certify that E F., of the Civil Service, is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to Sea, (or to such place as the Surgeon may think proper, expressing it in the Certificate.)

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon, in counter-signing the Surgeon's Certificate:—

We (or I) do hereby certify, that, according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we (or I) consider the state of health of E. F., to be such as to render Leave of Absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited; and such Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division, in which the applicant may be located, as the case may be, on perusal of the statement. In like manner, if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the Certificate to be counter-signed by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the applicant is in England, or if not in England by the principal Medical authority of the Colony or Country to which the Absentee may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such counter-signature if the Certificate be not so counter signed. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon, before counter-signing a Certificate as above-mentioned, must either personally examine the applicant or state some sufficient reason why they, or he, have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI. The following conditions will in future attach to Leaves of Absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical Certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health:—

1*st*,—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided, shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section and in Section VII. of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion.

2*ndly*,—The office of the absentee will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the Presidency, from the date of his arrival thereat to the date of his quitting the Sanitarium; if to any place beyond the Presidency, but within the Continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own Presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to Sea, from the date of the sailing of the Vessel on which he may have embarked from any Port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency, to the date of his arrival at any Port within the Presidency to which he belongs, or at any other Port which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency.

3*rdly*,—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary, and the same will be paid to him during such period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10,000 (£1,000) per annum, during that period. In cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted.

4*thly*,—For the interval elapsing between departure from Station to the commencement of reckoning absence or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station, the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months or three months according to the distance to be travelled as prescribed in Section XX. of these Rules, and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause 3 of this Section.

5thly.—If the absentee shall apply under Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary after examination by their Medical Officer in England, that he should do so; the leave which may have been granted in India will, under the orders of the Honorable Court, be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain Office, and half salary within the limits enjoined, during such extension.

6thly.—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 5, he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment, but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, or of £250 if not above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole. At the expiration of that term, all allowance must cease until he reports his return to his Presidency.

Section VII. If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on Sick Leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months at one time, at whatever period of his service such Sick Leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for Leave of Absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may, on special grounds, grant Leave of Absence for one further period not exceeding six months, during which the absentee may retain his office, and half his salary under the limits above enjoined.

Section VIII. If a Civil Servant, after fifteen years' service, shall be compelled by ill health to apply for further Leave of Absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it, but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary; the Government of India and the subordinate Governments will however, respectively, exercise a discretionary power to grant, in such last-mentioned cases, a sick absentee allowance, not exceeding Rupees 5,000 or £500 per annum, for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX. A Civil Servant who has taken Sick Leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843. will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above Rules, with the privilege of retaining Office, provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843.

Section X. None of the above-mentioned Rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each Member may, however, with the special sanction of the Government, be permitted to be absent, under Medical Certificate, for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary, which shall be paid to him during such absence, but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Section XI. Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above Rules, will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XII. The Government may grant to Civil Servants Leave of Absence to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which they may resort for one month in each year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such Servants—such leave, however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave, but Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year, may obtain, under the like conditions, Leave of Absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may, in like manner, be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave; but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this Rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave, and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant.

Civil Servants absent from their Stations under Medical Certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this Rule in continuation of their Sick Leave; and if, while absent under this Rule, they be granted extended leave under Medical Certificate, they shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate for the whole period of their absence.

Civil Servants who have been absent on Medical Certificate during any portion of a calendar year are not entitled to leave under this Rule during that year; but in determining the interval necessary to entitle a person to leave under this Rule, no reference will be made to any intermediate Leave of Absence that may have been granted under Section XIV. Clause 1.

Section XIII. As a general Rule, when leave is granted under Section XII., such leave will be in one period only, whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions to complete one month within the year, and the term year shall be held to mean the calendar year, commencing with the 1st of January and ending with the 31st of December, but as an exception to this Rule, it shall be discretional with the several Local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction Leave of Absence under this Rule to such parties as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in instalments, not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year, on the understanding that no leave can be granted for any fresh calendar year until the completion of three months from the expiration of the entire leave or of the last instalment of leave taken in the past calendar year.

Section XIV., Clause I. The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant to a Civil Servant special Leave of Absence on Private Affairs for six months, to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort, provided, however, that if any Officer to whom such leave shall be granted shall be absent from his Station for any period exceeding that to which he may be entitled without deduction, under Section XII., the absentee shall, for the period in excess, draw no more than one-half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months (exclusive of any period which may be granted under Section XII.) any Office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

Clause II. The Leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto, and a second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause III. It will be understood that leave under this Section is not to be granted as a matter of course to every applicant, but that it will be the duty of the Government to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

CHAPTER IV.

FURLOUGHS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XV. In the place of the period of three years (in one term,) for which Furlough has hitherto been granted, Civil Servants will be allowed the option of taking a Furlough of three years as at present, or of dividing the Furlough into three periods of one year each, to be taken after successive periods of seven years service, or into two periods, which may either be of one or two years respectively, or of eighteen months each, provided that, in every case, the Civil Servant shall declare, on taking his Furlough, whether he intends it to be for twelve, eighteen, twenty-four or thirty-six months, in order that the Government may make its arrangements accordingly. In case of a division, into two periods, the first Furlough must be taken after a residence of not less than ten years, and the second Furlough after a further residence in India of ten years from the date of return from the first Furlough; but Civil Servants returning on Furlough to Europe will continue, as at present, to vacate their offices.

Section XVI. The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever, be permitted for any longer period than three years.

Section XVII. Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under Medical Certificate, before completing seven years residence in India, will be entitled to receive during their Furlough on Private Affairs, taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum, for three years.

Section XVIII. Clause I. In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years, will count as service in India in the twenty-five years entitling to the annuity, the present qualification of twenty-two years residence being retained.

Clause II. Absence on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as Service and residence in India, and be so computed in addition to the three years of absence which under the Clause next preceding are allowed to be reckoned as Indian Service. All periods of short Leave of Absence on Private Affairs taken under Sections XII. and XIV. of these Rules will also count as service and residence.

Section XIX. Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Orders No. 1150 dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of Leave of Absence and Furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

CHAPTER V.

RULES FOR JOINING STATIONS.

Section XX. There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new Office the periods of one month, two months, or three months for joining, accordingly as the distance may not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last-mentioned distance. Officers not joining their Station within the said periods, respectively, shall forfeit their salary for the time delayed in excess of the above periods, and if such excess shall exceed one month, the office shall be vacated, unless otherwise specially ordered by Government.

NOTE.—The time allowed for joining is computed from the date of the Order reaching the Officer appointed.

Section XXI. Upon the first appointment of any Civil Servant, who shall be reported qualified for Public Service by the Examiners appointed by the Government, to any Civil Station, there shall be allowed for travelling expenses to the Station, an allowance at the rate of 8 annas per mile by the direct Post Road, according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the Bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after the Officer shall have joined the Station: if required in advance, an order of the Government shall be necessary.

Section XXII. The salary of office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in case of Junior Civil Servants, the salary of Assistants will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the Public Service unless forfeited under the preceding Rule, through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

Section XXIII. In case of a change of office, when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No. XX., regulating the time and distance for joining Station, shall be applicable, and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that Rule respectively, draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join, a sum equal to that of his previous situation.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES FOR DEPUTATION ALLOWANCES.

Section XXIV. The sum of Company's Rupees 52,200 per annum having been fixed, under the orders of the Court of Directors, as the maximum salary of Civil Office for the offices of Government under the situation of Member of Council, Civil Servants who may draw larger allowances than this annual sum, as a consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance, in conderation of the necessary expenses of their position, will, in all cases of absence, be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the allowance thus limited, and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position; provided however, that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854. the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary, under the Government Resolution, No. 563, of that date.

NOTE.—This Rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

Section XXV. Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:—

To Civil Servants not holding any substantive appointment, at the rate of 50 per cent. on the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, such Deputation Allowance being in addition to the Subsistence Allowance of their respective ranks.

To Civil Servants holding an office of inferior emolument, when officiating in an office of superior emolument, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon Company's Rupees 2,000, and of 10 per cent. on the amount in which the monthly salary may exceed Company's Rupees 2,000, provided however that no lower rate of Deputation Allowance shall be given than Rupees 200 per mensem.

The Deputation Allowance shall in all cases be in addition to the salary of the substantive appointment held by the Officer on deputation.

The above rates are granted provisionally, subject to future revision.

In the Punjab, Nagpore and other places, where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances, payable at the above rates, will be calculated, not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating, but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointment may belong.

A Civil Servant acting for another shall have no claim to Commission or Fees, where any such sources of emolument exist These shall be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved, subject to the prescribed deductions.

A Civil Servant acting in an appointment, the salary of which is to be reduced on the retirement of the present incumbent, will draw Deputation Allowance on the reduced salary.

An Officer officiating in more than one appointment will be entitled to Deputation Allowance, regulated by the aggregate amount of the salary of the offices.

An Officer appointed permanently to a higher situation, but prevented from joining his appointment by an order of Government, and detained to officiate in a situation of still higher emolument than the one to which he has been permanently appointed, will be entitled to a Deputation Allowance in addition to the higher salary to which he has been promoted.

Section XXVI. No Civil Servant, temporarily officiating for another, shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance, according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another, shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance, unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

Section XXVII. No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same office or establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month, and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrear. But a servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to Deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

Section XXVIII. Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed, or if ordered by Government on special duty, shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

CHAPTER VII.

RULES FOR LIMITING THE PERIOD OF SERVICE.

Section XXIX. After thirty-five years' service no Civil Servant shall be appointed to any new office, nor be permitted to retain an office which he has held for a period of five years and upwards, except in special cases, which are to be referred for the decision of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors. This Rule will be applicable to every Civil Servant appointed to office after its promulgation, and to the case of every other Civil Servant to whom it relates at the close of five years from the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO LAW OFFICERS.

Section XXX. The East India Company's Law Officers may obtain Sick Leave and Short Leave on Private Affairs under the conditions prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, both as respects the periods of absence and the limitation of allowances during such absence. Leave will however only be granted at the convenience of the Government, and no additional expense will on any consideration be incurred by the Government on account thereof.

If any Law Officer shall quit his duty, save on leave under Medical Certificate or on Short Leave on Private Affairs, he will be considered to have vacated his appointment.

CHAPTER IX.

RULES FOR CHAPLAINS AND ASSISTANT CHAPLAINS.

Section XXXI. Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may take Furlough on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate, also privilege leave and leave for short periods on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate in or out of India, on the same terms and conditions as Military Officers, with the following modifications:—

1*st.*—Chaplains being allowed to retire after twenty years' service, the period of Furlough on Private Affairs, is in their case limited to the present term of three years. The Furlough may however either be taken in one period, or be divided into two periods, whether of eighteen months each, or of two years and one year, respectively, and if divided, the first Furlough may be taken, as at present, after seven years' residence, and the second Furlough after a further residence, of ten years in India. As respects Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains appointed before the 11th January 1854, when the period of Service was only eighteen years, their second Furlough, if they should exercise the option of taking Furlough in two periods, will be available after a second residence in India for a term of eight years.

2*ndly.*—No Furlough or Leave of Absence, whether on Private Affairs or on Sick Certificate, taken in Europe or elsewhere out of India, in excess of three years, will be allowed to count as Service in India in the twenty years which qualifies Chaplains for their Retiring Pensions.

Section XXXII. The Furlough Pay of Chaplains will remain as at present. With regard to their allowance during Sick Leave to any place out of India, they shall receive salary (but at a rate not exceeding £600 per annum) for the first six months of absence, and, for the remaining twelve months, an allowance equal to the Furlough Pay of their standing. If the leave be extended, an allowance equal to Furlough Pay may be drawn for a further period of eighteen months.

No. 1381.

Notification.

THE Most Noble the Governor General in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 4th September 1854, having decided that the practice of this Office, with reference to the salaries of Uncovenanted Officers when transferred from one District to another, in charging salaries only from the date of their joining their new appointments, and not from the date of their relief from their old posts, is wrong, all Officers having to submit Pay Bills are hereby required to take special notice of this decision. The following instructions are given for their information and guidance :—

When an Uncovenanted Officer quits a post for one in another District, to which a higher salary is attached, the controlling Officer of the new District shall draw the salary for the time between the quitting of the old Office and the joining of the new one, at the rate of the salary appertaining to the old Office; but not for the full salary of the new appointment, until the Officer transferred shall have actually joined his new Office, when he shall draw for the full amount of his new salary.

And for every Tolah, or fraction of a Tolah, above two Tolahs, two additional annas.

Letters sent after 12 o'clock for the purpose of being posted will not be received under any circumstances.

Notice.

Is hereby given that the Government Bullock Train will cease to run above Kurnaul after the 15th instant, owing to the road being still impracticable for the successful management of that establishment during the rainy season.

From the above date, all Packages for stations above Kurnaul will, as heretofore, be conveyed in country carts, with every possible degree of care, but there can be no guarantee against possible damage from wet, as many Rivers and Nullahs without bridges have to be crossed.

The Bullock Train between Lahore and Mooltan will probably be maintained throughout the rainy season.

CALCUTTA,
The 8th June 1855.

Notice.

COMPLAINTS having been made of Steam or British Postage, although paid on letters from India, having been levied in England, on the plea that Indian Postage Stamps are not recognised there, the Postmaster-General, N. W. P., begs to notify, that all letters on which Steam or British Postage is paid, in addition to Inland or Indian Postage, are stamped with the words "India Paid" in red ink, and that this mark is recognised by the Post Office authorities in England as proof of pre-payment of Steam Postage.

Parties who pay Steam Postage on their letters should note on them Steam or British Postage prepaid to England, and as Overland letters are now received on the latest safe dates by a Writer at the Post Office Window, the Postage Stamps will then and there be obliterated and the words "India Paid" stamped in red ink.

Those who pre-pay their letters to England are recommended to give the information above to their correspondents, so that if Steam Postage be demanded from them, they may protest and appeal to Her Majesty's Post-masters General for redress.

CECIL BEADON,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 1855.

Legislative Council

The 23rd June 1855.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 29th May 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 23rd June 1855,) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XVII. OF 1855.

An Act to improve the law relating to the Copper Currency in the Straits.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Company's Rupee is by Act XVII. of 1835 a legal tender in satisfaction of all engagements in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, but no copper coin, except the half pice issued under Act XI. of 1854, is now by law legal tender for fractions of a Rupee in that Settlement; and it is expedient to remedy this defect in the law; and whereas besides the Rupee the Dollar is by custom current in the said Settlement; and it is therefore expedient to provide that the copper currency which will be legal tender in the said Settlement for fractions of a Rupee shall also be legal tender in the said Settlement for fractions of a Dollar: It is enacted as follows:—

Acts repealed.

I. Sections I., II., and V. of Act VI. of 1847 are hereby repealed, in so far as they relate to copper pice, double pice, and pies coined in accordance with Act XXII. of 1844, or Act XXI. of 1835: but in so far as they relate to all other copper coins, the said Sections shall remain in full force. And the provisions of Sections I., II., and IV. of Act XXII. of 1844, so far as they are now in force, are hereby extended to the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, where they shall have effect, any thing in Act VI. of 1847 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Pice legal tender for Dollars.

II. From and after the first day of July 1855 within the said Settlement, a pice coined according to Act XXII. of 1844 shall be legal tender for one one hundred and fortieth part of a Dollar, and a double pice so coined shall be legal tender for one-seventieth part of a Dollar; and a pie so coined shall be legal tender for one four hundred and twentieth part of a Dollar; also a half-pice coined according to Act XI. of 1854 shall be legal tender for one two hundred and eightieth part of a Dollar.

Proviso.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, that no copper coins within the said Settlement shall be legal tender except for fractions of a Rupee, or fractions of a Dollar.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 16th June 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 16th June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 20th of September next:—

A Bill to facilitate the acquisition of Land needed for public purposes in the Presidency of Bombay.

Declaration of Government that land is needed for a public purpose.

I. WHENEVER it shall appear to the Governor of Bombay in Council that any Land is needed for a public purpose, he shall make a declaration to that effect in a Minute of Council, and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the land is needed is a public purpose.

After such declaration possession may be taken, and claims for compensation subsequently determined.

II. When a declaration has been made by the Governor in Council that any land is needed for a public purpose, if there shall be any hinderance to the immediate acquisition of such land by purchase from the parties interested therein, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to order the land to be taken possession of on the part of Government and applied to the purpose for which it is needed, leaving claims for compensation for the land to be determined as hereinafter provided.

Land to be measured and possession to be taken; after which, the property shall be vested in the Government.

III. When such order is passed by the Governor in Council, it shall be sent to the Collector of the district in which the land lies, or to such other Officer as the Governor in Council shall think fit to appoint, to carry it into execution; and the Collector or other Officer so appointed shall cause the land ordered to be taken to be marked out and measured, and possession to be taken thereof on behalf of Government, and the land shall thenceforward be vested absolutely in the Government, free and clear of all other estates, rights, titles, remainders, reversions, limitations, trusts, and interests, and also of all mortgages, liens, or incumbrances whatsoever, of and in the land so taken as aforesaid; and any suit which may be instituted to recover the land so taken by Government in any Court of Judicature, shall be dismissed with costs. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of the party who may receive the value of any land so taken by Government without having a good title to the same.

Proviso.

Publication of order in Council and citation to parties interested to appear.

IV. As soon as the land has been marked out, the Collector, or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, shall cause the order in Council to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land, and published by proclamation in the neighbouring bazars and villages, with a citation calling on all parties interested in the land to appear before him in person, or by authorized agents, on a certain day, not less than fifteen days after the date of citation, and to state the nature of their interests in the land required, and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for the same.

Collector to admit claims appearing to be valid, and if compensation be agreed upon to make award for the amount.

V. It shall be competent to the said Collector, or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, to admit any such claims that appear to him to be valid, and if he and all the parties interested in the land agree as to the compensation to be allowed to them respectively, to pass an award for the same.

Arbitrators to be appointed if claims or amount of compensation are not admitted.

VI. If the said Collector or Officer shall judge any of the claims preferred to be inadmissible, and the parties interested in the land or any of them shall nevertheless persist in such claims, or if the said Collector or Officer, admitting the interests claimed, shall object to the compensation demanded for the same as excessive, the points in dispute shall be referred to the determination of arbitrators, to be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Nomination of arbitrators.

VII. Two persons shall be chosen to act as arbitrators on the part of Government by the Collector or other Officer duly appointed as aforesaid, and the party or parties claiming to be interested in the land taken shall be called upon by the said Collector or Officer to elect, within fifteen days, two persons to act as arbitrators on his or their part. If there be several parties interested as aforesaid, and they cannot agree within the required period in the election of persons to act as arbitrators on their behalf, then and in that case each of them shall nominate one person whom he may desire to act on his behalf, and the said Collector or Officer shall choose by lot, out of the persons so nominated by the parties aforesaid, or by any of them, two persons to act as arbitrators on behalf of the parties interested in the land. If only two persons shall be so nominated by the parties interested in the land, they shall be the arbitrators on behalf of such parties, whether the whole of the parties interested as aforesaid may or may not have been concerned in their nomination. If only one person shall be so nominated, then only one of the persons selected to act as arbitrators on the part of Government shall be employed on the duty. If the parties interested in the land shall refuse or neglect, or if, by reason of minority, lunacy, or absence from the Presidency, they shall be unable to make any nomination within the required period, then the said Collector or Officer shall and may select two impartial persons to arbitrate the matter between Government and the parties interested in the land.

Appointment of umpire.

VIII. Before the arbitrators proceed to arbitrate, they shall be required by the said Collector or Officer to appoint an umpire for the decision of any points whereon they may differ in opinion, when the voices on each side shall be equal. If the arbitrators cannot agree in the selection of an umpire, the said Collector or Officer shall be authorized to choose some person to act as such.

Decision of umpire, &c.

IX. In cases wherein the arbitrators may differ in opinion, if the voices on each side shall be equal, the decision of the umpire on the point of difference shall be conclusive; in all other cases the opinion of the majority of arbitrators shall determine the award.

Arbitrators' enquiry to be under superintendence of Collector.

X. The arbitrators shall hold their enquiry under the general superintendence of the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, who shall be competent to exercise towards them such powers and authority for the purpose of securing their attendance and the due completion of their award as the Courts of Judicature may legally exercise towards persons summoned as witnesses before them, for the purpose of compelling such witnesses to attend and give evidence. It shall further be competent to the Officer presiding, in the event of any unnecessary delay on the part of the arbitrators in determining any question referred to them, to call upon them to make their award within a specified time, and in default thereof, to refer such question to the umpire for his decision.

Summoning witnesses.

XI. The said Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid shall, on the application of the arbitrators, summon any witnesses whom the arbitrators may call for and whom the parties may not be able to produce before them without such process. He shall also cause the proper forms of affirmation to be executed by any witnesses whom the arbitrators may desire to examine upon affirmation, or he may empower the arbitrators to administer or cause the execution of such affirmation, if the witnesses cannot with convenience attend before him. Any witness who shall refuse or omit to appear when duly summoned by such Collector or Officer, or who shall appear but shall refuse to execute the affirmation to be administered as aforesaid, or who shall refuse to give evidence, shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence before a Court of Justice. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition, under a solemn affirmation, in any case referred to arbitration as above, and upon a point material to the issue thereof, shall be held to be guilty of perjury and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law: and any person causing or procuring another person to commit the offence of perjury, as above described, shall be guilty of subornation of perjury and punishable according to law.

Penalty for non-attendance or for false swearing.

Production of title deeds, &c.

XII. It shall also be competent to the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid to call upon the parties interested in the land so taken as aforesaid, to appear and produce any accounts, title deeds, or other documents which may be required by the arbitrators for the purposes of their enquiry, and in the event of such persons neglecting or refusing to produce such accounts, title deeds, or documents, and the fact of their existence being proved by information given upon solemn affirmation, such persons shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence in a Court of Justice.

Award of arbitrators.

XIII. The arbitrators shall take into consideration the statements of the parties interested in the said land, and the objections of the Collector or other Officer aforesaid on behalf of Government, and after examining the evidence offered on both sides, and making any further enquiry that may appear to them necessary, shall pass their award allowing or disallowing the interests claimed, provided such interest is not the subject of enquiry under Act XI. of 1852; and determining the total amount of compensation to be given for the interests allowed, the mode in which it is to be given, and if to be given to more than one party, the shares of total compensation, which each party shall be entitled to receive.

Award conclusive as to amount of compensation unless fraudulent.

XIV. The award of the arbitrators, or of the umpire, if he shall be called upon to make an award, shall be binding and conclusive both upon the Government and the parties interested in the land, as respects the gross amount of the compensation to be paid by Government, unless the award shall be set aside by the Civil Court of the zillah upon a charge of corruption against the arbitrators or the umpire, as the case may be, brought by either party, and proved, after due investigation, to the satisfaction of such Court; in which case the matter shall be referred for the determination of a second set of arbitrators, to be chosen in the same manner as the first, and their decision, whatever it may be, shall be final. No petition to set aside an award made under this Act shall be received by the Civil Court of the zillah unless it be presented within thirty days from the date of the award complained of; and the said petition shall be presented on stamped paper of the value used for miscellaneous petitions, and shall be accompanied with a copy of the award objected to. The award of the arbitrators or umpire shall also be binding as respects the shares to be paid to the several parties interested in the land, unless upon a suit instituted within thirty days from the date of the award, in a competent Court, by any of the parties concerned, to alter the apportionment made by such award, an injunction shall be issued to suspend the payment until a decree is passed in the case.

Proceedings to set aside award.

Award when binding as to shares of persons interested.

In certain cases compensation money to be held in deposit until order for payment is made by a competent Court.

XV. If any question arises as to the previous possession of or title to any land taken by Government under this Act, or if the parties or any of them interested in the land are minors, lunatics, or absent as aforesaid, and are not represented by their guardian, committee, attorney, or other person authorized in that behalf, or if there exist other grounds which, in the judgment of the arbitrators, render it improper to make immediate payment of the compensation awarded by them, or of any part thereof, to any of the parties interested in such land, the said arbitrators shall certify the same to the said Collector or Officer under whose directions they may act, and in such case, or if for any such reason, or any such ground as aforesaid, the said Collector or other Officer shall deem immediate payment improper, then the amount of compensation payable shall be held in deposit by Government until the parties interested in the said land or some of them shall obtain an order of a competent Court for the payment of the same and interest (if any) to them. All sums held in deposit as aforesaid shall bear interest at the lowest rate of any Government securities which may then be procurable.

Arbitrators to deliver to Collector their report and other proceedings.

XVI. On the close of the enquiry, the arbitrators or umpire shall deliver to the Collector or other Officer appointed as aforesaid, a full and complete report and award upon the questions submitted to their arbitration, under their respective signatures, specifying the amount of compensation to be granted, and (except where, under Section XV., it may appear proper to suspend payment,) the parties to whom it is to be made, and the proportions to be paid to each respectively, with a solemn declaration subscribed thereto that the award so given is, to the best of their judgment, true and impartial, and according to the evidence adduced before them, and they shall at the same time deposit with the said Collector or Officer the whole of their proceedings

No suits to be instituted against Government to obtain compensation.

XVII. All suits and proceedings instituted against Government to obtain compensation for land taken as aforesaid, other than such petitions to set aside awards as aforesaid, shall be dismissed with costs; but nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any party to recover the value of any land taken by Government from any person who may have received the same without having any title thereto.

Right to recover purchase-money from person who has received it without title, not to be affected.

Proclamation and proceedings in case land is bought by agreement from persons apparently interested

XVIII. In the case of land declared by a minute of the Governor in Council to be needed for a public purpose being acquired by the Government by bargain with and purchase from the parties apparently interested therein, the Collector or Officer appointed by Government to receive possession of the same shall cause proclamation to be made, in the manner prescribed in the 4th Section of this Act, of the transfer of the land to Government by the said parties, and requiring all other persons who may claim any right, title, or interest in such land, to prefer their claims within one calendar month after such proclamation made; and any claims that may be preferred shall be dealt with under Section V. or under Section VI. and the following Sections of this Act. Provided always, that, if no claims shall be made within one calendar month after such proclamation as aforesaid, the said land shall vest absolutely in the Government free and clear of all other estates, rights, titles, remainders, reversions, limitations, trusts, interests, mortgages, liens, or incumbrances whatsoever of and in the said land so purchased; and any suit to recover the land so purchased by Government, or to obtain from Government compensation for the loss thereof, which may be preferred in any Court of Judicature, shall be dismissed with costs But nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of the party who may receive the value of any land purchased by Government without having a good title to the same.

Proviso.

Expense of arbitration.

XIX In cases referred to arbitration under the provisions of this Act, any necessary expense which may attend the enquiry of the arbitration, whether for the diet of witnesses or otherwise, shall be paid by Government.

Right to enter upon land required for a public purpose.

XX. Persons employed in any public work, or in any purpose which has been declared, under the authority of this Act, to be a public purpose, their servants and workmen, may, after due notice to the occupier, enter upon any land in order to survey the same or to mark and set out the line of work in contemplation, and may mark the intended line by cutting a trench or placing land-marks along the same and may, with the sanction of Government or of any Officer appointed by Government to exercise supervision over the work, cut down and clear away any part of any jungle or tree or tope of trees in the direction of the survey or the intended line. Provided that no person shall enter the curtilage of any house under colour of this Act without the consent of the occupier, unless between sunrise and sunset and after due notice given to such occupier.

Temporary occupation of adjacent land.

XXI. The powers of this Act shall also extend to authorize, in all cases within the Act, the temporary occupation of any land not more than 100 yards from the centre line of the line of work in contemplation, the taking earth and other materials, the depositing thereon superfluous earth or other materials, the erection of temporary buildings and workshops thereon, or the occupation of any land which may be needed for making temporary roads or approaches from any public road to an intended line of Railway; and for any damage done under the powers conferred in this and the preceding Sections, including the full value of all clay, gravel, soil, and other materials taken thence, compensation shall be paid to and among all persons having an interest therein, to be ascertained, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as compensation for land permanently taken under this Act.

Penalty for wilful obstruction of person exercising powers of this Act.

XXII. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of the authority conferred in the 3rd and 4th Sections of this Act shall be liable to be imprisoned by the Magistrate of the district for any term not exceeding six months and to be fined any amount not exceeding rupees 200.

Land taken for a public purpose otherwise than according to this Act to vest in Government after 5 years' non-claim.

XXIII. In every case in which any land has been or shall be taken by the Government for any work of public utility otherwise than according to the provisions of this Act, such land, after the lapse of five years without any claim preferred for the recovery thereof in any competent Court, shall vest absolutely in the East India Company, freed and discharged from all other claims thereunto.

Computation of term of 5 years.

XXIV. The said term of five years shall be reckoned from the date of this Act in the case of land heretofore taken, and in case of land hereafter taken from the time of taking possession thereof.

Compensation to be paid to person establishing his right in such case.

XXV. If within the said term of five years any suit is begun upon which judgment shall be finally obtained establishing the right of the Plaintiff to any interest in any such land, then, in lieu and in place of such interest in the said land, there shall be paid to the person obtaining such judgment the value of his interest in the said land at the time when possession thereof was taken with interest thereon at the usual and lawful rate, to be ascertained and settled by the Civil Court in awarding judgment in the suit.

XXVI. The word "land" as used in this Act shall include the buildings, trees, and wells thereon, the revenue thereof, and all rights and privileges lawfully enjoyed thereon or therefrom.

Construction of word "land" as used in this Act.

XXVII. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something either in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, (that is to say)—words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular: words importing the masculine gender only shall include females: the expression "party or parties interested in the land," shall be understood to mean all parties interested in the land either for life or for years, or in remainder, reversion, or succession, and all trustees, cestui que trusts, mortgagees, incumbrancers, lease-holders, or tenants, not being tenants by the month or at will of such land.

Interpretation.

XXVIII. This Act shall not be held to extend to land within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court.

Act not to extend to land within local jurisdiction of Supreme Court.

Legislative Council.

The 23rd June 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 23rd June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 27th of August next:—

A Bill to empower Officers of the Customs and Revenue Departments to search manufactories and houses for contraband Salt in the North-Western Provinces.

WHEREAS the existing laws do not empower Officers of the Customs or Revenue Department in the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal to search manufactories and houses for Salt manufactured or stored contrary to the provisions of Act XIV. of 1843, and it is expedient to give them power to do so; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Whenever any Officer vested with powers to carry out the provisions of Act XIV. of 1843, not being under the grade of Naib Tehseeldar in the Revenue Department or of Assistant Patrol in the Customs' Department, receives credible information that within his jurisdiction Salt is unlawfully manufactured, or the Salt refuse obtained in the manufacture of Saltpetre is without the sanction of Government so purified and refined as to produce alimentary Salt, in any manufactory, dwelling-house, ware-house, or other place, or that Salt is unlawfully stored in any such place within the limits of Customs' jurisdiction as defined by the Government of the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal under the provisions of Section III. of the aforesaid Act, he shall first record in writing the name, residence, and calling of the informant, the locality and description of the house or place where he believes the Salt to be manufactured, produced, or stored, and the supposed quantity and description of such Salt, with the grounds for believing the same to be contraband, and the name of the owner or occupant of such house or place, or the name of the person for or by whom such Salt is manufactured, produced, or stored.

Particulars to be recorded by Officer on receipt of information as to unlawful manufacture of Salt, &c.

II. The said Officer, after recording the particulars aforesaid, may summon from the nearest Police Station a Police Officer, not being under the grade of a Jemadar, to attend him, and with such Police Officer and informant proceed to the said house or place, and in their presence search the same for contraband Salt; provided that such search be not made between sunset and sunrise.

Officer thereupon may summon Police and proceed to search a house for contraband Salt.

Proviso.

III. The said Officers may break open the door or force an entry within the said house or place, if, upon requisition duly made, the door be not opened, or admission be refused, by the owner or occupant thereof.

Officers may break open doors.

IV. A forcible entry under the last preceding Section shall only be made by the Police Officer in accordance with the rules and precautions prescribed by Regulation XX. of 1817, by Section X. Regulation V. of 1800 (for the Benares province,) and by Section XIX. Regulation XXVIII. of 1803 (for the Ceded and Conquered provinces) for breaking into a house for execution of process of distraint. Provided, however, that the responsibility for the act, and the determination whether to force an entry or not, shall rest with the Officer of the Customs or Revenue Department only.

Rules regarding forcible entry.

Proviso.

V. Whoever, being a Police Officer summoned under Section II., fails to attend himself or to depute a subordinate Police Officer, not being below the grade of a Jemadar, to attend, or, after attending, refuses to aid in the search for, or seizure of, contraband Salt, or in any way wilfully frustrates the object of the search or seizure, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable, besides being dismissed from office, to a fine equal to the amount of fine that would have been leviable on the owners or holders of the Salt if it had been seized according to the information laid.

Penalty for Police Officer refusing or neglecting to attend or aid in search or seizure.

VI. Any Officer of the Revenue or Customs Department vested with power to carry into effect the provisions of this Act, who, under cover thereof, searches or causes to be searched any manufactory, dwelling-house, ware-house, or other place without reasonable grounds of suspicion that contraband Salt is there manufactured, produced, or stored, shall, upon conviction before the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence may have been committed, be punished with fine not exceeding 500 rupees, which fine shall be paid over to the party aggrieved, and, in default of payment of such fine, with imprisonment not exceeding six months; and any person wilfully and maliciously giving false information and so causing a search to be made in any manufactory, dwelling-house, ware-house, or other place to the injury or vexation of the owners, occupants, or any other person or persons whatsoever, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to the same penalties and also to imprisonment not exceeding two years with or without hard labor.

Every case of search to be reported to superior Officers.

VII. Every search under this Act, whether the result thereof be the seizure of contraband Salt or otherwise, shall be reported within 48 hours by the Officers of the Customs or Revenue and of the Police Departments who were present, to their respective official superiors.

Penalty for wilful connivance at the illicit manufacture, &c. of Salt.

VIII. Whoever wilfully connives at the illicit manufacture, production, or storing of Salt within any manufactory, dwelling house, ware-house, or other place, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 rupees, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding six months with or without hard labor.

Clerk of the Council.

FORT WILLIAM,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

The 8th June 1855.

THE following Rules for the grant of Leave of Absence for regulating Deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances, and for limiting the period of Service of Civil Servants, are published for general information, and will take effect in all the Presidencies and Settlements under the Government of India from the date of the publication of this Notification, in supersession of the Rules of the 17th May 1843 and the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER I.

RULES FOR APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

NOTE.—This Rule must be considered as superseding the Rule under which Commissioners of the Land Revenue and other Officers have heretofore been allowed to grant Leave of Absence in Bengal.

Section I. No Leave of Absence from any Office or Station, can be granted, but by the Government under which the employment is held, and on the application of the party requiring such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially excepted. The application must be made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

Section II. The official allowances of the holder of a Civil Office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the date of his quitting until his return, or, in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave, to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Section III. No Leave of Absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by Medical Certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE.

Section IV. Upon application duly made, the Government may grant Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V. When an application for Leave of Absence is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a Certificate and a Statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed, as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere, as laid down in Section IV.; and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtaining leave, the Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, on their being satisfied, on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery. Should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the Presidency, the Certificate must, in the first instance, be counter-signed by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, and afterwards submitted with the statement of the case for the consideration and counter-signature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The Certificate shall be given in the following form :—

I, A. B., Surgeon at or of ——— do hereby certify that E F., of the Civil Service, is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to Sea, (or to such place as the Surgeon may think proper, expressing it in the Certificate)

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon, in counter-signing the Surgeon's Certificate :—

We (or I) do hereby certify, that, according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we (or I) consider the state of health of E. F., to be such as to render Leave of Absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited; and such Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division, in which the applicant may be located, as the case may be, on perusal of the statement. In like manner, if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the Certificate to be counter-signed by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the applicant is in England, or if not in England by the principal Medical authority of the Colony or Country to which the Absentee may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such counter-signature if the Certificate be not so counter-signed. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon, before counter-signing a Certificate as above-mentioned, must either personally examine the applicant or state some sufficient reason why they, or he, have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI. The following conditions will in future attach to Leaves of Absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical Certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health :—

1*st*,—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided, shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section and in Section VII. of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion.

2*ndly*,—The office of the absentee will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the Presidency, from the date of his arrival thereat to the date of his quitting the Sanitarium; if to any place beyond the Presidency, but within the Continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own Presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to Sea, from the date of the sailing of the Vessel on which he may have embarked from any Port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency, to the date of his arrival at any Port within the Presidency to which he belongs, or at any other Port which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency.

3*rdly*,—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary, and the same will be paid to him during such period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10,000 (£1,000) per annum, during that period. In cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted.

4*thly*,—For the interval elapsing between departure from Station to the commencement of reckoning absence or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station, the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months or three months according to the distance to be travelled as prescribed in Section XX. of these Rules, and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause 3 of this Section.

5*thly*,—If the absentee shall apply under Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary after examination by their Medical Officer in England, that he should do so ; the leave which may have been granted in India will, under the orders of the Honorable Court, be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain Office, and half salary within the limits enjoined, during such extension.

6*thly*,—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 5, he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment, but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, or of £250 if not above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole. At the expiration of that term, all allowance must cease until he reports his return to his Presidency.

Section VII. If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on Sick Leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months at one time, at whatever period of his service such Sick Leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for Leave of Absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may, on special grounds, grant Leave of Absence for one further period not exceeding six months, during which the absentee may retain his office, and half his salary under the limits above enjoined.

Section VIII. If a Civil Servant, after fifteen years' service, shall be compelled by ill health to apply for further Leave of Absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it, but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary; the Government of India and the subordinate Governments will however, respectively, exercise a discretionary power to grant, in such last-mentioned cases, a sick absentee allowance, not exceeding Rupees 5,000 or £500 per annum, for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX. A Civil Servant who has taken Sick Leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843, will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above Rules, with the privilege of retaining Office, provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843.

Section X. None of the above-mentioned Rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each Member may, however, with the special sanction of the Government, be permitted to be absent, under Medical Certificate, for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary, which shall be paid to him during such absence, but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Section XI. Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above Rules, will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XII. The Government may grant to Civil Servants Leave of Absence to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which they may resort for one month in each year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such Servants—such leave, however, will only be granted when the Governmennt is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officer seeking it No second leave can be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave; but Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year, may obtain, under the like conditions, Leave of Absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may, in like manner, be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave; but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this Rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave, and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant.

Civil Servants absent from their Stations under Medical Certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this Rule in continuation of their Sick Leave; and if, while absent under this Rule, they be granted extended leave under Medical Certificate, they shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate for the whole period of their absence.

Civil Servants who have been absent on Medical Certificate during any portion of a calendar year are not entitled to leave under this Rule during that year; but in determining the interval necessary to entitle a person to leave under this Rule, no reference will be made to any intermediate Leave of Absence that may have been granted under Section XIV. Clause I.

Section XIII. As a general Rule, when leave is granted under Section XII, such leave will be in one period only, whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions to complete one month within the year, and the term year shall be held to mean the calendar year, commencing with the 1st of January and ending with the 31st of December, but as an exception to this Rule, it shall be discretional with the several local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction Leave of Absence under this Rule to such parties as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in instalments, not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year, on the understanding that no leave can be granted for any fresh calendar year until the completion of three months from the expiration of the entire leave or of the last instalment of leave taken in the past calendar year.

Section XIV., Clause I. The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant to a Civil Servant special Leave of Absence on Private Affairs for six months, to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort, provided, however, that if any Officer to whom such leave shall be granted shall be absent from his Station for any period exceeding that to which he may be entitled without deduction, under Section XII., the absentee shall, for the period in excess, draw no more than one-half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months (exclusive of any period which may be granted under Section XII.) any Office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

Clause II. The Leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto, and a second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause III. It will be understood that leave under this Section is not to be granted as a matter of course to every applicant, but that it will be the duty of the Government to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

CHAPTER IV.

FURLOUGHS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XV. In the place of the period of three years (in one term,) for which Furlough has hitherto been granted, Civil Servants will be allowed the option of taking a Furlough of three years as at present, or of dividing the Furlough into three periods of one year each, to be taken after successive periods of seven years service, or into two periods, which may either be of one or two years respectively, or of eighteen months each, provided that, in every case, the Civil Servant shall declare, on taking his Furlough, whether he intends it to be for twelve, eighteen, twenty four or thirty-six months, in order that the Government may make its arrangements accordingly. In case of a division into two periods, the first Furlough must be taken after a residence of not less than ten years, and the second Furlough after a further residence in India of ten years from the date of return from the first Furlough; but Civil Servants returning on Furlough to Europe will continue, as at present, to vacate their offices.

Section XVI. The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever, be permitted for any longer period than three years.

Section XVII. Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under Medical Certificate, before completing seven years' residence in India, will be entitled to receive during their Furlough on Private Affairs, taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum, for three years.

Section XVIII. Clause I. In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years, will count as service in India in the twenty-five years entitling to the annuity, the present qualification of twenty-two years' residence being retained.

Clause II. Absence on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as Service and residence in India, and be so computed in addition to the three years of absence which under the Clause next preceding are allowed to be reckoned as Indian Service. All periods of short Leave of Absence on Private Affairs taken under Sections XII. and XIV. of these Rules will also count as service and residence.

Section XIX. Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Orders No. 1150 dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of Leave of Absence and Furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

CHAPTER V.

RULES FOR JOINING STATIONS.

Section XX. There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new Office the periods of one month, two months, or three months for joining, accordingly as the distance may not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last-mentioned distance. Officers not joining their Station within the said periods, respectively, shall forfeit their salary for the time delayed in excess of the above periods, and if such excess shall exceed one month, the office shall be vacated, unless otherwise specially ordered by Government.

NOTE.—The time allowed for joining is computed from the date of the Order reaching the Officer appointed.

Section XXI. Upon the first appointment of any Civil Servant, who shall be reported qualified for Public Service by the Examiners appointed by the Government, to any Civil Station, there shall be allowed for travelling expenses to the Station, an allowance at the rate of 8 annas per mile by the direct Post Road, according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the Bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after the Officer shall have joined the Station: if required in advance, an order of the Government shall be necessary.

Section XXII. The salary of office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in case of Junior Civil Servants, the salary of Assistants will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the Public Service unless forfeited under the preceding Rule, through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

Section XXIII. In case of a change of office, when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No. XX., regulating the time and distance for joining Station, shall be applicable, and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that Rule respectively, draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join, a sum equal to that of his previous situation.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES FOR DEPUTATION ALLOWANCES.

Section XXIV. The sum of Company's Rupees 52,200 per annum having been fixed, under the orders of the Court of Directors, as the maximum salary of Civil Office for the offices of Government under the situation of Member of Council, Civil Servants who may draw larger allowances than this annual sum, as a consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance, in consideration of the necessary expenses of their position, will, in all cases of absence, be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the allowance thus limited, and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position; provided however, that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854, the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary, under the Government Resolution, No. 563, of that date.

NOTE.—This Rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

Section XXV. Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:—

To Civil Servants not holding any substantive appointment, at the rate of 50 per cent. on the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, such Deputation Allowance being in addition to the Subsistence Allowance of their respective ranks.

To Civil Servants holding an office of inferior emolument, when officiating in an office of superior emolument, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon Company's Rupees 2,000, and of 10 per cent. on the amount in which the monthly salary may exceed Company's Rupees 2,000, provided however that no lower rate of Deputation Allowance shall be given than Rupees 200 per mensem.

The Deputation Allowance shall in all cases be in addition to the salary of the substantive appointment held by the Officer on deputation.

The above rates are granted provisionally, subject to future revision.

In the Punjab, Nagpore and other places, where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances, payable at the above rates, will be calculated, not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating, but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointment may belong.

A Civil Servant acting for another shall have no claim to Commission or Fees, where any such sources of emolument exist. These shall be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved, subject to the prescribed deductions.

A Civil Servant acting in an appointment, the salary of which is to be reduced on the retirement of the present incumbent, will draw Deputation Allowance on the reduced salary.

An Officer officiating in more than one appointment will be entitled to Deputation Allowance, regulated by the aggregate amount of the salary of the offices.

An Officer appointed permanently to a higher situation, but prevented from joining his appointment by an order of Government, and detained to officiate in a situation of still higher emolument than the one to which he has been permanently appointed, will be entitled to a Deputation Allowance in addition to the higher salary to which he has been promoted.

Section XXVI. No Civil Servant, temporarily officiating for another, shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance, according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another, shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance, unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

Section XXVII. No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same office or establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month, and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrear. But a servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to Deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

Section XXVIII. Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed, or if ordered by Government on special duty, shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

CHAPTER VII.

RULES FOR LIMITING THE PERIOD OF SERVICE.

Section XXIX. After thirty-five years' service no Civil Servant shall be appointed to any new office, nor be permitted to retain an office which he has held for a period of five years and upwards, except in special cases, which are to be referred for the decision of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors. This Rule will be applicable to every Civil Servant appointed to office after its promulgation, and to the case of every other Civil Servant to whom it relates at the close of five years from the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO LAW OFFICERS.

Section XXX. The East India Company's Law Officers may obtain Sick Leave and Short Leave on Private Affairs under the conditions prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, both as respects the periods of absence and the limitation of allowances during such absence. Leave will however only be granted at the convenience of the Government, and no additional expense will on any consideration be incurred by the Government on account thereof.

If any Law Officer shall quit his duty, save on leave under Medical Certificate or on Short Leave on Private Affairs, he will be considered to have vacated his appointment.

CHAPTER IX.

RULES FOR CHAPLAINS AND ASSISTANT CHAPLAINS.

Section XXXI. Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may take Furlough on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate, also privilege leave and leave for short periods on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate in or out of India, on the same terms and conditions as Military Officers, with the following modifications:—

1*st.*—Chaplains being allowed to retire after twenty years' service, the period of Furlough on Private Affairs, is in their case limited to the present term of three years. The Furlough may however either be taken in one period, or be divided into two periods, whether of eighteen months each, or of two years and one year, respectively, and if divided, the first Furlough may be taken, as at present, after seven years' residence, and the second Furlough after a further residence, of ten years in India. As respects Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains appointed before the 11th January 1854, when the period of Service was only eighteen years, their second Furlough, if they should exercise the option of taking Furlough in two periods, will be available after a second residence in India for a term of eight years.

2*ndly.*—No Furlough or Leave of Absence, whether on Private Affairs or on Sick Certificate, taken in Europe or elsewhere out of India, in excess of three years, will be allowed to count as Service in India in the twenty years which qualifies Chaplains for their Retiring Pensions.

Section XXXII. The Furlough Pay of Chaplains will remain as at present. With regard to their allowance during Sick Leave to any place out of India, they shall receive salary (but at a rate not exceeding £600 per annum) for the first six months of absence, and, for the remaining twelve months, an allowance equal to the Furlough Pay of their standing. If the leave be extended, an allowance equal to Furlough Pay may be drawn for a further period of eighteen months.

No. 682 of 1855.—The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct, that Boards for the Examination of Cadets, appointed abroad, to the Honorable Company's Service, shall hereafter be assembled at the seats of the local Governments and shall be composed as follows :—

At Calcutta, ...	An Officer of Engineers. One of the Chaplains on the Establishment, to be selected by the Lord Bishop. The Secretary to the Board of Examiners.
Agra and Lahore.	An Officer of Engineers (Chief Engineer or Superintending Engineer when present at the Station.) A Military Chaplain. A Third Officer, either a Civil, Military or Medical Officer, to be selected by the local Government.

2. Gentlemen obtaining appointments will, if at the Presidency, present themselves to the Secretary to Government in the Military Department, or if in the Upper Provinces, to the Secretary to Government at Agra, or Secretary to the Commissioner at Lahore, as the case may be, and on their proving, that they are the parties appointed, authority will be issued to the Board to examine them at their next Meeting. A copy of the authority will be given to each Candidate, to be produced to the Board on his presenting himself.

Candidates for Commissions in Her Majesty's Service will obtain a similar authority from the Military Secretary to the Commander-in-Chief.

3. When there may be Candidates for Examination, the Boards will meet on the second Tuesday of each month. The Senior at the Board is to preside.

4. No fees will be allowed to the Members of the Board; but any Member not present at the Station where the Board is assembled shall have his expences by dâk or other conveyance paid from his proper Station and back to it on presenting his Bill at the Pay Office, countersigned by the President of the Board.

5. Copies of a Memorandum of the points upon which Candidates are to be examined, appended to this Order, with the form of proceeding for the Board of Examiners, will be forwarded direct to the local Governments and to the Secretary to the Board of Examiners at Fort William.

6. The proceedings when closed are to be forwarded, without delay, direct to the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Military Department, and a copy made over to the Candidate for appointment.

7. Should a Candidate fail in any one or more points at the first Examination, he will be allowed a second trial within the next ensuing six months on those particular points.

8. These Boards are also required to examine Candidates for Commissions in the Royal Service, according to the tests laid down in the Horse Guards Circular that may be in force at the time. The proceedings in such cases are to be forwarded direct to the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and a copy made over to the Candidate.

9. The Military Secretary to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief is requested to provide the Boards of Examiners, from time to time, with the Horse Guards Circulars, and to communicate all such other information as may be necessary to ensure the examination of Candidates for Commissions in Her Majesty's Army being conducted in strict accordance with the orders of the General Commanding-in-Chief.

10. Printed forms of the following documents will, from time to time, be supplied from the Office of the Secretary to Government in the Military Department to the Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces (Agra,) to the Military Secretary to the Chief Commissioner in the Punjaub (Lahore) and to the Secretary to the Board of Examiners (Calcutta,) for the purpose of being delivered, in duplicate, to such Candidates of the Company's Service as shall have passed a successful examination, viz.:

1*st.*—Regulations for the admission of Cadets.

2*nd.*—A form of the declaration of fidelity to the East India Company to be made by the Cadet before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace.

3*rd*—A form of declaration to be made by the Cadet before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of not having been dismissed nor obliged to retire from the Army, the Navy, nor from any public Institution.

These papers, on being filled up, should be forwarded without delay direct to the Secretary to Government, Military Department.

11. The Hon'ble the Court of Directors having expressed a desire, that the proceedings should be alike at the three Presidencies for the examination of Candidates for admission either in the Royal or the Company's Service, the above Rules are to be applicable to the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, with such modifications as the respective Governments may consider necessary.

Memorandum of the points upon which Candidates for direct appointments are to be examined before they are passed as Cadets.

1. Each Candidate will be required to write English correctly from dictation.

2. He should possess a competent knowledge of the ordinary Rules of Arithmetic, including the Rule of Three, Compound Proportion, Simple and Compound Interest, Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, and the Extraction of the Square Root. He should also have read the first three Books of Euclid.

3. In languages he should be able to translate into English passages from Cæsar's Commentaries, or from the first four Books of Virgil's Æneid, and he will be further expected to parse and show his knowledge of Grammar and Syntax.

The Candidate will be required to translate from French into English an Extract from one of the following works, viz., Telemachus, Voltaire's Charles the 12th and Peter the Great. But the Candidate will have the option of being examined in the Hindustani in lieu of the French language, and in that case he will be required to translate from Hindustani into English an Extract from one of the following works, viz., Bagh-o-Bahar, Tota Kuhanee.

4. In History he should be prepared to pass an examination in Keightley's Histories of Greece and Rome, in Gleig's History of England, and in the History of British India, contained in Vols. 1 and 2 of the Edinburgh Cabinet Library.

5. In Geography, he should possess a competent knowledge of the modern Divisions of the world, the principal Nations in Europe and Asia, the names of the capital of each Nation in Europe, and of the chief cities of Hindustan, and the names and situations of the principal rivers and mountains in the world.

6. In Fortification he should have read some elementary work on the subject (Straith's Introductory Essay to the study of Fortification, or Macaulay's Field Fortifications,) and have received some instruction in Military Plan Drawing.

No 683 of 1855.—For purposes of ready reference and adaptation to the circumstances of Military Offic rs proceeding on leave beyond sea for brief periods under the new Furlough Regulations, the Hon'ble the P esident in Council is pleased to publish the following Rules in supercession of existing General Orders, regarding the production of Certificates of No Demand by all Military and Medical Officers of Her Majesty's and the Honorable Com any's Service when about to quit the limits of the Bengal Presidency on resignation or retirement on obtaining Furlough to Europe, or general leave beyond sea —

I The Military and Medical Officer of the Honorable Company's Service will, in the first instance, obtain a Certificate of No Demand from the Deputy Pay Master by whom he was last paid, or in whose circle he last did duty, and forward it to the Presidency Pay Master in Calcutta, who will issue in lieu a Certificate of No Demand under his own sig n u e This Certificate will be countersigned by the Military Auditor General and then finally passed by the Military Accountant, who will cause it to be delivered to the applicant

II. The Military and Medical Officer of Her Majesty's Service will likewise, in the first instance, obtain a Certificate of No Demand from the Pay Master of his Regiment, and transmit it to the Pay Master, Queen's Troops, in Calcutta, who will in lieu grant a No Demand Certificate in his own name for the countersignature of the Military Auditor General and the Military Accountant, as in Clause I

III The Military and Medical Officer of Her Majesty's or the Honorable Company's Service, in Civil or Political employ, will be required to produce, in addition to the Certificate from the Pay and Audit Department mentioned in Clauses I. and II., an acquittance from the Civil Department. This acquittance will be obtained from the Civil Branch of the Office of Account at the Presidency in the case of Officers employed under the Governments of India or of Bengal and from the Accountant at Agra in the case of Officers employed under the Government of the North Western Provinces or the Punjaub

IV. Military Officers employed in the undermentioned Departments will be required to produce, in addition to the No Demand Certificates mentioned in Clauses I and II, acquittances from the functionaries named opposite to each class :

Department of Public Works,	From the Chief Engineer of the Division.
Commissariat Department,...	From the Auditor of Commissariat and Stud Accounts
Stud Ditto,
Ordnance Ditto	From the Inspector General of Magazines and Ordnance.

V. Quarter Masters of Regiments will be required to produce, in addition to the acquittance mentioned in Clauses I. and II, a Certificate from the Commanding Officers of their respective corps, to the effect that the Cash Balance and Half Mounting Stores under their custody have been duly transferred to their successors

VI. All Officers requiring acquittances under these Rules are reminded of the necessity of using every means in their power for the settlement of their public accounts, and of making timely application for the requisite No Demand Certificates, in order to obviate inconvenience to themselves from any delay in the issue of the Certificates by the several Departments concerned.

VII All Military and Medical Officers entrusted with the disbursement of public money in the Civil, Political, Public Works, Pay, Commissariat and Stud Departments, having accounts with the Government Accountants at the Presidency, or at Agra, and desiring to quit the country are especially enjoined to notify their intentions to the Military Accountant three clear months prior to the period of their probable departure, in order to afford that functionary sufficient time to obtain returns of their existing liabilities and to adopt the necessary measures for their adjustment.

VIII. Officers failing to produce Certificates of No Demand under these Rules will be required to submit in lieu a sufficient guarantee for the due adjustment of all claims against them for the approval of Government; but in the case of an Officer who may have deposited the prescribed security on his appointment to any office of trust, it will be discretionary with the Government, on a report from the Military Accountant as to his existing liabilities and the sufficiency of the security already deposited, to determine whether any further guarantee shall be required or not Notification.

THE Most Noble the Governor General in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 4th September 1854, having decided that the practice of this Office, with reference to the salaries of Uncovenanted Officers when transferred from one District to another, in charging salaries only from the date of their joining their new appointments, and not from the date of their relief from their old posts is wrong, all Officers having to submit Pay Bills are hereby required to take special notice of this decision. The following instructions are given for their information and guidance.—

When an Uncovenanted Officer quits a post for one in another District, to which a higher salary is attached, the controlling Officer of the new District shall draw the salary for the time between the quitting of the old Office and the joining of the new one, at the rate of the salary appertaining to the old Office; but not for the full salary of the new appointment, until the Officer transferred shall have actually joined his new Office, when he shall draw for the full amount of his new salary.

Calcutta Collectorate Notice.

1. WHEREAS, under the Orders of Government, No. 505, of the 4th April 1855, communicated to this Office by the Commissioner of the Nuddea Division, Rule 3rd of the Canal Demurrage Rules, of the 22nd August 1853, having been modified, the modified Rule is hereby published for the information of the public :—

MODIFIED RULE.

2. "Boats undergoing repair in the Docks 'adjoining the Circular Canal, or in such places "adjoining the Eastern Canal, as may be appointed by the Collector, shall, while so undergoing "repair, be charged at the rate of one-sixteenth of "the demurrage prescribed in Rule 2nd."

3. To prevent any misconstruction of the modified Rule, it is hereby explained, that in the case of a Boat of 1,000 maunds, the owner would pay Rupees 5 for admission into the Canal and be allowed nine days, within which it must pass out, or pay demurrage at the rate of Rupees 2-8 per diem. In the event of the Boat requiring repair, and resort being had to the Dock for that purpose, the charge will be, under the present Rule, 10 Annas per diem, or Rupees 6¼ for 10 days, but under the modification now sanctioned, it would be 2½ Annas per diem or Rupees 1-9 for the 10 days.

4. The local Officer in charge of the Docks will grant Admission Tickets to the Docks from the 1st August 1855. The Tickets will be numbered in the Collector's Office. The first-half will be cut off and given to the owner of the vessel entering the Dock, and the second-half or counterpart, with the Canal Ticket held by him, will be returned to the Collector's Office, where it will remain in deposit until the owner wishes to take his Boat out of the Dock. On the day before that date, he will apply to the local Officer, who will obtain the return of the Canal Ticket, and having noted on its reverse the date of exit from the Dock, will return it to the owner or manager, taking back the first-half of the Dock Ticket from him and sending it to this Office.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER-GARDENS.

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

Price One Rupee.

[The work will extend to about 100 (or more) closely printed octavo pages. There will be a few lithographic drawings illustrating the Language of Flowers, and an Appendix of Practical Instructions and useful information respecting the Anglo-Indian Flower Garden.]

The above work is founded on an article first published in the Calcutta Literary Gazette, but the text has been since so greatly enlarged, and so copiously illustrated with additional quotations from the British Poets that it may be regarded as a new work. As only a comparatively small number of copies will be printed, subscribers are requested to send in their names without delay to the publishers, Messrs. P. S. DeRozario and Co, Tank Square, Calcutta

Notice.

ALL Parcels sent by the Government Bullock Train, which are not claimed and taken away, either by the parties to whom the same are addressed, or the parties sending the same, within two calendar months from the date of the arrival of such Parcels at their respective destinations, will, after the expiration of that period, be advertised, and after the expiration of six calendar months from the date of advertisement, be sold without further notice by Public Sale, under the order of the Post master General of Bengal, or of Post masters of Divisions or Stations, and the proceeds arising from such Sales will be appropriated by Government without further notice to any party interested, and neither the sender, nor the addressee of any Parcel, which shall be so sold as aforesaid, nor any person or persons on his behalf, shall have any right, title, claim or demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, after the expiration of the period hereinbefore mentioned, to recover from Government either the Parcel, or its contents, or the value thereof, of the sum, or any part of the sum realized on the Sale thereof as aforesaid.

J. R. BURLTON BENNETT,
Post-master General of Bengal.

CALCUTTA,
The 19th June 1855.

Notice.

COMPLAINTS having been made of Steam or British Postage, although paid on letters from India, having been levied in England, on the plea that Indian Postage Stamps are not recognised there, the Post-master General, N. W. P., begs to notify, that all letters on which Steam or British Postage is paid, in addition to Inland or Indian Postage, are stamped with the words "India Paid" in red ink, and that this mark is recognised by the Post Office authorities in England as proof of pre-payment of Steam Postage.

Parties who pay Steam Postage on their letters should note on them Steam or British Postage pre-paid to England, and as Overland letters are now received on the latest safe dates by a Writer at the Post Office Window, the Postage Stamps will then and there be obliterated and the words "India Paid" stamped in red ink.

Those who pre-pay their letters to England are recommended to give the information above to their correspondents, so that if Steam Postage be demanded from them, they may protest and appeal to Her Majesty's Post-masters General for redress.

SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 23rd June 1855

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 29th May 1855, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 23rd June 1855,) and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XVII OF 1855.

An Act to improve the Law relating to the Copper Currency in the Straits

WHEREAS the Company's Rupee is by Act XVII. of 1835 a legal tender in satisfaction of all engagements in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, but no copper coin, except the half pice issued under Act XI of 1854, is now by law legal tender for fractions of a Rupee in that Settlement; and it is expedient to remedy this defect in the law; and whereas besides the Rupee the Dollar is by custom current in the said Settlement; and it is therefore expedient to provide that the copper currency which will be legal tender in the said Settlement for fractions of a Rupee shall also be legal tender in the said Settlement for fractions of a Dollar: It is enacted as follows —

Preamble.

I. Sections I., II., and V. of Act VI. of 1847 are hereby repealed, in so far as they relate to copper pice, double pice, and pies coined in accordance with Act XXII of 1844 or Act XXI. of 1835: but in so far as they relate to all other copper coins, the said Sections shall remain in full force. And the provisions of Sections I., II., and IV. of Act XXII. of 1844, so far as they are now in force, are hereby extended to the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, where they shall have effect, any thing in Act VI. of 1847 to the contrary notwithstanding

Acts repealed.

II. From and after the first day of July 1855 within the said Settlements, a pice coined according to Act XXII. of 1844 shall be legal tender for one one hundred and fortieth part of a Dollar, and a double pice so coined shall be legal tender for one-seventieth part of a Dollar; and a pie so coined shall be legal tender for one four hundred and twentieth part of a Dollar; also a half-pice coined according to Act XI of 1854 shall be legal tender for one two hundred and eightieth part of a Dollar

Pice legal tender for Dollars

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, that no copper coins within the said Settlement shall be legal tender except for fractions of a Rupee, or fractions of a Dollar.

Proviso.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 23rd June 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 23rd June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 27th of August next:—

A Bill to empower Officers of the Customs and Revenue Departments to search manufactories and houses for contraband Salt in the North-Western Provinces

WHEREAS the existing laws do not empower Officers of the Customs or Revenue Department in the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal to search manufactories and houses for Salt manufactured or stored contrary to the provisions of

Preamble.

Act XIV of 1843, and it is expedient to give them power to do so; It is enacted as follows:—

Particulars to be recorded by Officer on receipt of information as to unlawful manufacture of Salt, &c.

I. Whenever any Officer vested with powers to carry out the provisions of Act XIV. of 1843, not being under the grade of Naib Tehseeldar in the Revenue Department or of Assistant Patrol in the Customs' Department, receives credible information that within his jurisdiction Salt is unlawfully manufactured, or the Salt refuse obtained in the manufacture of Saltpetre is without the sanction of Government so purified and refined as to produce alimentary Salt, in any manufactory, dwelling-house, ware-house, or other place, or that Salt is unlawfully stored in any such place within the limits of Customs' jurisdiction as defined by the Government of the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal under the provisions of Section III. of the aforesaid Act, he shall first record in writing the name, residence and calling of the informant, the locality and description of the house or place where he believes the Salt to be manufactured, produced, or stored, and the supposed quantity and description of such Salt, with the grounds for believing the same to be contraband, and the name of the owner or occupant of such house or place, or the name of the person for or by whom such Salt is manufactured, produced, or stored.

Officer thereupon may summon Police and proceed to search house for contraband Salt.

Proviso.

II. The said Officer, after recording the particulars aforesaid, may summon from the nearest Police Station a Police Officer, not being under the grade of a Jemadar, to attend him, and with such Police Officer and informant proceed to the said house or place, and in their presence search the same for contraband Salt; provided that such search be not made between sunset and sunrise.

Officers may break open doors.

III. The said Officers may break open the door or force an entry within the said house or place, if, upon requisition duly made, the door be not opened, or admission be refused, by the owner or occupant thereof.

Rules regarding forcible entry.

Proviso.

IV. A forcible entry under the last preceding Section shall only be made by the Police Officer in accordance with the rules and precautions prescribed by Regulation XX. of 1817, by Section X. Regulation V. of 1800 (for the Benares province,) and by Section XIX. Regulation XXVIII. of 1803 (for the Ceded and Conquered provinces) for breaking into a house for execution of process of distraint. Provided, however, that the responsibility for the act, and the determination whether to force an entry or not, shall rest with the Officer of the Customs or Revenue Department only.

Penalty for Police Officer refusing or neglecting to attend or aid in search or seizure.

V. Whoever, being a Police Officer summoned under Section II., fails to attend himself or to depute a subordinate Police Officer, not being below the grade of a Jemadar, to attend, or, after attending, refuses to aid in the search for, or seizure of, contraband Salt, or in any way wilfully frustrates the object of the search or seizure, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable, besides being dismissed from office, to a fine equal to the amount of fine that would have been leviable on the owners or holders of the Salt if it had been seized according to the information laid.

Penalty for vexatious search and for giving false information.

VI. Any Officer of the Revenue or Customs Department vested with power to carry into effect the provisions of this Act, who, under cover thereof, searches or causes to be searched any manufactory, dwelling-house, ware-house, or other place without reasonable grounds of suspicion that contraband Salt is there manufactured, produced, or stored, shall, upon conviction before the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence may have been committed, be punished with fine not exceeding 500 rupees, which fine shall be paid over to the party aggrieved, and, in default of payment of such fine, with imprisonment not exceeding six months; and any person wilfully and maliciously giving false information and so causing a search to be made in any manufactory, dwelling-house, ware-house, or other place to the injury or vexation of the owners, occupants, or any other person or persons whatsoever, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to the same penalties and also to imprisonment not exceeding two years with or without hard labor.

Every case of search to be reported to superior Officers.

VII. Every search under this Act, whether the result thereof be the seizure of contraband Salt or otherwise, shall be reported within 48 hours by the Officers of the Customs or Revenue and of the Police Departments who were present, to their respective official superiors.

Penalty for wilful connivance at the illicit manufacture, &c. of salt.

VIII Whoever wilfully connives at the illicit manufacture, production, or storing of Salt within any manufactory, dwelling-house, ware-house or other place, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable tot a fine not exceeding 500 rupees, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment no exceeding six months with or without hard labor.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Council.

FORT WILLIAM,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

The 8th June 1855.

THE following Rules for the grant of Leave of Absence for regulating Deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances, and for limiting the period of Service of Civil Servants, are published for general information, and will take effect in all the Presidencies and Settlements under the Government of India from the date of the publication of this Notification, in supersession of the Rules of the 17th May 1843 and the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER I.

RULES FOR APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Section I. No Leave of Absence from any Office or Station can be granted, but by the Government under which the employment is held, and on the application of the party requiring such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially excepted. The application must be made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

NOTE.—This Rule must be considered as superseding the Rule under which Commissioners of the Land Revenue and other Officers have heretofore been allowed to grant Leave of Absence in Bengal.

Section II. The official allowances of the holder of a Civil Office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the date of his quitting until his return, or, in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave, to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Section III. No Leave of Absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by Medical Certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE.

Section IV. Upon application duly made, the Government may grant Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V. When an application for Leave of Absence, is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a Certificate and a Statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed, as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere, as laid down in Section IV.; and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtaining leave, the Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, on their being satisfied, on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery. Should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the Presidency, the Certificate must, in the first instance, be counter-signed by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, and afterwards submitted with the statement of the case for the consideration and counter-signature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The Certificate shall be given in the following form :—

I, A. B., Surgeon at or of ——— do hereby certify that E F., of the Civil Service, is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to Sea, (or to such place as the Surgeon may think proper, expressing it in the Certificate).

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon, in counter-signing the Surgeon's Certificate :—

We (or I) do hereby certify, that, according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we (or I) consider the state of health of E. F., to be such as to render Leave of Absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited; and such Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division, in which the applicant may be located, as the case may be, on perusal of the statement. In like manner, if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the Certificate to be counter-signed by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the applicant is in England, or if not in England by the principal Medical authority of the Colony or Country to which the Absentee may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such counter-signature if the Certificate be not so counter-signed. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon, before counter-signing a Certificate as above mentioned, must either personally examine the applicant or state some sufficient reason why they, or he, have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI. The following conditions will in future attach to Leaves of Absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical Certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health :—

1*st*,—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided, shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section and in Section VII. of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion.

2*ndly*,—The office of the absentee will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the Presidency, from the date of his arrival thereat to the date of his quitting the Sanitarium; if to any place beyond the Presidency, but within the Continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own Presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to Sea, from the date of the sailing of the Vessel on which he may have embarked from any Port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency, to the date of his arrival at any Port within the Presidency to which he belongs, or at any other Port which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency

3rdly,—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary, and the same will be paid to him during such period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10 000 (£1,000) per annum, during that period. In cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted

4thly,—For the interval elapsing between departure from Station to the commencement of reckoning absence or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station, the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months or three months according to the distance to be travelled as prescribed in Section XX. of these Rules, and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause 3 of this Section.

5thly,—If the absentee shall apply under Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary after examination by their Medical Officer in England, that he should do so; the leave which may have been granted in India will, under the orders of the Honorable Court, be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain Office, and half salary within the limits enjoined, during such extension.

6thly,—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 5, he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment, but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, or of £250 if not above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole At the expiration of that term, all allowance must cease until he reports his return to his Presidency

Section VII. If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on Sick Leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months at one time, at whatever period of his service such Sick Leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for Leave of Absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may, on special grounds, grant Leave of Absence for one further period not exceeding six months, during which the absentee may retain his office, and half his salary under the limits above enjoined

Section VIII. If a Civil Servant after fifteen years' service, shall be compelled by ill health to apply for further Leave of Absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it, but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary; the Government of India and the subordinate Governments will however, respectively, exercise a discretionary power to grant, in such last-mentioned cases, a sick absentee allowance, not exceeding Rupees 5,000 or £500 per annum, for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX. A Civil Servant who has taken Sick Leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843. will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above Rules, with the privilege of retaining Office, provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843.

Section X. None of the above-mentioned Rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each Member may, however, with the special sanction of the Government, be permitted to be absent, under Medical Certificate, for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary, which shall be paid to him during such absence, but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Section XI Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above Rules, will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XII. The Government may grant to Civil Servants Leave of Absence to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which they may resort for one month in each year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such Servants—such leave, however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave, but Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year, may obtain, under the like conditions, Leave of Absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may, in like manner, be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave; but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this Rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave, and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant

Civil Servants absent from their Stations under Medical Certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this Rule in continuation of their Sick Leave, and if, while absent under this Rule, they be granted extended leave under Medical Certificate, they shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate for the whole period of their absence.

Civil Servants who have been absent on Medical Certificate during any portion of a calendar year are not entitled to leave under this Rule during that year; but in determining the interval necessary to entitle a person to leave under this Rule, no reference will be made to any intermediate Leave of Absence that may have been granted under Section XIV. Clause I.

Section XIII. As a general Rule, when leave is granted under Section XII, such leave will be in one period only, whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions to complete one month within the year, and the term year shall be held to mean the calendar year, commencing with the 1st of January and ending with the 31st of December, but as an exception to this Rule, it shall be discretional with the several Local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction Leave of Absence under this Rule to such parties as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in instalments, not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year, on the understanding that no leave can be granted for any fresh calendar year until the completion of three months from the expiration of the entire leave or of the last instalment of leave taken in the past calendar year.

Section XIV., Clause I. The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant to a Civil Servant special Leave of Absence on Private Affairs for six months, to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort, provided, however, that if any Officer to whom such leave shall be granted shall be absent from his Station for any period exceeding that to which he may be entitled without deduction, under Section XII., the absentee shall, for the period in excess, draw no more than one-half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months (exclusive of any period which may be granted under Section XII.) any Office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

Clause II. The Leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto, and a second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause III. It will be understood that leave under this Section is not to be granted as a matter of course to every applicant, but that it will be the duty of the Government to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

CHAPTER IV.

FURLOUGHS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XV. In the place of the period of three years (in one term,) for which Furlough has hitherto been granted, Civil Servants will be allowed the option of taking a Furlough of three years as at present, or of dividing the Furlough into three periods of one year each, to be taken after successive periods of seven years service, or into two periods, which may either be of one or two years respectively, or of eighteen months each, provided that, in every case, the Civil Servant shall declare, on taking his Furlough, whether he intends it to be for twelve, eighteen, twenty-four or thirty-six months, in order that the Government may make its arrangements accordingly. In case of a division, into two periods, the first Furlough must be taken after a residence of not less than ten years, and the second Furlough after a further residence in India of ten years from the date of return from the first Furlough; but Civil Servants returning on Furlough to Europe will continue, as at present, to vacate their offices.

Section XVI. The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever, be permitted for any longer period than three years.

Section XVII. Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under Medical Certificate, before completing seven years' residence in India, will be entitled to receive during their Furlough on Private Affairs, taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum, for three years.

Section XVIII. Clause I. In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years, will count as service in India in the twenty-five years entitling to the annuity, the present qualification of twenty-two years' residence being retained.

Clause II. Absence on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as Service and residence in India, and be so computed in addition to the three years of absence which under the Clause next preceding are allowed to be reckoned as Indian Service. All periods of short Leave of Absence on Private Affairs taken under Sections XII. and XIV. of these Rules will also count as service and residence.

Section XIX. Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Orders No. 1150 dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of Leave of Absence and Furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

CHAPTER V.

RULES FOR JOINING STATIONS.

Section XX. There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new Office the periods of one month, two months, or three months for joining, accordingly as the distance may not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last-mentioned distance. Officers not joining their Station within the said periods, respectively, shall forfeit their salary for the time delayed in excess of the above periods, and if such excess shall exceed one month, the office shall be vacated, unless otherwise specially ordered by Government.

NOTE.—The time allowed for joining is computed from the date of the Order reaching the Officer appointed.

Section XXI. Upon the first appointment of any Civil Servant, who shall be reported qualified for Public Service by the Examiners appointed by the Government, to any Civil Station, there shall be allowed for travelling expenses to the Station, an allowance at the rate of 8 annas per mile by the direct Post Road, according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the Bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after the Officer shall have joined the Station: if required in advance, an order of the Government shall be necessary.

Section XXII. The salary of office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in case of Junior Civil Servants, the salary of Assistants will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the Public Service unless forfeited under the preceding Rule, through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

Section XXIII. In case of a change of office, when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No XX., regulating the time and distance for joining Station, shall be applicable, and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that Rule respectively, draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join, a sum equal to that of his previous situation.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES FOR DEPUTATION ALLOWANCES.

Section XXIV. The sum of Company's Rupees 52,200 per annum having been fixed, under the orders of the Court of Directors, as the maximum salary of Civil Office for the offices of Government under the situation of Member of Council, Civil Servants who may draw larger allowances than this annual sum, as a consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance, in consideration of the necessary expenses of their position, will, in all cases of absence, be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the allowance thus limited, and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position; provided however, that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854. the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary. under the Government Resolution, No. 563, of that date.

NOTE.—This Rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

Section XXV. Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:—

To Civil Servants not holding any substantive appointment, at the rate of 50 per cent. on the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, such Deputation Allowance being in addition to the Subsistence Allowance of their respective ranks.

To Civil Servants holding an office of inferior emolument, when officiating in an office of superior emolument, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, at the rate of 20 per cent upon Company's Rupees 2,000, and of 10 per cent. on the amount in which the monthly salary may exceed Company's Rupees 2,000, provided however that no lower rate of Deputation Allowance shall be given than Rupees 200 per mensem.

The Deputation Allowance shall in all cases be in addition to the salary of the substantive appointment held by the Officer on deputation.

The above rates are granted provisionally, subject to future revision.

In the Punjab, Nagpore and other places, where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances, payable at the above rates, will be calculated, not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating, but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointment may belong

A Civil Servant acting for another shall have no claim to Commission or Fees, where any such sources of emolument exist These shall be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved, subject to the prescribed deductions.

A Civil Servant acting in an appointment, the salary of which is to be reduced on the retirement of the present incumbent, will draw Deputation Allowance on the reduced salary.

An Officer officiating in more than one appointment will be entitled to Deputation Allowance, regulated by the aggregate amount of the salary of the offices.

An Officer appointed permanently to a higher situation, but prevented from joining his appointment by an order of Government, and detained to officiate in a situation of still higher emolument than the one to which he has been permanently appointed, will be entitled to a Deputation Allowance in addition to the higher salary to which he has been promoted.

Section XXVI. No Civil Servant, temporarily officiating for another, shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance, according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another, shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance, unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

Section XXVII. No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same office or establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month, and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrear. But a servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to Deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

Section XXVIII. Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed, or if ordered by Government on special duty, shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

CHAPTER VII.

RULES FOR LIMITING THE PERIOD OF SERVICE.

Section XXIX. After thirty-five years' service no Civil Servant shall be appointed to any new office, nor be permitted to retain an office which he has held for a period of five years and upwards, except in special cases, which are to be referred for the decision of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors. This Rule will be applicable to every Civil Servant appointed to office after its promulgation, and to the case of every other Civil Servant to whom it relates at the close of five years from the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO LAW OFFICERS.

Section XXX. The East India Company's Law Officers may obtain Sick Leave and Short Leave on Private Affairs under the conditions prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, both as respects the periods of absence and the limitation of allowances during such absence. Leave will however only be granted at the convenience of the Government, and no additional expense will on any consideration be incurred by the Government on account thereof.

If any Law Officer shall quit his duty, save on leave under Medical Certificate or on Short Leave on Private Affairs, he will be considered to have vacated his appointment.

CHAPTER IX.

RULES FOR CHAPLAINS AND ASSISTANT CHAPLAINS.

Section XXXI. Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may take Furlough on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate, also privilege leave and leave for short periods on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate in or out of India, on the same terms and conditions as Military Officers, with the following modifications:—

1*st.*—Chaplains being allowed to retire after twenty years' service, the period of Furlough on Private Affairs, is in their case limited to the present term of three years. The Furlough may however either be taken in one period, or be divided into two periods, whether of eighteen months each, or of two years and one year, respectively, and if divided, the first Furlough may be taken, as at present, after seven years' residence, and the second Furlough after a further residence, of ten years in India. As respects Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains appointed before the 11th January 1854, when the period of Service was only eighteen years, their second Furlough, if they should exercise the option of taking Furlough in two periods, will be available after a second residence in India for a term of eight years.

2*ndly.*—No Furlough or Leave of Absence, whether on Private Affairs or on Sick Certificate, taken in Europe or elsewhere out of India, in excess of three years, will be allowed to count as Service in India in the twenty years which qualifies Chaplains for their Retiring Pensions.

Section XXXII. The Furlough Pay of Chaplains will remain as at present. With regard to their allowance during Sick Leave to any place out of India, they shall receive salary (but at a rate not exceeding £600 per annum) for the first [illegible] months of absence, and, for the remaining twelve months, an allowance equal to the Furlough Pay of their standing. If the leave be extended, an allowance equal to Furlough Pay may be drawn [illegible] a further period of eighteen months.

BAREILLY COLLECTORATE ;
The 19th June 1855.

Calcutta Collectorate Notice.

1. WHEREAS, under the Orders of Government No. 505, of the 4th April 1855, communicated to this Office by the Commissioner of the Nuddea Division, Rule 3rd of the Canal Demurrage Rules, of the 22nd August 1853, having been modified, the modified Rule is hereby published for the information of the public :—

MODIFIED RULE

2. "Boats undergoing repair in the Docks "adjoining the Circular Canal, or in such places "adjoining the Eastern Canal, as may be appointed by the Collector, shall, while so undergoing "repair, be charged at the rate of one-sixteenth of "the demurrage prescribed in Rule 2nd."

3 To prevent any misconstruction of the modified Rule, it is hereby explained, that in the case of a Boat of 1,000 maunds, the owner would pay Rupees 5 for admission into the Canal and be allowed nine days, within which it must pass out, or pay demurrage at the rate of Rupees 2-8 per diem. In the event of the Boat requiring repair, and resort being had to the Dock for that purpose, the charge will be under the present Rule, 10 Annas per diem, or Rupees 6¼ for 10 days, but under the modification now sanctioned, it would be 2½ Annas per diem or Rupees 1-9 for the 10 days.

4 The local Officer in charge of the Docks will grant Admission Tickets to the Docks from the 1st August 1855. The Tickets will be numbered in the Collector's Office. The first-half will be cut off and given to the owner of the vessel entering the Dock, and the second-half or counterpart, with the Canal Ticket held by him, will be returned to the Collector's Office, where it will remain in deposit until the owner wishes to take his Boat out of the Dock. On the day before that date, he will apply to the local Officer, who will obtain the return of the Canal Ticket, and having noted on its reverse the date of exit from the Dock, will return it to the owner or manager, taking back the first-half of the Dock Ticket from him and sending it to this Office.

London and Eastern Banking Corporation.

REFERRING to the Government Notification, No. 5, dated Fort William, Financial Department, 24th January 1855, giving notice of the intention of Government to withdraw the authority hitherto granted to the Government Agent at Fort William, and to the Accountants General and the Sub-Treasurers at Fort Saint George and Bombay, to act as Agents on behalf of Proprietors of Government Securities, or Shares in the Capital Stock of the Banks of Bengal, Madras or Bombay respectively.

THE LONDON AND EASTERN BANKING CORPORATION offers to receive charge and undertake the safe custody of any Government Securities and Certificates of Shares in the Bank of Bengal, and other local stock, which the Proprietors may wish to deposit with the Bank ; and will receive the interest on such Government Securities, and the dividend on such Bank-share certificates, and other local stock, as it falls due, and either remit the amount of such Interest and Dividend to England in Bills of the Bank, or pay the amount as Proprietors may desire.

The London and Eastern Banking Corporation will also receive remittances for investment in Government Securities, Bank of Bengal Shares and other stock, and will negotiate the sale of such Securities and stock, when required to do so.

One quarter per cent. commission will be charged on the sale or purchase of Government Securities and Bank stock, &c., and on realizing Interest and Dividends. But when the proceeds of Government Paper or other stock, or the Interest or Dividends on the same, are to be remitted through the Bank, no commission will be charged.

J. MACKELLAR,
Manager, Calcutta Branch.

Agra and United Service Bank.

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA having, by Notification of 25th January 1855, signified its intention to dissolve its existing connexion with the Government Agency, the AGRA AND UNITED SERVICE BANK will, on being furnished with the necessary powers, receive charge of Government Paper and Bank Shares from the Agent, and realize the Interest when due and Dividends when declared. The Bank will also sell or invest in these Securities for constituents.

Forms of Letters and Powers of Attorney may be obtained on application to the Bank at Calcutta, or its Branches at Agra and Lahore.

When the proceeds of Government Paper or Shares sold, or of Interest and Dividends realized, are remitted by the Bank's Drafts on England, or on its Indian Branches, no Commission will be charged.

If otherwise paid, or when the Paper or Shares are delivered over, the charge for Commission will be ¼ per cent.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER-GARDENS.

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

Price One Rupee.

[The work will extend to about 100 (or more) closely printed octavo pages. There will be a few lithographic drawings illustrating the Language of Flowers, and an Appendix of Practical Instructious and useful information respecting the Anglo-Indian Flower Garden.]

The above work is founded on an article first published in the Calcutta Literary Gazette, but the text has been since so greatly enlarged, and so copiously illustrated with additional quotations from the British Poets that it may be regarded as a new work. As only a comparatively small number of copies will be printed, subscribers are requested to send in their names without delay to the publishers, Messrs. P. S. DeRozario and Co., Tank Square, Calcutta.
